THE REASON.

"That fellow will never look in a mirror when he is drunk."
 "I suppose he thinks it is no time for sober reflection."

ONE CONTINGENCY.

"American as you are, don't you think you would be awed by the presence of a king?"
 "Not if I held an ace."

A BLOT.

"I understand German is still claimed to have a place in the sun."
 "Sure thing. She's now one of the spots."

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. Marie Tangen visited friends in Portland a day or two last week.

Tommy Tregilgas and Aubrey Tangen were in the city last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Crider, an evangelist from Idaho, will begin a series of meetings at the church next Sunday morning.

Henry Potts and family are now living on the Gordon farm, they being the new purchasers. The friends and neighbors gave them a welcome Wednesday evening by holding an informal reception at their home.

The ladies of the church met at the home of Mrs. Edith Walton last Tuesday and made two more quilts for the French sufferers. They will meet next Friday at the home of Mrs. D. A. Honey. They have two more quilts under way.

The ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Hall last Friday when the ladies knotted one quilt. Very nice refreshments were served by the hostess. The meetings are laid down for the present on account of the rush of Red Cross work.

Coming, next Saturday evening, a Negro Minstrel, at the school house. They are from Mirthville and promise an evening of fun and laughter. A pie social is to be held afterward, following the program. All the ladies will please bring pies. Everybody come and encourage the boys' club and help on the proceeds for the Red Cross.

REX

Mrs. A. L. McCaffrey and son, of Portland, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Miller, of Newberg, were out Sunday to help Mr. James Kane celebrate his birthday.

The local church choir feel keenly the loss of F. D. Frost as choir leader, who has been called to direct the choir of the Newberg Friends church.

Clarence Frost, of Las Molinas, California, who some time ago lived in this vicinity, paid a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. O. Woodworth last Thursday week.

Those at Rex who are acquainted with Mrs. Frank Paris, of Portland, regret very much to learn of her recent operation, and trust she will recover speedily.

The friends of Miss Nellie Crow, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, are glad to see her back at her post of duty in the primary room at school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Boyd and small daughter, of Salem, are visiting at the A. L. Jenkins home. Mr. Boyd, who is an expert grafter, is doing some work in Mr. Jenkins' nursery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Roberts, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the Woodworth home. Mr. Roberts, who is employed with the Northwest Steel Company, has recently been promoted to rivet inspector.

Ewart Garland, who has a homestead near Gordon, Montana, but who has wintered at Rex with his family, left Saturday for his farm. He was accompanied to Portland by his brother, Robert Garland.

The Red Cross Auxiliary in this vicinity hereafter will be called upon to make a regular monthly contribution to help maintain the service, and the local officers and members are planning several events to raise the required money.

Rex has reason to be proud of her thrift stamp sales which amount to ten dollars for every man, woman and child served at the Rex post office. It is now up to us to get busy and be the first office in Oregon to reach the twenty dollar quota.

DUNDEE

The silver medal contest, postponed last week, will be held at the church on Saturday evening beginning at 7:45.

The topic for Sunday morning's sermon will be "As You Like It," and for the evening Rev. Moore will give "The Christian's Alphabet."

Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Anderson have moved into the Harper house, Albert Baker and family into the Frank Crowell house, and Mrs. Kellogg is now living on the Scott Livengood place.

On Thursday afternoon about 4:45 Uel Marr, who was taking the place of the regular janitor at the school house, discovered a fire in the roof. His coolness in giving the alarm and the prompt response of the Dundee residents saved the building from destruction. About forty dollars worth of damage was done.

During the week the new food cards with their accompanying helpful recipes and suggestions sent out by the government, have been placed in every home in Dundee. Everyone in the district has expressed the willingness to aid the government in the conservation of the necessary articles of food. As some of the mothers of school children find it somewhat difficult to put up lunches on wheatless days a few recipes for wheatless biscuits follow. Next week some fifty per cent breads will be given. The ladies of the county are invited to an all day meeting at the court house in McMinnville on Saturday, the sixteenth, when demonstration lessons in food conservation will be given by experts from domestic science departments of our colleges. It is hoped a large delegation from Dundee will attend. Barley biscuits—2 cups barley flour, 1 tea spoon salt, 1 tea spoon sugar, 2 tea spoons baking powder. Sift dry ingredients together five or six times to insure lightness; mix with milk, roll thin, cut into small biscuits or strips one inch wide and three inches long and bake in a quick oven. Oat flour or rolled oats put through the food grinder or corn meal may be used half and half with the barley. One cup of cooked rice combined with either corn meal, oat flour or barley makes delicious biscuits. A little shortening may be used if desired and enough barley flour to keep biscuits from sticking to the board. Barley drop biscuits—1 cup barley flour, 1/2 cup corn meal, 1 tea spoon syrup, 1/2 tea spoon salt, 1/2 tea spoon soda, 3/4 tea spoon baking powder, 1 egg, sour or butter milk to make soft batter. Drop from spoon on hot pancake griddle and bake on top grate in oven, or bake in greased biscuit pan in moderate oven.

The most attractive play ever presented in Dundee was given on Saturday evening by the Dundee Woman's Club, assisted by several school girls. "The Women Who Did" was the title, a play dealing with historical characters and showing forth the brave deeds of some of the women of history, as well as some of their endearing peculiarities. The costumes were correct as to date and some of them very attractive, Queen Elizabeth and Queen Isabella particularly being resplendent with jewels and silken attire. Much credit is due those casting the play for their decorum in suiting the person to the character. Where all did so well special mention is unnecessary unless it be a few words of appreciation for the eight young girls who were so stately, gracious and charming in the minut, and the dear little Japanese maidens who served tea. Following is the cast of characters: American Girl, one who desires to see the Women of History, Miss Frances Eddens; Genius of History, Mrs. Spencer Vedder; Spirit of Modern America, an interrogation point, Miss Bernice Keyes; Judith, the Jewish Princess, Mrs. John Herring; Xantippe, the wife of Socrates, Mrs. Hutchison; Isabella, Queen of Spain, Mrs. Joseph Herring; Cornelia, a Roman matron, Mrs. E. G. Shannahan; Mary Washington, mother of George Washington, Mrs. Bland Herring; Molly Pitcher, the heroine of Monmouth, Mrs. Leona Hess; Betsy Ross, maker of the flag, Mrs. W. S. Allan; Hannah, the Quakeress, Mrs. J. W. Gordon; Queen Elizabeth, Mrs. Coleman; the Inca Princess, Miss Louise Baumann; Evangeline, the Maid of Arcadia, Miss Selma Holmeyer; Mrs. Murray, who entertained the British so that Gen. Putnam escaped, Mrs. E. S. Greer; Jingu, a Korean heroine, Mrs. Thomas Owens; Pocahontas, Miss Isabella Allan; Clara Barton, our "angel of the battle field" and first president of the American Red Cross, Mrs. R. W. Swink. Dancers for the minut: Misses Louise Baumann, Isabella Allan, Doris Dodd, Ruby Dodd, Doris Parrett, Harriett Sayles, Pauline Powell and Avis Eddens. Japanese maidens: Mary Kellogg, Ruth Bennett, Edith Bennett and Isabella Baumann.

Rev. Frank Moore is here from Snohomish, Washington, visiting his brother, A. E. Moore.

Hon. S. B. Huston, candidate for the republican nomination for United States Senator, came out from Portland last Friday and remained over until Saturday morning. He said he was meeting with much encouragement and was quite optimistic over the outlook for securing the nomination.

THE Newberg Graphic
 Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer
 Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measure Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruit grower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrong methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
