†Loop Special Saturday & Sunday

Mrs. Grace Henry, daughter of C. F. Butler, was down from Lafayette Wednesday on a visit.

Mrs. W. L. Bissell, daughter of Mrs. S. M. Young, was out from Portland on a visit the first of the week.

Mrs. George Ross, Mrs. O. A. Coleen, Mrs. Joseph Castrey, all of Vancouver, Washington, are here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dye.

C. A. Hodson went to Portland Wednesday with the remains of J. O. Spencer for cremation, announcement of the death of whom will be found elsewhere.

The regular meeting of the college board will be held Friday night in the president's office, when a treasurer will be elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of C. J. Hoskins.

J. L. Hoskins is off for Southern California and will visit his son-in-law, Prof. F. K. Jones, and family, at Santa Paula, and his son, C. J. Hoskins, and family at Redlands. No time limit named.

Warren Kellogg, a Dundee lad who was attempting to behead a chicken last Sunday by whacking it with a butcher knife, struck his hand, cutting a gash that required fourteen stitches. What became of the chicken and the Sunday dinner, dependent saith not.

E. F. Green, who was laid up at home from a lengthy siege with cold, is out again. A short time ago he returned from Tacoma where he was engaged with a confectionery as candy maker and he says Tacoma, with 40,000 soldiers within easy reach of the city, was lively, Seattle not being in it in point of numbers on the streets.

Melvin and Edgar Iverson, sons of James Iverson, returned from Silverton Wednesday where they attended the funeral of their sister, Sophia, who died at the age of 20 years and 5 months. Deceased was born in Mower county, Minnesota. The Iverson family lived in this community for several years after they came to Oregon and the children, including the deceased daughter, were attenders of the Newberg schools while living here. During the past year they have been living near Harrisburg but are now located at Silverton.

J. D. Gordon was out from Portland Wednesday.

John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, is in town today.

Fred Werth was out from Portland the first of the week calling on former friends.

Mrs. Levi Dobbins, who has been very sick for the past three weeks, is slowly improving.

Mrs. W. E. Barnes and family are feeding the sheep and watching the grain grow, while daddy is teaching in District 64, near Dayton.

Mrs. Omer Fendall, in company with her sister, Mrs. C. B. Wilson, of McMinnville, went to Portland Tuesday to attend the funeral of their uncle, Samuel Gardner.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the residence of Mrs. David Johnson on North street on Wednesday of next week at 2:30 in the afternoon to cut rags for sailors' pillows. Members are requested to take scissors.

President Pennington went to Seattle and attended Puget Sound quarterly meeting of the Friends church on last Saturday and Sunday. He will be one of the principal speakers at the Christian Endeavor convention to be held at Baker the latter part of next week.

C/S. Haynes, who is operating a saw mill west of Middleton, was in Newberg Tuesday exhibiting a Dearborn farm truck, the agency for which he has taken. He is located on rural route three out from Sherwood and will be glad to communicate with anyone who may be interested.

The Valley Canning Co. have been making a distribution of bank checks during the past week to blackcap growers who had their berries contracted with the cannery, growers having been paid 4½ and 4¾ cents for blackcaps, according to the quality of the fruit. All berry growers should appreciate that it is to their advantage to deliver fruit of quality, as such fruit will always bring a better price, and the cannery management will always be ready to pay the highest market price for quality. There will follow in the near future bonus checks on cherries and loganberries to those who had fruit contracts.

A recent issue of the Albany Democrat tells of prosperity that is coming to D. S. Holloway, a groceryman of that city who was a Newberg lad in his young boyhood days, he being a nephew of Mrs. George Morris. He started in there a few years ago with a capital of $500 and is now said to be doing a yearly business of $60,000. Just recently he moved into new quarters giving double the space he has been occupying.

Quarterly meeting of Friends church will be held Saturday and Sunday.

H. S. Britt, who recently returned from a trip into Oklahoma, has been housed up at home nursing a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cook and little one came in from over on the Oregon Electric Tuesday for a visit with relatives.

The Misses Florence Bassett and Jessie Britt went to Portland Monday evening to hear Leopold Godowsky, the eminent pianist, at the Auditorium.

The weather man surprised us with a snowfall of about eight inches the latter part of last week but it soon disappeared and springlike weather is here again.

A. P. Johnson and family, of Corvallis, who formerly lived here, and who have been sojourning in Southern California since last fall, have returned home.

Joseph Langellier has gone to Rimrock, Washington, to assist his daughter, Mrs. Mitchell, who has the post office there. Mr. Mitchell is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work.

C. J. Edwards, of Tillamook, who was in Portland on business, made a run out to Newberg last Saturday for a short visit with his mother, who has not been in the best of health for a short time.

John Huffman and James Jamison, friends of the Best, Langton and Lutz families, arrived here last week from Walhalla, North Dakota, just in time to get a touch of the flurry of snow, the first of the season here.

Rev. H. G. Crocker, who has been going back and forth between Newberg and Oregon City since taking the pastorate of the Congregational church in that city, is moving down with his family and household effects this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen and Mrs. Mary Jane Cook, of Salem, passed through Newberg Tuesday morning on their way to Portland to attend the funeral of Samuel Gardner, brother of Theodore Gardner, of Newberg, who died at his home in that city, following an illness of several months.

Dr. Ralph Van Valin went with Dr. John S. Rankin the first of the week on his return to Camp Lewis, returning this morning. Besides visiting at the camp he saw Tacoma, Seattle and Bremerton, all of which he says are full of life on account of war preparations. He says he was greatly impressed with the magnitude of the hospital facilities at Camp Lewis.

C. L. Monson, salesman for the Pacific Paper Co., came in Wednesday wearing a smile that indicated that he did not care what became of the Kaiser, and it was all on account of the bow made into the Monson household at Albany a few days ago by a new born son, the third in the family. Had it been a girl this time the smile would have been even more fetching.

Wednesday evening's papers brought a surprise to many Newberg people in the announcement of the death of A. King Wilson, mayor of Oswego and prominent attorney of Portland. He died at St. Vincent's hospital where he was taken January 28. It appears that his case had not been considered serious up to a short time before his death. Mr. Wilson has been a Newberg visitor many times and has acted in the capacity of judge in many contests in debate and oratory here and elsewhere where Pacific College students have been interested. He was always jovial and kindly disposed toward students and was held in high esteem by young and old.

Mrs. G. W. Range, who, with her daughter, Mrs. Latourette, went to California last month for an extended visit, writes that they arrived safely at Patterson in the San Joaquin Valley, on the nineteenth, finding it pretty windy, but that it had since settled down and the weather was fine. This, she says, is an irrigating district, the water coming from the San Joaquin River. The colony consists of about 2,500 people, 26,000 acres in the district. The hay crop is alfalfa. On account of the long dry season many fine cattle are being shipped into Oregon as feed is scarce. Roads are dry and hard, looking as though it had never rained there. She concludes her letter by saying she is enjoying it there but "give me Oregon for a home."

U. S. TRANSPORT SUNK 300 LIVES LOST

The morning papers tell of the sinking of the Cunard liner Tuscania, off the Irish coast, carrying 2179 American soldiers.

The first reports indicated a loss of about half the number on board, but later, the number was cut down to something like 300, with the probability that more survivors will yet be reported. Those saved were landed at Larn and Buncrana, Ireland.

The troops were composed mostly of Michigan and Wisconsin National Guardsmen.

Clifford Maynard, of McMinnville, was a week end visitor in Newberg.

George Chase is putting in a news stand adjoining the post office building.

Miss Gladys Caviness, of Portland, visited over Sunday in Newberg with Miss Huldah Gilbert.

Rev. O. F. Goettel will preach special sermons at the Nazarene church Sunday, morning and evening.

The P. C. ball team suffered defeat at the hands of the McMinnville College team on last Friday night.

Mrs. H. G. Miller returned from Corvallis the first of the week, her daughter, Mrs. Cook, coming with her.

The flurry of wind Monday night blew down the old flag pole on the college campus and fortunately no damage was done in the fall.

Mrs. W. H. Watts was in town the latter part of last week arranging for shipping their household goods to their new home in St. Johns.

Mrs. T. E. Miles is still at Hermiton where she has been for some time assisting in the care of her brother, Charles White, who is seriously ill.

J. A. Fort, M. P. Elliott, D. D. Coulson, Walter Wilson and Mr. Sanders went to McMinnville this morning to respond to jury call for circuit court.

The W. E. Crozer family have moved to the D. E. Way property on Wynook street where they will have more room for the children and the cow.

Mrs. Susie Jones and son, Levi, of Amey, Wisconsin, are visiting her brother-in-law, C. E. Burke, out beyond Springbrook, and will probably remain for some time.

Special service flag exercises will be held at the M. E. church Sunday morning in honor of the thirty-five boys from Methodist homes who have enlisted in the service.

H. J. Maynard left Monday for Livingston, Montana, where he will make his home with his son, George, for a while. He visited enroute with a daughter at Stites, Idaho.

The Misses Carrie and Mary Lewis, of Denver, Colorado, are visiting at Springbrook at the home of their uncle, Levi Lewis. They expect to go to California for a visit with other relatives in about a week.

Miss Helen Prosser, one of the Honor Guard girls who studied telegraphy in Newberg last year and who has a position with the Western Union in Portland, was out for a visit over Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. R. Prosser.

R. Boyd, who has been getting out ship knees in the Mountain Top neighborhood, has moved his force of men to Forest Grove on account of being unable to secure timber here. He says there is plenty of good timber here but the owners will not let it go. He thinks the government may take a hand later.

As a result of discussion at the growers' meeting held at the cannery last Saturday relative to the importance of an organization for a selling agency, a meeting is called for Saturday of this week at 10 o'clock at the cannery for further discussion of the subject. It is expected that Secretary Dodson of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, W. H. Crawford, secretary of the Oregon Development Bureau, and R. L. Paulus, manager of the Salem Fruit Union, will be in attendance and take part in the conference. Growers are invited to attend and bring their lunch baskets.

You Can Reduce the Work in Your Home by the Use of Electric Devices and Save Money as Well

The Electric Range is the last word in cooking The Electric Washer is women's best friend

If the business man has the typewriter and the adding machine in his office as means of saving labor and expense, should not the home have an Electric Range and Washer for the very same reasons? The wife and mother is the body and soul of home. To lessen her work and make her household duties enjoyable is the duty of father and children. The Electric Range is the greatest "Hooverizer" in food known. The Electric Washer is without a peer as a conservator of health and strength. We sell them, a little down and a little a month.

RIVER FRONT NOTES

Work on the new addition to the silo plant, briefly mentioned in last week's Graphic, will start full blast as soon as the weather will permit. The plant will give employment to many more men and boys when in operation. As grain sacks have gone to unheard of prices, the government having fixed the price at 19 cents, a great deal of the grain will be handled in bulk this fall, and consequently there will be brisk demand for grain tanks. They will be manufactured to suit all demands—600, 1,000, 1,500, 2,000 and 2,500 bushels. They will also build water tanks in all sizes, from two to 25,000 gallons.

In speaking of the recent shipment of silos to the Millbrae (Calif.) Dairy Company, George Skeels, superintendent of the local plant, gave the writer some figures as to the amount of ensilage the silos will contain. Each silo will hold 230 tons and the total capacity of the recent shipment is 920 tons. As the company intend ultimately to distribute thirty silos among their various ranches, they will have capacity for storing 6,900 tons of dairy feed. The company investigated several other silos and finally settled on the "Indiana."

The Chase & Linton crew put in several hard days' work getting their outfit ready to work. The high water did considerable damage, but they will be ready to take out gravel by the time the water gets low enough to permit the machinery to operate. The Spaulding sawmill is receiving a good supply of logs and they are being handled in the boom by an entire new crew. The steamer, Seon, went to Oregon City Sunday and came back Monday evening with the Chase & Linton pile driver and one scow in tow. She was assisted up the river by the gas boat, Argosy. The company is going to drive some piling and re-model their plant to some extent. The company's Oregon City crew also came up to work on the job.

Are Your Eyes Optically Correct?

There is one important requirement of

GLASSES

With it, they fit; without it, they don't.

Every eye is helped by having its focus correctly adjusted with lenses. Many eyes are irreparably injured by crude testing with drugs that poison and paralyze.

A skilled optometrist would not think of blinding you even temporarily to fit your eyes with glasses.

He knows the laws of optics and needs no such cloak to conceal his ignorance.

If you have never had your eyes sanely and rationally tested for glasses, suppose you call on

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ELECTORS

In order that we may correct our registration files of voters with as little inconvenience as possible to the registrars of this county, I am pursuing the following method:

If you have changed your residence since the last election, you should fill out the following coupon and mail it to the County Clerk. First, put in the precinct you were registered in last election, then the precinct that you are now living in and give the reasons for the change, that is, for instance, "I have moved." Or, if a member of your family who was registered, has died since last election, you should fill out the following coupon stating this fact and mail to the County Clerk in order that he may clear up the records and have no registrars on the files who should not be there.

Please attend to this matter at once as it will only be a short time until another election. If this matter is not attended to, the poll books, which are sent out from the Clerk's office will not be up-to-date and will cause you the inconvenience of being sworn in on election day.

C. B. WILSON, County Clerk.

COUPON

I hereby request that my previous registration in Precinct No., in Yamhill county, Oregon, be changed to Precinct No., for the reason that I have.....
