RIVER FRONT NOTES

Manager Skeels of the silo plant was in Salem the first of week.

One of Ambrose Barcroft's horses broke his leg Saturday, necessitating shooting the animal.

The steamer Gray Eagle took a load of hardwood lumber to the Dorenbecker Furniture Co.'s mill at New Era Thursday from up the river.

The silo plant has received a 20,000-foot tow of hardwood logs. They will be sawed at the mill and then worked into shape at the silo plant.

The gas boat Mabel took a tow of logs from up the Yamhill river to the Oregon City Paper Mills Saturday. The raft contained about 70,000 feet.

The silo plant was compelled to lay off three men last week because of their inability to get cars to ship manufactured stock on hand. Their warehouse is full to overflowing.

Things will look more natural on the river front, now that that staid old mariner, Commodore Lemon, is with us again. Sam arrived home from Southern California Friday night, and reports a fine winter down there.

The Chase & Linton Company are shipping considerable gravel, most of it going to Carlton for county work. There is also quite a local demand. The company has installed a rock crusher at their Oregon City plant and it is now in successful operation.

A special Providence must look after boys, especially from the age of twelve to fifteen years. One evening last week two such were observed crossing the bridge, and when just past the center span, one of them nimbly hopped up on the rail and walked fifty or seventy-five feet. One misstep—one less boy.

Candidate for Sheriff

I am again asking the good people of Yamhill county for the nomination to the office of Sheriff, subject to the republican primaries, to be held May the 17th. One reason that I am again a candidate, is the fact that I am Chairman of the Board of Selective Service, working for Uncle Sam (without pay) and I am pledged to do this work during the war. Very respectfully, W. G. Henderson. 27-28

For County Judge

To the voters of Yamhill county the undersigned announces himself as candidate for the nomination of county judge at the primary election to be held May 17, 1918, and if nominated and elected, promises the tax payers of Yamhill county to conduct the office on well established business principles, endeavoring to receive for the county a dollar in value for every dollar spent and keep the taxes at the lowest minimum, consistent with progressive policies, taking into consideration the great war for democracy, which must be kept first in mind at all times. 31pd C. F. Daniels.

Announcement

I am a candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff of Yamhill county at the primaries May 17. If nominated and elected I can honestly promise a personal attention to the office which would result in a more economical conduct of same, and as such officer I would use discretionary power in case of further registration on the selective draft board which I believe would meet with the fullest approval of the citizens of the county. I would not employ any members of my family in the conduct of the office. I respectfully solicit your votes. G. G. Shirley, McMinnville.
