DUNDEE

John Crawford was a Portland visitor last week.

Mrs. Ordell, of Seattle, is a guest of Mrs. Dillinger.

T. A. Harper made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Francis Keyes is working at the ship yards in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Greer have returned from a two weeks' visit in Spokane.

Edward Billich, who is working in Portland, came home Sunday for a little visit.

Mrs. Flanders and son, Vernon, from Ballston, Oregon, were recent guests at the Keyes' home.

It is gratifying to know that the Red Hills have a membership of one hundred per cent in the Red Cross.

A. J. Palmer, who had a fall a month ago, is able to be out again, but will be obliged to use a crutch for a time.

The New Year brought a son to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts. The newcomer arrived on the evening of January first.

Roses and marigolds are still blooming in the Red Hills, and the last two weeks in December and the first week in January the violets woke up and thought it spring time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allan have received two letters from their son, Alred, who is with the American Expeditionary Forces in England. Alex Allan is with the forces that recently arrived "somewhere across the pond."

The many friends of Gertrude and May Fowler will be glad to know that their father is married again and that he has taken them to his home on a stock ranch in Eastern Oregon. The new mother is very kind to the children and their cup of joy is running over.

The Dundee auxiliary of the Red Cross is making an effort to double its output of garments during the coming two months. With that end in view the ladies are giving more time to home knitting and are spending Tuesday afternoons as well as the whole day on Fridays to working at headquarters. Every woman in the community is earnestly requested to help in this work.

FERNWOOD

The Card Club met with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gill Saturday night and the usual good time was enjoyed.

Notwithstanding bad weather and bad roads our Sunday school is holding its own, both in interest and numbers.

Wm. Dailey, who has been making his home with his sister, Mrs. T. E. Hobson, this winter, went to Salem Saturday for a few weeks' visit with friends.

The warm rains still continue. It looks, feels and sounds like spring and only our calendars remind us that it is not. The farmers are hoping for a change of weather before the fruit trees come into bloom.

Should the weather be favorable it is hoped that a crowd will get out on Friday next to shingle the still unfinished playshed. Conditions have been very much against its completion for the past month or two.

A goodly number of Fernwood people attended the box social held in Newberg Friday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross fund. They all reported, a good time and what is more important, a large sum of money was taken in.

In spite of the heavy rain which lasted nearly all day Thursday, twenty-one of our Red Cross ladies met at the home of Mrs. Wesley Moyet and did valiant work with needles and thimbles, for the comfort and well being of our brave boys at the front. The place of meeting will hereafter be at the home of Mrs. Nelson Brouillette.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mrs. A. C. Seely spent last Saturday in Portland.

Ethel and Steirly Bush are now attending Newberg high school.

The local Red Cross society met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. U. Smith.

DeVere and Kenneth Fendall spent Sunday with Lawrence Boyd, of Ribbon Ridge.

Ralph Baker recently spent a week working for his uncle, Lewis Baker, of Carlton.

J. U. Smith was in Corvallis last week to attend the "Farmers' Week" program at O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fendall spent the first of the week visiting with relatives at Willamina.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lamson, of Zillah, Washington, spent last week visiting at the home of their cousin, E. G. Fendall, and family.

N. P. Nelson is gaining prestige as an auctioneer as you will notice by the fact that he sold the boxes at the big Red Cross social at Newberg last Friday.

Friday evening, January 11, a meeting will be held at the Ewing Young school house for the purpose of organizing a literary society. Young and old are urged to come and help make it go.

C. E. services next Sunday night will be in charge of Ralph Baker. The topic for discussion will be "Young Christians Reaching Upward." Friday evening, January 18, the C. E. society will hold a social meeting of which details will be given next week. Watch for them and in the meantime plan to be in attendance.

Rev. F. C. Stannard began a series of sermons Sunday which should be of great interest to all and especially to the young people. Mr. Stannard desires, to get in touch with all the people of this community and you owe it to yourself and to the community to meet him half way by attending services every Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

RIVER FRONT NEWS

All boats are now running on schedule time.

Claud Cummings had a perfectly good small boat carried out by the high water.

"Gov." Everest has been a busy man the past few weeks endeavoring to keep his "homestead" on the south side of the river from leaving home.

As an idea of the swiftness of the current in the river during the recent rise, two young men came a distance of forty miles in a small row boat in four hours.

The Chase & Linton plant was pretty well battered up by drift, but the full extent of the damage cannot be estimated until the water recedes another three or four feet.

Ray C. Dillon, engineer of the Seon for the past several years, has resigned his position for one with the Willamette Iron & Steel Works, of Portland, where he will install machinery in the new boats built by that plant.

Work on the new O. C. T. Co.'s dock is at a standstill at present. Dock facilities are very inadequate, as the old one is sadly in need of repair, and from the present outlook it will be considerable time before the new one is completed.

Ambrose Barcroft is what might be called a "perambulating farmer." He lives up town, milks his cow down on lower River street, and feeds his chickens on the island. Where he keeps the rest of his stock we do not know, but it keeps him pretty busy all day with bicycle and gas boat doing chores.

WELL FIXED.

"Reginald!"
"Yes, dear?"
"Sugar is getting scarce."
"Quite so. I'm glad I have you, sweetness."

REX

Claude Wright took in the show at the Heilig Friday.

Miss Helen Scott was a guest at the Kane home over Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Peters transacted business in McMinnville Monday.

Miss Adelia Ackerman is staying with Mrs. Ed Bacon at Chehalis.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. M. Keiling and son were Sunday visitors at the Gustin home.

Mrs. Walker is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. John Pettingill, at Newberg.

Mrs. Ed Asmus and the Misses Hattie and Lily Velte were visitors at the Henry Strate home.

Rev. and Mrs. G. V. McClure, Mrs. Saint and Rev. Pemberton were Newberg visitors Monday.

Francis Jenkins, who is at present in the bakery department at American Lake, spent Sunday at home.

Misses Ruth and Erma Kane and Merrett Woodworth attended the basket ball game at the Newberg high school between students and alumni Saturday evening.

A. Lundberg has been suffering the past week with an acute attack of lumbago. N. L. Wiley has also been confined to the house the past few days with a severe cold.

Mrs. August Schaad and two children returned from Eustis, Nebraska, Saturday after a visit of several weeks. Mrs. Gottlieb Schaad, who accompanied her on the trip, returned last week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Harmon. At the close of the business session a good program was given. Mrs. J. P. Sawyer was elected president for the coming year, Mrs. C. C. Harmon vice president, Mrs. A. J. Heskett secretary, Mrs. O. Woodworth treasurer. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Sawyer.

RAYBELL

Earl Barber left on January 1 for Portland where he expects to go to work.

Miss Anna Ringnes returned Tuesday evening from her Christmas vacation, spent with her parents and friends at Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamson, of Toppenish, Washington, are visiting with relatives at West Chehalis and Willamina this week.

The meeting of the Raybell Parent-Teacher Association held on Saturday evening was a very good one, although the attendance was not large. Mrs. Fred Yeager was elected secretary-treasurer to fill the place of Miss Maude Olson.

IT DOESN'T ALWAYS WORK.

"Do you ever stop to think about how much you might save if you were to stop smoking?"

"Look here, friend, I'm one of those chaps who never touched tobacco, and I am $11,000 dollars in debt. How do you account for it?"

BUTTING IN.

Fond Mother (as the train left for Camp Grant)—See that you don't sleep in a damp bed, and, George, don't put on damp clothes.

Unkind Comrade (interrupting)—And, George dear, see you don't drink out of a damp glass!

A RELIEF.

"How do you suppose our boy likes being in the trenches?"

"I am sure he likes it," mused Mrs. Cornossel. "It must be a great relief to Josh to be able to get his feet as muddy as he likes without me making a word of complaint."

LOCATED.

"Where was your old man wounded?"

"In the abdomen."

"Where's that?"

"Don't know—somewhere in France, I suppose."
