Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Harper, Mrs. S. M. Crosby, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Watson, and Mr. and Mrs. John Crosby were guests at Otterbrook last week.

George Mall, who owns a small acreage on Lover's Lane and was a cousin of Mrs. Schultz, died at one of the Portland hospitals last week. Mr. Mall had been working in one of the Portland shipyards and was ill only a few days.

The teams in charge of the W. S. S. campaign are at work raising their allotments. The government virtually commands and expects every head of a family to attend the ratification meeting to be held at the school house at 8 p. m. on Friday the 27th.

Winfield Dillinger, a soldier at Vancouver, and his brother Arthur, a superintendent of chautauqua work, were at home for the week and the occasion was made a family gathering and about twenty members of the Dillinger family and their relatives held a reunion on Sunday.

Those who heard B. F. Irvine, of Portland, at Community hall on Sunday are most enthusiastic in their appreciation of the able address he gave. His speech was confined to quotations from German authors and an explanation of the results from the doctrines therein. The hearty applause which interrupted the speaker and the emotion on the faces of his hearers as they left the hall were high tributes to Mr. Irvine's powers of reaching the hearts of his hearers and arousing in them a greater determination than ever to do their utmost to win the war. While in Dundee Mr. Irvine was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Allan.

FERNWOOD

Mrs. D. A. Jones and Wm. Dailey who spent last week in Portland came home Sunday evening.

Miss Carrie Hobson who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Baird, returned home Sunday evening.

The Red Cross sewing was held as usual at the home of Mrs. A. S. Bryant last Thursday. Quite a number of ladies were present and all unfinished work on hand was completed. It was decided to discontinue our meetings until after the cherry and berry season is over, owing to the scarcity of help in saving the fruit.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held on Thursday of last week. The members present were, Mesdames W. A. Parrish, T. E. Hobson, Lee Jones, Emery Jones, Fred Schick, Offel, Bryant, Brouillette, Ross, Baker. It was decided to suspend the meetings until the time of the opening of the schools.

Emery Jones and Adlai Livengood, who have been called into service, left for McMinnville Tuesday evening, expecting to start for Camp Lewis early Wednesday morning. They were accompanied by their wives as far as McMinnville. The sorrow of their many Fernwood friends at having them go, was genuine. A large farewell party was given them at the gymnasium Saturday night. We all hope to see them come home in safety when the war is over.

Fourth of July

Next Thursday

As to crop conditions on the hill: All grain crops are sadly in need of rain at once. The cherry crop is fairly good. Wild blackberries are ripening two or three weeks ahead of average years. The prunes are developing very rapidly and the indications are for a very heavy June drop and for an unusually early prune harvest this fall.

Mrs. A. H. Boyd received a very pleasant surprise on Tuesday in the way of a visit from her mother, Mrs. DeWitte, of Monmouth, and her brother, J. P. DeWitte, and two little daughters, from Galice; also Mr. and Mrs. Raybell, of Galice. Mr. DeWitte is employed in the forest service on the Siskiyou forest range.
