Mrs. Carrie Weesner and her daughter, of Lime, Baker county, came to Newberg Tuesday for a visit with the former's uncle, John E. Smith. They are also related to the Prof. Oliver Weesner family.

L. E. Arney received a letter a few days ago from his son, Tom, written from Norfolk, Virginia, on the thirteenth of this month, in which he said the weather is extremely cold for that section. He also said he had not seen anything equal to the Willamette Valley for productiveness and climate combined since leaving here and added, "You'll see that after this war is over Oregon will be the big state of the Union."

Mrs. J. E. Bartlett received a letter from her son, Corporal W. M. Bartlett, Co. N, 162 Infantry, 41st Division, a few days ago, written from England in which he stated he was on the ocean on Christmas day. He says: "I thought it was the first Christmas I had spent away from home and I suppose you thought the same. I have not had any mail since December 10, so Christmas boxes were not seen. I am seeing some very interesting sights in England and will have many things to tell you when I get home. I have seen soldiers from Africa, Australia, Canada and England. Have had a very pleasant time here. We are not allowed to write more than on one side of two sheets."

Abram Rowe, aged 82 years, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grove, Monday morning. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon by Rev. F. C. Stannard. Deceased came here in November from his home at River-ton, Iowa, this being his second visit here with his daughter, Mrs. Grove. Another daughter, Mrs. Frank Hess, lives at River-ton, Iowa.

Arthur Hodson and family came in from Enterprise, Wallowa county, Tuesday, where they have been located for the past several months, he having received a telegram from a surveyor in Portland for whom he has worked in the past, calling him to the city. Mr. Hodson has been following surveying and climbing over the hills of Eastern Oregon has lessened the prominence of his bay window very perceptibly. He says Oregon's dry law has had a very salutary effect on a class of men who follow surveying crews—fellows who formerly worked a few months and then left the job to hit for the nearest saloon town to blow their money in a single night, now are staying on the job through the season and saving their money. The most of them, he says, realize that they are better off as conditions now are and are free to say so.

MRS. MARY J. WOOD ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Last Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Mary J. Wood gave a one o'clock luncheon complimenting Mrs. L. T. Hayward of Dundee and Mrs. Woodworth and Mrs. Durstine of Rock Falls, Illinois, who are spending the winter in Newberg with their children, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woodworth.

These three ladies were old-time friends and neighbors in Illinois, and all are Relief Corps members, Mrs. Woodworth having been a charter member of the Sterling, Illinois, Corps. Mrs. Wood's guests numbered twenty, and with the exception of Mrs. Durstine and Mrs. Woodworth, are all members of Shiloh Relief Corps of Newberg, including Mesdames Britt, Churchill, Arney, Dr. Smith, Dart, Clemmens, Eli Evans, Oliver, Bartholomew, N. F. Byers and mother, Zumwalt, Pittman, Marshal, Alex Scott and Hunter and Palmer of Dundee.

Mrs. Cooper assisted her mother with the serving, and when the last course was served a tiny American flag waved from each plate of cream. A hush fell over the company, Mrs. Frank Zumwalt's clear, rich voice started "The Star Spangled Banner," and immediately every guest arose and joined in the singing.

Following the luncheon knitting needles were busy while the ladies listened to Victrola music and two pleasing readings by Mrs. Dart. During the afternoon many old songs were recalled and sung, among them "When You and I were Young," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Annie Laurie," and others equally as sweet.
