Mrs. James Kane was a Portland week end visitor.

Clayton Peters, who has been up at Edwall, Washington, assisting in the spring rush of farm work, is home again.

Mrs. John Astleford and children, who were called from their new home in California recently, visited friends at Sherwood Sunday.

The men at the Huber construction camp are displaying their loyalty by a recently erected flag pole from which Old Glory floats.

Ed West on a recent fishing trip to Oregon City, came home the proud possessor of a forty-five pound salmon which he had landed.

Rev. G. V. McClure preached at Sunnyside, Portland, Sunday evening. The pulpit at this place was filled by Prof. Shambaugh of Pacific College.

Will Schaad and family visited Mrs. Schaad's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heep, of Milwaukie, Sunday, one of the little Heep children being ill.

Liberty measles are quite the vogue in the neighborhood, and let him who proudly vaunts his immunity knock wood for they'll get him sooner or later.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brickley and small daughter drove out from Portland Sunday. Mrs. Brickley and daughter will visit the Strate family for a time.

The Red Cross auxiliary will give a program and pie social

Friday evening. All are invited to attend to help the good cause along by contributing your quarters to either of the three P's, program, pies or pep.

The friends of Lewis Warner, who has rented the Young property on Parrett Mountain for a number of years, will regret to learn that he was recently stricken with paralysis, with little hope for his recovery. The recent death of his sister, Mrs. Nellie Thomas, is thought to be the cause of his sickness.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Fendall spent Sunday evening at the E. G. Fendall home.

Miss Leona Anderson, of Portland spent the week visiting with friends in this community.

The Misses Ethel Bush, Lela Yergen and Beulah Versteeg were Sunday guests of Miss Lois Fendall.

Mrs. S. M. Calkins was called to Toppenish, Washington, recently by the death of her brother, Mr. Maris.

School in District No. 61 was discontinued last week on account of measles. It was reopened Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell and daughter, Artis, visited Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray, of Raybell.

Prof. Varney, of McMinnville, was unable to come to West Chehalis to preach last Sunday and Prof. Ferricks, also of McMinnville, was sent in his stead.

On Saturday evening, April 27,

the teachers and officers of the Sunday school will meet at the church for the purpose of discussing plans and problems regarding the Sunday school.

Amos Nelson, father of N. P. and Frank Nelson, both of this community, died at his home in Newberg last week. A number of people of this neighborhood attended the funeral services at the Hollingsworth chapel. The body was laid to rest in the West Chehalis cemetery.

At the meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society last week a social was planned for Friday evening, April 26. It is to be a "Hard Times Social," and a special feature of the evening will be a "Mysterious Supper" to be served at 7 o'clock p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

RAYBELL

Miss Eva Zenzen spent Sunday at her home.

Dell Barber and family spent Sunday in Portland.

Walter Ray has become the owner of a new "Peaceful Henry."

Miss Anna Ringnes spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Larsen and Miss Maude Olson were Sunday guests at the Chancey Gell home.

Mrs. Wallace Mauzey, of Portland, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. Mauzey is a sister of Walter and Guy Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell and daughter, Artis, of West Chehalis, were guests of the Walter Ray family Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Maude Olson has returned from her work in Portland for a few weeks' visit at home. Her many friends here are glad to have her among them again.

John McNamara celebrated his tenth birthday last Thursday by asking his schoolmates to his home that afternoon after school.

The children played games and afterward enjoyed refreshments, hoping their little friend will have many more birthdays.

The school supervisor, Mr. Hoppes, visited Raybell school this week and awarded our last two stars for the library and playground apparatus. We have four pieces of the latter, instead of three, thus going one better than the standard called for. Messrs. Chancey Gell, Jim Johnston, Jack Larsen and Walter Ray worked one day setting up the apparatus.

FERNWOOD

Adolf Wohlgenuth has been spending a few days at home.

Miss Mary Hobson was a guest of Miss Evelyn Baker Sunday night.

Miss Mina Ames, of Newberg, was a visitor at the Joe Powell home Sunday.

Remember the social gathering at the gym Friday evening. A good time is hoped for.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parrish motored to Portland Saturday to visit their daughters, the Misses Della and Freda, returning the same evening.

Fred Wohlgenuth has joined the ranks of automobilists, having purchased a new Ford last week. Autoless families are getting to be the exception in Fernwood.

A good many of our young people attended services at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening. Evangelist Dunn is an interesting and forceful speaker and Mrs. Stevenson a successful song leader.

The Fernwood auxiliary of the Newberg branch of American Red Cross since organizing in December, 1917, have finished and delivered 70 pajama suits and 96 bed shirts. The need for continued effort is very great, as a result of the terrific battles which have been and are now being waged and it is hoped that every member of our auxiliary will feel impressed with the necessity of being present at every meeting in spite of pressing home duties. Let us not forget the sufferings of our boys at the front. Meeting are held every Thursday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the home of Mrs. U. S. Bryant.

MOUNTAIN TOP

The mountain roads have dried up enough to permit the passage of Fords.

Earl Etzweiler and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. John Oraduff of this community last Sunday.

Letus Davis has returned to this community to stay indefinitely. He has been working in the Portland ship yards.

Charles Tykeson went to Portland Saturday to see Mrs. Tykeson, who is improving from her long illness. She returned last Monday.

A programme was given Friday evening by the Literary. It was decided to have one more meeting in two weeks from date and end the society for this season.

Next Sunday the Sunday school will begin at 10 o'clock with church following, Rev. M. L. Burgett presiding. This will probably be his last appearance here as he goes to conference the following week and does not expect to be sent back to this field.

CHEHALEM CENTER

N. C. Johnson and Miss Edna Ralston are reported on the sick list.

The Red Cross benefit given at the school house Tuesday night was very successful. The many varied and unique costumes for "The Family Album" were good and true to old times as represented, Bert Miller and Charles Morris taking the cake as "Willie and Freddie Sparks." Miss Britt displayed her usual good talent in impersonating the little girl who explained all about each character. To Mrs. Chas. Morris, the Misses Bassett, Wilkens, Fort, many thanks are extended for the splendid musical and reading numbers. To Mr. Moore for the electric light and all who in any way helped on the program many thanks are accorded. Proceeds, $26.

Mrs. Gribbs—You look just about dead, my dear.
Mrs. Grabbs—And no wonder. I've just been to a slaughter sale and a hundred other women looked daggers at me.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

COWS MADE PETS IN KOREA

Status of Humble "Bessy" in That Country Comes as Something of a Surprise to Americans.

Americans who travel through the interior of China greatly miss "Cow's Milk and Her Butter," as a Japanese sign puts it. The people of the orient use little of either. Mares' milk is sold to invalids at a high price, because the Chinese believe that it is a source of great bodily strength.

But the natives use cows solely for draft purposes and, having earned her living for years in this manner, Bessy stands upon her dignity when Americans demand milk of her, says the Youth's Companion. To her offspring she will give it, but not to man if by any possibility she can avoid it.

In Japan there are now a few American-bred cattle owned by foreigners, that make the native cows look like goats. One of these cows was imported into Korea by a missionary, but he had difficulty in getting his coolie to tend the beast. The servant was fresh from his country home, where he had heard little and seen less. He took the cow for an elephant and fled before her.

In Korea the little native cow is a petted darling that has been indulged to such an extent that, incredible as it seems, she refuses to eat grass unless it has been boiled.

It is not unusual in very cold weather to see a pet cow clothed in a thick, warm blanket, while the children of the family shiver in their cotton garments—and often very few of them.

TOOK NO CHANCES

Miss Jumbo—Would you care to have me do a little toe dancing for you, Mr. Monk?

Mr. Monk—Yes, but not on my toes.

MICE BECOME JUNGLE TERRORS.

Small mice, the kind that get into pastries and forage about the house attacked a child, less than a year old recently and heads of the animals have been sent to the state Pasteur institute for examination, says the Montgomery Advertiser. If rabies are found the child will be given treatment. It is not thought that the mice being examined will show positive, as one examined failed to develop indications.

The mother, hearing the child cry rushed to the bed and there saw a mouse jump from the cot. She went back to bed and the next morning found two small holes, evidently inflicted by the tusks of the mouse, in the child's head.

The mice were captured and sent to the state laboratory for examination.

Nothing was known of the incident at the laboratory and information was given out that the family did not care to have names used.

SAME BOYS.

"Well," remarked Mrs. Cornet as she finished reading the letter, "if that isn't just like Josh."

"What do you mean?" asked her husband.

"The first thing he did when he got to the trenches was to get his clothes all muddy!"
