Why is Oregon's Self-Appointed Boss Afraid of Stanfield?

R. N. Stanfield.

Believing that the Republican voters of the State of Oregon would not look with favor upon Oswald West naming the Senatorial candidate for the Republican party.

And inasmuch as I have received many thousands of letters and other assurances from the Republican voters assuring me of their support, I must respectfully decline the proposal of Mr. West that all other candidates withdraw and give a clear field to C. L. McNary.

I feel that I have the confidence of the Republican voters and the people of this great state that I will serve them honestly and efficiently as a Senator and at this critical time they are inclined to support a man from the business walks of life.

Oswald West has heretofore asserted that he only desired to be a candidate that he might oppose me if I should be successful in defeating McNary in the primaries.

His interference is intolerable to me, as I believe it is to the Republican voters of the State, and I will welcome the opportunity to oppose him in the general election if he should be successful in defeating his democratic opponent, Mr. King.

R. N. STANFIELD.

Mr. Stanfield makes the above reply to the proposal of Oswald West that all candidates for senator withdraw in favor of Mr. West's candidate. The whole activity of the Democratic machine in attempting to stem the tide of dissatisfaction against their candidate now in the senate is laid bare in this last supreme attempt of Mr. West to bolster up a forlorn hope.

The question is do the people and the Republicans want this sort of bossism in Oregon, or do they want 100 per cent Americans and 100 per cent Republicans such as Mr. Stanfield, a successful, energetic, patriotic self-made man whose every act has added to the progress and growth of Oregon, a man who accomplishes something, who has worked and knows how to work, and who will work.

Stanfield is 100 per cent American and 100 per cent Republican and he would support the President in winning this war.

Which do you want? A man who can stand on his own feet, or one who cannot?

The Oregon Primary Law, while its objects are good, in practice is undemocratic, unfair and inimical to representative government.

One must have time and money to enable one to thrust his "card" under the nose of every voter and "shake da hand and pat da back" of the men and kiss the children.

No time now for all these pleasantries but I need only one vote more than one-fourth of all those who go to the Primary Election, under the Primary Law—so why worry?

If I were running for Governor one-sixth of the people could elect!

I did not help make this law.

I can prove an alibi.

Prominent Progressives in Oregon Endorse Committeeman

Portland, Oregon, April 23, 1918.

To the Republican Voters of Oregon:

We, the undersigned, all formerly Progressives and now registered Republicans, wish to add our endorsement to the candidacy of Ralph E. Williams, of Portland, for re-election on May 17 to the position of Republican National Committeeman. We endorse his candidacy for the following definite reasons:

In the first place, if Mr. Williams had not invited and encouraged the Progressives to join with the Republicans of this state in 1916, there would have been no active co-operation between the forces and Oregon would undoubtedly have been lost to the Republican cause. Mr. Williams advocated the adoption by the Republican National Committee of a similar program of amalgamation and co-operative action in the other states. If his suggestions concerning California and Washington had been followed, those two states would also have been found in the Republican column after the national election.

Mr. Williams' attitude of friendliness toward Colonel Roosevelt is generally known to Republican leaders throughout this country and state. The same spirit of unity which Mr. Williams was so largely instrumental in effecting in Oregon in 1916, he also strove successfully to bring about at the recent meeting of the Republican National Committee at St. Louis.

The new chairman of the Republican National Committee, Will H. Hays, who was elected at the St. Louis meeting, has joined with George W. Perkins, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Progressive party, in commending Mr. Williams' efforts to achieve harmony at St. Louis. On the occasion of his recent visit to Portland, Mr. Hays called attention to the splendid spirit of harmony which now prevails among all elements of the Republican party in Oregon and earnestly urged that it be maintained.

Mr. Williams' record as an earnest supporter of the government in the energetic conduct of the war, is widely known, owing to the aid he has given all war activities.

We believe in all fairness that Mr. Williams' services as outlined above, entitle him to re-election. We also believe that you are entitled to know where we stand with regard to his candidacy and for that reason, we have addressed this statement to you.

Henry Waldo Coe, Progressive National Committeeman for Oregon.
Thomas B. Neuhausen, Ex-Chairman of State Progressive Party.
Geo. Arthur Brown, Ex-Chairman of Executive Committee, Progressive Party.

Stanfield Macdonald, Pres. of Assn. of Fathers of Oregon Soldiers and Sailors.

D. L. Povey, A. I. Moulton, F. H. Lewis, Progressive Members of Hughes Campaign Committee.

RALPH E. WILLIAMS

REPUBLICAN

Candidate for National Committeeman

Ralph E. Williams, of Portland, native son of Oregon and present Republican National Committeeman, is a candidate for renomination and election. All Oregon knows that Mr. Williams was the chief factor in bringing about the reunion of the Republican and Progressive parties in the state in 1916, resulting in Oregon being the only state in the West to cast its vote for Hughes. That Mr. Williams' splendid work in harmonizing the various elements of the Republican and Progressive parties is also recognized nationally, is attested by strong letters of endorsement, written by William R. Willcox, retiring chairman of the Republican National Committee, George W. Perkins, chairman of the executive committee of the Progressive party, and Will H. Hays, recently elected chairman of the Republican National Committee. These letters refer not only to the state and national campaign of 1916, but also to the recent meeting of the Republican National Committee at St. Louis, where Mr. Williams' activities materially aided in establishing the spirit of cooperation and harmony which now prevails in the party throughout the United States.

A descendant of Oregon pioneer stock, his parents having crossed the plains to Oregon in 1845, Ralph Williams' Americanism has found abundant expression since the outbreak of the war by participation in all patriotic war activities.

As is generally known, seniority in service gives prestige and influence on the Republican National Committee in the same measure as on Congressional committees. At the present time he is ranked as to seniority on the committee by two members only. This puts Mr. Williams in a position of power and distinction such as no new member of the Committee could hope to attain.

His reelection will insure to the State of Oregon all the added benefits which will naturally accrue from his increased standing.

"A GOOD MAN TO WORK FOR IS A GOOD MAN TO VOTE FOR"

A SLOGAN chosen by the many men who have worked for L. J. SIMPSON

"Your Kind of a Man for Governor."

The Highest possible endorsement. The most rigid test that his policies practiced over a period of twenty years, are SOUND, JUST and EFFICIENT.

THE BEST POSSIBLE PROOF that his policies to the citizens of Oregon are not mere "words," but "WORDS BACKED BY WORKS."

Those who know him believe in him, believe in his ABILITY, believe in his POLICIES. They know he will give Oregon a CLEAN, IMPARTIAL, BUSINESSLIKE administration.

They know it to be true, ABSOLUTELY.

WHY?

Because—

In nineteen years he has employed 21,000 men.

He has always paid good wages.

He never had a strike or a personal injury suit.

He built many homes "on time," never foreclosed a mortgage or sued on a promissory note.

He has helped many laboring men to acquire their homes, their business and their livelihood.

These workers, who know him best, have endorsed him to a man, have adopted the above slogan and that's "WHY" he is "Your kind of a man for Governor."
