

Locals and Personals

Arrival and Departure of Passenger Trains.

Trains for Portland	Trains from Portland
6:37 A. M.	9:03 A. M.
9:10 A. M.	11:02 A. M.
1:17 P. M.	5:23 P. M.
3:53 P. M.	6:58 P. M.
2:25 P. M.	2:05 P. M.
*1:00 A. M.	*12:55 A. M.
*6:50 P. M.

*Saturday night only.
*Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

Mrs. G. Y. Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Wallace, is out from Portland to remain a few days.

Mrs. R. J. Pemberton and little daughter are down from Salem for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker.

Miss Flora Ehret left here today for Pasadena, California, where a position secured by a friend in advance is awaiting her.

The W. C. T. U. is arranging a program and Hoover lunch for Tuesday evening, January 22. Further particulars will be given next week.

Mrs. S. J. McDonald, who spent two weeks here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones, went to her home at Albany today.

The first public recital to be given by the music department of Pacific College will occur on Monday evening, January 28, at Wood-Mar Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Holton, the latter a sister of W. S. Stull, arrived here from Tilden, Nebraska, Tuesday, taking Mr. and Mrs. Stull by surprise.

A burning chimney at the Siebert residence on Dayton Avenue was the cause of a bit of practice on the part of the fire department Wednesday evening.

S. F. Wallace, who was confined at home with the grip for a few days, is back in the store again. Mrs. Wallace is visiting her daughter in Portland.

Wallace Jones, son of Mrs. Anna M. Jones, recently returned from Montana where he spent last season with his brothers and is in school. His brother Carl recently enlisted in the army.

At a recent meeting of the school board J. F. Adams, formerly from Oklahoma, was elected to the vacancy in the high school caused by the resignation of Prof. Amey who left to enlist in the army.

President Pennington gave the first of a series of extension course lectures to be given by members of the college faculty, Tuesday evening in the academy room at the college, his subject being poetry. He will continue the same subject next Tuesday night.

The body of Mordecai Ellis, who died at Philomath at the age of 84 years, was brought to Newberg on Wednesday for burial beside his wife, who was buried here a short time ago. Since the death of the latter at FaFayette, Mrs. Edith Coleman, their daughter, took her father to Philomath where she is teaching, in order to care for him. The Ellis family formerly lived at Newberg.

Sam Linton was up from Oregon City on business the first of the week.

B. C. Miles, of the Spaulding Logging Co., was down from Salem Tuesday.

W. O. Robertson and son, Balph, were out from Portland Sunday visiting the former's brother, W. L. Robertson.

Ed McKern, who spent the holidays here with old time friends, left for his home at Mabton, Washington, on Monday.

Mrs. B. S. Cook was out from Portland and spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Evangeline Martin, at The Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dillon moved to Portland Tuesday where Mr. Dillon has a position with the Willamette Iron & Steel Works.

Emmett Ellis, of Bend, came to Newberg Tuesday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Mordecai Ellis. He left for home Wednesday afternoon.

Miss May Moore returned to her duties as teacher at Mt. Vernon, Washington, Sunday, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore.

Nathan Cook, who has had a good position with the Oregon Electric for several years, was here with his family over Sunday visiting at the home of his parents.

Alfred and John Dixon, who came home for the holidays and to attend the wedding of their sister, returned to their school work at Nampa, Idaho, the first of the week.

Rev. Fred E. Carter, pastor of Friends church, is quarantined at home with his family, the daughter, Miss Delight, having scarlet fever. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

John Pittman, a West Chehalis product who is now one of the accommodating brakemen on the S. P. electric trains passing through Newberg, laid off here Tuesday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Monday was "hog day" in Newberg when a number of farmers came in from across the river in Marion county with wagons loaded with fat porkers for shipment to Portland. Smith Bros. were the buyers.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bryan, who returned last week from Jerome, Idaho, where they made an extended visit with their daughter, said the weather there was almost as warm as summer and that some peach trees were almost in bloom.

E. E. Goff, who went to San Jose, California, to spend the holidays with his aged mother, returned home the first of the week. He says the earth is as dry as a bone down there, there having been but a light shower for several months.

A. C. Martin was called by wire from Quilcene, Washington, the first of the week on account of the serious illness of his father, David Martin, who has been in failing health for the past two years. During the past week death has seemed near at times.

Mrs. Charles Haughtellin, of Alberta, Canada, is in Newberg visiting her mother, Mrs. John Northup.

Curtis S. Parker and family were down from the Marion county farm last week and remained over Sunday.

Waldo Potter was so unfortunate as to get a finger taken off in the capping machine at the condenser last Friday.

J. G. Arb, who has been spending some time with his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Hicks, left Tuesday for his home in Wellsville, Ohio.

Miss Ellen Gregory, who visited her parents at Southwick, Idaho, during the holidays, returned home the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker are planning to spend next season on their place out north of Newberg, formerly the McCollum home.

Clifford Spaulding received word a few days ago of the safe arrival in France of his brother, First Lieutenant Walter L. Spaulding.

Mrs. Thomas Parry and Mrs. Floyd Gambill, of Portland, were over Sunday guests of Miss Leona Curtis. Mrs. Parry was formerly Miss Lois Brown, of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bowers, of Fruitland, Idaho, arrived in Newberg Sunday for an indefinite stay and are at present stopping with Rev. and Mrs. S. P. VanDyke.

Francis B. Waterman, who has been spending the holiday vacation with his mother, Mrs. Ida B. Waterman, returned to his studies in the University of California at Berkeley Tuesday.

Lewis Amoth received a letter a few days ago from his younger brother, Victor, saying he had enlisted in the navy and that he was stationed at San Francisco. He has two other brothers in the army.

Deputy Dairy and Food Commissioner George Fullenwider was in Newberg Monday, this being his second trip here quite recently. He said he was having some difficulty in getting one business concern here to clean up sufficiently to meet the requirements.

J. D. Gordon shipped a four-year-old Shetland pony Tuesday morning to Dr. Gustav Douglas, of Portland. It had the appearance of a vest pocket edition of the horse family while standing on the truck at the railway station, for crate, horse and all weighed only 160 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Way left Monday afternoon for Long Beach, California, for a six weeks' visit with a brother of his who lives in that city. Mr. Way's practice at pitching horse shoes down at the city park may come in well on his arrival there for they have some game pitchers down by the seashore in Long Beach who will be ready to line him up.

Mrs. J. S. Rankin and children came home from Olympia, Washington, the first of the week where they had rooms during the holidays, this being the nearest they could get to Camp Lewis where accommodations could be secured. The distance is twenty miles but Dr. Rankin was able to get over by auto bus that makes regular trips and spend considerable time with them.

Information was received here a few days ago of the marriage of Dr. H. J. Minthorn and Miss Matilda Atkinson which occurred at a recent date at Metlakatla, Alaska, where the groom has been associated with Mr. Duncan in work with the Indians of that island for the past few years. Dr. Minthorn is well known to many Newberg people and the bride is also known by a number who remember her as an evangelist who spent considerable time in Oregon a number of years ago. She has been living in Augusta, Maine, for the last few years.

Miss Jessie Britt, in company with Llewellyn Sanderman who is one of her pupils, went to Portland Wednesday to hear Harold Bauer, the great pianist, at the Heilig. She also remained over to hear the famous San Carlo Grand Opera Co. at the auditorium.

The North Main Street Club held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Jones Wednesday afternoon, January 2. The afternoon was spent with readings and discussions, after which refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. D. Kauffman January 16.

At the Red Cross box social held at the Odd Fellows hall on last Friday night prices paid for boxes ranged from 50 cents to four dollars, Dick Thurston and Orville Smith being the high bidders. The total receipts footed up a little more than $118. N. P. Nelson acted in the capacity of auctioneer.

Rev. Ira Fox and family arrived in Newberg today for a short visit with relatives. They are on their way to Minot, North Dakota, where Mr. Fox will have charge of a Brethren church. On tomorrow (Friday) evening, there will be a special service at the local Brethren church addressed by Mr. Fox to which all are cordially invited.

Monte Chalin, of Carson, Washington, who is an extensive breeder of milk goats, was in Newberg a few days ago interviewing our local goat fanciers, D. J. Gilbert and Rev. O. F. Goettel. He was born and brought up in Switzerland where goats are as common as children and goat breeding and handling he said was to his liking.

Mrs. W. B. Brooks spent the week-end in Portland at the home of her brother-in-law, Frank M. Brooks and family. She says Frank's dreams of having as much money some day as John D. may come true as he is one of the two expert painters at the Ford works in Portland and is paid a handsome salary, besides getting in much overtime.

A number of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pickett who live out in the Chehalis Center neighborhood called on them last Monday evening, this being their forty-third wedding anniversary. Apples and nuts were served as refreshments and old time games were indulged in. The visitors included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dean, Miss Minnie Dean, Miss Flora Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hodson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peters, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Duncan and Tom Herd, Jr.

The funeral services of Burt H. Udell, the soldier who died at Fort Columbia, held at the Friends church on last Sunday afternoon, were largely attended. The singing was by the church choir and the funeral sermon was preached by Pres. Levi T. Pennington, he taking the place of the pastor who was quarantined at home. The pall bearers were the following named members of Shiloh Post, G. A. R.: J. W. Moore, D. E. Way, Henry Pittman, B. F. Heveland, Levi Dobbins and D. C. McDonald.

Rev. Fred E. Carter, who is chairman of the prayer meeting committee in connection with the prospective union revival meeting, reports the following named persons to represent the different churches on the committee: Baptist, Mrs. E. H. Burns; Presbyterian, Mrs. E. E. Goff; M. E., Mrs. G. E. Kienle; Nazarene, Miss Victoria Webber; Friends, Mrs. Stella Crozer; Free Methodist, Henry Nelson. Cottage prayer meetings are to be held at different points over town on Thursday evenings at 7:30. At the Sunday morning meetings held at the various churches, the different homes for holding the meetings will be announced.

LET us with loyal, courageous hearts resolve to sustain our Country, in its colossal undertaking, to establish an unqualified liberty throughout the world, free from the devilish menace of imperial militarism, that democracy and a lasting peace shall be the heritage of our children and our children's children forever.

Let us further determine to support in every sense the several organizations designed to relieve suffering humanity everywhere, even to the limit of our self denial, that misery may be allayed and our arms victorious across the seas.

Let the year 1918 be filled with a sublime and unselfish patriotism that the splendid boys in France may feel and know the folks at home are with them in heart, soul, spirit and purse until the stars and stripes wave triumphant over there.

Yamhill Electric Co.

"It Serves You Right"

The special services being held at the Free Methodist church will continue throughout the week with the exception of Saturday night.

Comrades Stevens and Williams came out from Portland today to officiate at the installation of the officers of Shiloh Post G. A. R., for the new year.

W. T. Macy, of McMinnville, who has been appointed food administrator for this county, was down this way today visiting the various school districts with a view of getting printed instructions into every family.

Dolon Kenworthy, formerly of Newberg, who is located at Lents in the undertaking business, came out from Portland Tuesday evening to take charge of the body of Samuel Jackson, whose death is noted elsewhere in this issue of the Graphic. Rev. Benj. Smith, located at Moro, who is a son-in-law of the deceased, is a brother-in-law of Mr. Kenworthy.

Fifty years and more ago when Wm. Ray was operating a ferry across the Willamette at his farm opposite the mouth of the Yamhill river, he bought and erected a bell to be rung by people wanting to call the ferryman. Some years ago the ferry was abandoned but the bell was still retained on the farm until a year or two ago when a new school house was built in that section. Walter Ray, one of the sons, suggested to his father that they present the old bell to the school district, which was done, and accordingly the school was named Raybell, which is developing into an attractive community center and tributary to Newberg since the building of the new bridge.

Mrs. E. M. Heacock and little one came out from Portland Wednesday afternoon for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Namitz.

The oratorical association has been re-organized at the college with Frank Colcord as president, Alfred Haworth, secretary, Harold Lee, treasurer, and Henry Keeney, executive committeeman.

Coach Lewis took his P. C. team of ball players to Philomath last Saturday night where they defeated the Philomath College team, the score being 42-13. His team was made up of Hinshaw, Elliott, Wright, Colcord and Edwards.

SERVICES AT NEWBERG CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN

10 a. m.—Bible school, Z. Martin, superintendent.
11 a. m. sermon, "John the Baptist—the Man—the Message" 4 p. m.—Junior Endeavor.
6:30 p. m.—C. E.
7:30 p. m., sermon, "The Works of Eternal Life."
No name but the divine name. "One Lord, one faith, one baptism." Eph. 4:5.
All are cordially invited.

PRESBYTERIAN

Morning message—"The Great Mission Enterprise."
Evening—"Freely Forgiven." No. 6 of the Lord's Prayer.
Sunday school at 9:45, with classes for men and women.
Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30—Leader, Llewellyn Sanderman.
Monday at 7:30, Trustees' regular meeting.
Tuesday—Sunday school teachers' and officers' meeting.
Wednesday at 7:30—Mid-week prayer and Bible service.

Your Cough and Cold Need the Best Remedies

These are guaranteed

Rexall Cherry Bark Cough Syrup

One of the safest and most effective of family cough remedies—pleasant to take and does not disturb the stomach.
Prices..... 25c, 50c, $1.00

Rexall Cold Tablets, 25c
The best remedy for cold

Rexall Wine Cod Liver Extract
This best winter tonic. $1.00

Rexall Analgesic Balm, 25c

For cold in the head and to use for chest inflammation

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist

The Rexall Store

Newberg, Oregon

The Newberg Cleaners and Dyers

Have adopted for your protection, benefit and service, a HOFFMAN SANITARY STEAM CLOTHES PRESSING MACHINE

THE specific performances of this machine are to sterilize the cloth, raise the nap, bring out the color, produce lasting creases, a uniform finish, the natural body shape, and all without the usual chances of scorching or burning clothes. Seventy-one per cent of all ready-made garments, 58 per cent of special order clothing, 47 per cent of merchant tailored clothes, and 88 per cent of all clothes sent to dry cleaners, tailors and pressing shops are steam pressed on the HOFFMAN.

As the largest manufacturers of steam clothes pressing machines in the world, we take pleasure in recommending this shop as the ideal place to have your clothes pressed, knowing, as we do, that the HOFFMAN method will prolong the life of your wardrobe.

Remember, We Tailor Suits to Your Measure

Phone White 28 Gregory Bldg.