

Locals and Personals

Louis Hadley and family were down from Dayton last Sunday.

Mrs. Mary E. Allen is here from Wenatchee, Washington, visiting with relatives.

Miss Marie Senn, of Portland, spent Sunday in Newberg as the guest of the Misses Crede.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Terrell came out from Portland Sunday to attend Y. M. services.

Dr. T. W. Hester and family left for the seashore this morning to spend a few days fishing.

Mrs. A. G. Swartz, a sister-in-law of Mrs. W. T. Anderson, is here from Toledo on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bowman motored to the coast Wednesday where they will spend a few days at Pacific City.

Mrs. Sidney Rubl and children are here from northern Idaho, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen.

Mrs. Kenneth Chase and youngsters went to Portland Saturday morning to visit with relatives, returning Monday evening.

Dr. H. F. Ong and Dr. Rees joined the crowd that came out from Portland last Sunday to attend the Yearly Meeting services.

Miss Merle Sanders left here Wednesday morning for Sacramento, California, where she will spend the summer with a married sister.

Arthur George, who grew up in this community, but who has been away for the past twenty years, was down from Marion last Sunday.

J. A. Waldron and daughters, Misses Alice and Betty, have rented the Mrs. Larkin property for the summer and will take possession soon.

David Cartwell who recently came to Newberg from Condon is located with his family in the property on Dayton Avenue formerly owned by D. J. Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Christenson visited with a son at Corvallis the latter part of last week and also went over near Junction City to visit Geo. C. Christenson.

E. C. Arnett has taken over the City Transfer outfit and is now ready to do hauling and trucking of all kinds, with headquarters at the Commercial barn.

Mrs. Susan E. Crawford, the wife of J. M. Crawford, of Dundee, died in Portland last Sunday. The deceased came to the coast from Portland, Maine, in 1861, making the trip by water around by Cape Horn. She lived in San Francisco until February 10, 1889, when she married J. M. Crawford.

Rev. and Mrs. P. C. Stannard were here from Gladstone, Tuesday.

Little Jimmie Waldron is spending a few days on the Zumwalt ranch in Polk county.

Miss Leona Curtis has accepted a position in the Meier-Frank Co. store in Portland.

John Northup was a passenger to Portland Sunday for a visit with his son, Lloyd, and family.

Mrs. Walter A. Guyer is here from Bremerton, Washington, visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyre Hutchens and young son and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith were from Portland Sunday.

Mrs. Marie K. Evans was in Portland several days last week attending a meeting of the Eastern Star.

The Parlor Pharmacy received a new electric sign Wednesday which will help to point the way when in place.

Prof. Russell W. Lewis contemplates attending Summer School at the University of Oregon which opens next week.

Mrs. W. W. Nelson is home from McMinnville where she spent a week with her father, the venerable Joseph Hoberg.

Mrs. C. E. Nichols, of Bend, is here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, the latter being in poor health.

Mrs. Cora Samms White, of Enterprise, Walla Walla county, who has been in Newberg a number of times before, was here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Gause, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Gause and E. W. Newby and family came over from Washougal, Washington, to attend a part of Y. M.

L. E. Arney, who was called back to his old home in Iowa on account of the serious illness of his mother, arrived home last week. His mother died before he returned.

Capt. Harry Williams, who was pictured in Wednesday's Oregonian as the leader of the officials who made the round-up of the Morrow county moonshiners, came to Newberg to attend the funeral of his aunt, Miss Mary Williams, Wednesday.

It appears that Hon. J. C. Nelson will not be able to attend the pioneer meeting which meets in Portland this week. He has not been able to return home from LaFayette where he went to celebrate his birthday anniversary at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Al. Fletcher.

Elgin Van Blaricom went on a business trip to Astoria Wednesday, his wife going with him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson came over from Vancouver Sunday for a visit with relatives.

E. W. Hall and Lewis Hanson, long time city mail carriers, were out from Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. John B. Weed came from Dinuba, California, last week and is visiting at the home of her father, Albert Heater, out beyond Springbrook. Mr. Weed will come later.

Mrs. Chester Bottom returned home Friday from a visit with relatives in Portland following an operation for appendicitis which she underwent at one of the hospitals there.

At the annual school election held last Monday, V. A. Vincent was elected as director. He received 95 votes, Mr. Sloan 26, Mrs. E. E. Goff 22, with a few scattering votes being cast.

Lynn B. Ferguson and wife and Lyle Lalmer and wife went over the Columbia River Highway as far as the Cascade Locks Sunday, where they had a picnic dinner, returning late in the evening.

W. F. Wilkins, who recently sold his place out north of Newberg, is arranging to go to Portland to join the Newberg colony but does not expect to work in the ship yards as he says he prefers a less hazardous job.

Joe Stevens who owns a fine piece of land south-west of town, spent Sunday with Newberg friends. Mr. Stevens who is blind has just completed a course in piano tuning and will go into business for himself shortly.

K. H. Sickafosse, who came here a short time ago from Monmouth, has bought the N. T. McCoy property on West First street, occupied by Oval McCoy. Mr. McCoy has moved to the Brown property on Third and Main streets.

A couple of army officers were here one day last week in search of black locust timber for which the government will pay a good price. Anyone who may be interested may call on John Larkin at the postoffice for desired information.

C. C. Ferguson, who returned from McMinnville today, brought the information that in the Trullinger-McMinnville damage suit, Trullinger was allowed damages to the amount of $1,000, which sum had been tendered by the city.

Dale Butt is home from Stanford University where he has been taking a medical course and is contemplating enlisting for aviation work in the army. He says nearly all the Stanford male students of military age have gone into the service.

G. W. Byers Jr., who was down from Sheridan Wednesday, said his flouring mill was running every day and that he was going to be compelled to put on a night force in order to get the wheat on hand ground in the time limit set by the government.

Harry Miller, who recently bought the Wilkins place out north of town, is planning to build a large double poultry house with a view of branching out in the poultry business on a large scale. He appears to be quite successful with White Leghorns.

C. C. Ferguson has been on the jury at Circuit Court during the week that has been hearing the damage suit of Trullinger of Yamhill against the city of McMinnville, in which a water right is involved. D. P. Strait was called as a juror but was excused by the defense.

Lionel Kramien, who was home from Camp Lewis the first of the week, said he had been troubled much with a cold and hoarseness since being stationed there, as were a large number of the soldiers, and he attributed it to the strong sea breeze that sweeps through the buildings.

Miss Mildred Christenson is substituting at the general delivery window in the postoffice for the vacation season for the regular employees. Ross Newby is now away for his annual vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Woodin, of Nehalem, and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Woodin, of Astoria, old friends of J. L. Van Blaricom, were here Wednesday night in attendance at the Merrill-Barr wedding.

A. G. Curruth, editor and publisher of the Carlton Sentinel, in company with Mrs. Curruth, came over last Sunday to attend Friends Y. M. and while here called on their former Kansas friends, the W. W. Silver family.

Mrs. Elizabeth Judd, who is out from Newport visiting her brother, J. H. Rees, says there is much activity about Newport, with work in the spruce camps and railroad building furnishing employment for a large number of men, and as a consequence the houses are pretty well filled up.

Miss Bertha McCracken, who has been a member of the college faculty as domestic science instructor for the past three years, left here Monday morning for Scotts Mills where she will visit for ten days with her aunt, Mrs. Jesse Coulson, before starting for Holquin, Cuba, where her parents are residing.

Miss Eunice Lewis, who spent the year in the University of California and who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Harvey D. Crumly of Strathmore and with other relatives and friends in Southern California since the close of her year's work, arrived home last Monday. She will be a member of Pacific College faculty next year.

The wedding of Miss Susie N. Merrill, on Wednesday evening, to Mr. George Marshall Barr, of Portland, was a beautiful event. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George H. Lee, on the verandah of the home of the bride's parents, amid the beauties of the surrounding valley and mountains, and was attended by some thirty or forty relatives and friends.

John Crosby who has been located in Iowa for the past year was in Newberg Wednesday. He said he expected to go to some seaside point to spend a few weeks and later would go to the farm home of the parents of his wife in Klickitat county, Washington, to assist in harvesting, though he remarked that he did not think he would pitch many bundles.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris and son, Ralph, were out from Portland last Sunday as visitors at the E. H. Woodward home. Ralph Maris was a member of the graduating class of the Portland Dental College of this year and recently passed a successful examination before the State Board. He is holding himself in readiness to answer to a call for service in his profession in the army.

Mrs. Lottie Hannon, assisted by Mrs. A. H. Dean, entertained at breakfast in honor of her daughter, Gladys, Saturday morning at ten o'clock. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams, Mrs. W. S. Parker and daughter, Ruth, the Misses Elma Paulsen, Mary Jones, Irene and Corrine Bartholomew, Florence Rees, Gladys Hannon, Laura Hammer, Daisy Newhouse and Mr. Victor Rees.

Miss Helen M. Tuffley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Tuffley who live on Fourth street, was married to Joseph M. Cade, of Tuffley, Montana, on last Sunday in McMinnville, the pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating. After spending a few days at the seashore the newlyweds will go to Tuffley to make their home on a ranch owned by the groom. The town of Tuffley was named for the father of the bride who lived on a ranch there before coming to Newberg a year ago.

Suggestions for Summer Comforts and Economies

An Electric Range—Perfect Cooking, Solid comfort, Cheap fuel, No dirt, soot, ashes, smoke.

An Electric Iron—has no equal

An Electric Fan—All same sea breezes

An Electric Toaster—Makes toast fit for the most exacting.

An Electric Vacuum Cleaner is health insurance.

Four cents per Kilowatt hour Cooking rate.

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

Mrs. G. W. Range was down from McMinnville the first of the week visiting her daughters and attending the Y. M. services.

Mrs. Abner Blair, with her son, Chalmers and his wife, and daughters, the Misses Lura and Hilda, came out from Portland last Sunday and were visitors at the A. T. Blair home.

Miss Myrtle Gause who has been teaching in the Corvallis schools for the past two years has been here during the week visiting relatives and attending Y. M.

Cassius Carter went to Portland the first of the week and engaged for Y. M. C. A. field work in the management of boys who go out to work at fruit and berry picking.

Mayor Larkin, W. W. Silver of the city council and others have been looking in on the trial being held at McMinnville during the week, in which water rights are being considered.

Mrs. Letha Evans, a daughter of Marcus Blair who was a resident of Newberg some thirty years ago, was in Newberg last Sunday from her home in Seattle in company with her son-in-law and daughter.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Miss Daisy Newhouse at Springbrook, Tuesday, by several of her friends. The afternoon was spent in knitting and the Bartholomew sisters entertained the guests with music. Those present were the Misses Florence Rees, Mabel Rush, Mary Jones, Elma Paulsen, Gladys Hannon, Daisy Newhouse, Laura Hammer, Eva Markell, Corrine and Irene Bartholomew.

Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Crocker were here from Oregon City Monday, showing Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Freitag, of Gladstone, about the country and especially giving them a look-in at many of the orchards of the valley. Mr. Freitag had charge of the Oregon fruit exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exhibition held at San Francisco, and is now the fruit inspector for Clackamas county. He was greatly pleased, especially with the prune crop prospect, and said the big apple orchards in West Chehalis were looking well.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hollingsworth returned home the latter part of last week from Quilcine, Washington, bringing their daughter, Mrs. George A. Gwin, whose husband is now in the army. Mrs. Gwin has now gone to Pullman, Washington, to take work during the summer at the state school, and will teach domestic science in the Quilcine school again next year. Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth visited Camp Lewis and various other points on the Sound as far north as Port Townsend. They say the roads are largely paved and that they had a most enjoyable trip.

The W. E. Terrell, Thomas Rood, Oliver Weesner and Fred E. Carter families took an auto trip over the Columbia Highway Wednesday.

Miss Christine Hollingsworth, who was a member of the graduating class of Pacific College this year, left for her home at Denair, California, today.

Chas. W. Vickers, whose home is at Denair, California, was here from Camp Lewis last Sunday visiting with Miss Christine Hollingsworth and her sister.

T. E. Wright, a former Newberg resident, was out from Portland last Sunday as a visitor with his brothers-in-law, W. E. White and Vernon T. Hinshaw.

In a recent letter received by Henry Allen a few days ago from his son, Forest, written from Wilmington, Delaware, he says the residents of the cities along the coast where munition plants are located are feeling the stress of the times to a marked degree, realizing what the result would be should a bomb be dropped on one of the big plants. He sent a picture of the valley of the Brandywine where the historic battle of the Brandywine of the Revolutionary War was fought. DuPont, the millionaire powder manufacturer, is now the owner of the site and here it was that Mr. Allen did his first work in doctoring native trees of the forest.

Lynn B. Ferguson, recently appointed enrolling agent for the U. S. Shipping Board Recruiting Service, reports numerous inquiries from young men, who prefer serving their country in the great war on the sea rather than on land. Most of the would-be recruits want to know what the pay is while training. They are informed that it is $30 a month, plus board and lodging and the use of a uniform. After approximately two months on a training ship, the Merchant Marine recruits are placed in the crews of cargo or passenger vessels, for mercantile voyages to various quarters of the globe. They are exempted from military service.

Word comes from Gladstone that Rev. F. C. Stannard, who moved from Newberg some time ago, had rather a severe shock one morning recently on arising, when he made the discovery that about 150 of his young flock of White Leghorns had disappeared during the night. He immediately notified the local officials and later called the Sheriff, when a thorough search and investigation was made, first without locating the lost prospective egg producers or getting any trace of the supposed thieves. Finally the floor of the barn in which the chickens had been housed was pried up and there they found a veritable mound of young chicks where they had been piled up by some weasles.

Wherever You Go
Whenever You Go

or
However You Go

Take a CAMERA with you

Preserve a Pictorial
Record of Your Trip

We can show you

CAMERAS

At All Prices

Printing, Developing or Enlarging
Quick Service at Moderate Prices

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist

The Rexall Store

Newberg, Oregon