Wm. Gunning, who is a candidate for county commissioner, was down from his farm home in the Bellvue district Tuesday, in company with Mrs. Gunning, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor.

Since the marriage of Miss Zella Dimmock Sunday, as announced elsewhere, and while the latter is away on her honeymoon, Mrs. George W. Snow is substituting for her as teacher in the high school.

Roy McDougal, who was down from his Chehalis Mountain home Wednesday, said a Portland man had just paid him $12 for two fir stumps which he was taking out at his own expense for ship knees to fill a special order.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Kelly were called to McCoy the first of the week on account of the serious illness of his step-mother, who died before their arrival. Her age was 70 years and she died on the farm on which she was born.

The body of Andrew Jansen, whose death by accident is told by our Rex correspondent, was brought to Hodson & Elliott, undertakers in Newberg, who prepared it for shipment to the Danish Consul in Portland who will hold it, pending search for relatives of the deceased.

As a "side issue" J. L. Hoskins' fancy turns to milk goats occasionally, and on his trips to Southern California he takes pleasure in visiting different breeders and looking over their stock. On his recent visit south he bought two milkers, one of which arrived here by express in good condition last Friday. The other is to come later.

This is a story told regarding one of our professional men who recently moved onto a small place a little ways out in the country: On Sunday he and his wife and little son strolled over to a neighbor's to see a goat recently purchased. The young hopeful, after gazing long at Mrs. Goat, a very strange and interesting animal to him, glanced up at his fond father with the remark, "Say, papa, that goat has something on its chin just like you have on yours."

Sam Lemon returned last week from California where he spent several weeks automobiling with his brother, Anson, and family, going as far south as San Diego. He says the tourist crop the past winter was the heaviest Southern California has ever had and that it was difficult at times to secure hotel accommodations. In speaking of road building he says the type of hard surfacing being almost universally used in California now is concrete with a light top coating of asphaltum.

Mrs. Clifford Spaulding returned the first of the week from a visit at her former home in Eugene.

M. P. Elliott returned to Vancouver Tuesday afternoon where he is working with the Valley Canning Co. force putting up sauer kraut.

Dedication services for the Service Flag of the Odd Fellows will be held one week from next Sabbath in the afternoon in I. O. O. F. hall. An invitation is extended to every one and a pleasant programme is promised.

Mrs. E. C. Baird was called to Emporia, Kansas, last week on account of the serious illness of one of her brothers. Word received from her by Mr. Baird since her arrival there tells of some improvement in the patient.

L. S. Otis & Son say they are going to plow up twenty acres of strawberries, owing to the poor condition of the plants, occasioned as they think by the mild winter weather that kept them growing and blooming, followed by freezing later in the season. Growers generally say the outlook for a good crop of strawberries is not promising.

George Bush, of West Chehalis, shipped a dozen dressed hogs to Portland Tuesday and while they were piled up on the truck in front of the express office awaiting the arrival of the train, some of the by-standers after doing a bit of mental figuring estimated that the lot would cash in for Mr. Bush—well, enough to pay for several Liberty Bonds and some to spare.

Prof. R. W. Kirk, of the class of 1898, Pacific College, has been elected Superintendent of Schools for Oregon City for next year at a salary of $2,000. For the past two years he has been at the head of the schools at Tillamook and was elected to the same place for next year. He is a very successful school man and his many friends here will be pleased to hear of his advancement.

At a recent meeting of the school board a raise in teachers' salaries was made amounting to practically 10 per cent, which brings the wage up to something near the average paid by the schools of the valley of the same class. A meeting will be held soon when the employment of teachers for next year will be up for consideration. It is understood that Prof. A. C. Stanbrough is to remain as superintendent.

A letter received Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Elliott, from their son, Paul, tells of the safe arrival in France of himself and Ross Miles and of their meeting Meade Elliott, Ben Darling and Prof. Marshall in Paris. The letter writing was begun while on board the ship but Paul says he suddenly lost interest in letter writing and did not regain it until they were well across, when the tempestuous sea calmed down, and likewise his inards.

55% INCREASE

YOU have perfect control over the fuel question when you use electricity for cooking purposes. The price of current at 4 cents makes it economy to use it when you consider wood has increased in cost 55 per cent in the last year. Cord wood is now $5.00. Slab wood, $3.50. Sawing and putting in your basement will cost $1.00 more at least.

Save your wood for heating purposes next winter by using the less expensive fuel (electricity) for cooking purposes in the spring, summer and fall.

We have many customers who use electricity for cooking. All are satisfied with the service and the cost. We sell electric ranges to suit the convenience of our customers. A payment down and a little a month places the most effective cooking convenience in your home. Electricity is the only thing making up the home costs that has not increased in price. It's cooking is not comparable with the use of other fuels.

Remember, a special rate of 4 cents.

BIG MAY DAY CELEBRATION

May Day will be observed in Newberg this year under the management of the ways and means committee of the Red Cross. There will be a big parade which no one will want to miss.

Pacific College has very kindly donated its campus for the festivities, which will include the crowning of the "Queen of the May," the winding of the May Pole by the college girls, a patriotic drill by the high school girls and a rousing ball game between two well-matched teams of star and ex-star players. An entrance fee of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children will be charged and all proceeds given to Red Cross.

The Queen for the day will be chosen by popular vote of the people. The business men are backing up the Red Cross by closing for the afternoon between the hours of 1:30 and 4:30. Get ready for a big day and a good time, for a good cause on Wednesday, May 1.

Lloyd Northup moved his household goods to Portland on Wednesday. Mr. Northup has a permanent position there.

Perfect Efficiency

Practically every factory, office and home are performing some kind of war service for their country.

The degree to which this work progresses must be measured by the personal efficiency of the individuals participating in it.

Personal efficiency recognizes good eyesight as one of its first requisites.

Your eyes are not doing their full duty unless they are able to see distant things and those close by quickly and distinctly.

It is for the purpose of rendering you perfect near and far vision in one pair of glasses that we recommend

KRYPTOK
GLASSES
THE INVISIBLE BIFOCALS

With them you can accomplish your work without loss of time necessitated by changing glasses.

KRYPTOKS (pronounced Crip-tokks) are solid lenses void of all seams or humps to worry the eyes.

NEWBERG CLEANERS & DYERS

A New Straw Hat FOR A NICKEL!

The ash heap is no place for a straw hat until it is smashed. Just because it is dirty and yellow is no sign it should be discarded. Get another dollar or two's wear out of it by cleaning it with

Elkay's Straw Hat Cleaner

All you need to do is spend a dime or a quarter—according to whether you want to clean your hat two or eight times—for a box of the cleaner. Empty one of the capsules into a glass of water, brush the hat with this mixture, rinse it off, shake it, and—put it on your head. We not only guarantee Elkay's Straw Hat Cleaner to satisfactorily clean your hat, but we also guarantee it to remove ink and fruit stains, mildew, etc., from all kinds of fabrics. 10 and 25 Cents.

Then when your hat is thoroughly clean you can use Elkay's Straw Hat Dye and make your hat any color you like. Enough to give a hat two coats of color together with brush for applying it. 25 Cents.
