

Locals and Personals

Fred McCrea, brother of Archie, was up from St. Johns last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wills, of Yamhill, enjoyed the festivities of the Fourth in Newberg.

H. L. Owen and young son and one or two others made an auto trip to Tillamook last week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Holt and daughter were out from Portland the latter part of last week.

"Cad" McKern, long time bar-ber in Newberg, was out from Portland a day or two last week.

Mrs. Ben Evans was up from Portland the latter part of last week on a visit at the E. L. Evans home.

John McPoland came home from Ocean Beach to enjoy the Fourth with old friends and re-mained until Sunday.

Mrs. Flora Slatheinn and two children are new arrivals from Portland and have taken house-keeping rooms for the present.

Elmond Whitlow and wife of West Timber, came here to cele-brate and prolonged their visit with friends until Saturday morn-ing.

D. E. Way went to Morrow county the first of the week to assist his son in harvesting and incidentally to get his share of the fried chicken.

Wm. Kidd, a brother of Mrs. Rebecca Pennington, who re-cently returned from his former home in Michigan where he went on business is here on a visit.

President Pennington who was home from Eugene over Sunday said the Pacific College fellows who are taking work in the U. of O. are getting on splendidly.

Mrs. J. M. Spencer, late of Chi-cago, will be a summer guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kramien, at "Hill-air Farm." Mr. Spencer will join her later.

Miss Pearl Russell, who is a student in the Chicago Evgange-lic Institute, visited recently with Miss Edna Everest at the latter's home out in the country.

Merit Timberlake, Fred Clem-enson and Donald Crow, took a load of household goods to As-toria the latter part of last week for Mr. Taylor who had been living on Wynocski street. They traveled at night, taking turns at driving and sleeping.

H. R. Leise, who travels out of Seattle for the Eastman Kodak people, was here last week visit-ing the Edwards family out at Oak View farm and while in town called at the Graphic office to offer profuse thanks to the editor, whom he said gave him some assistance in the way of publicity when a lad in Newberg, the son of a minister, he was try-ing to get a start in candy mak-ing to earn money to pay his way in school. He has made good and has a paying position.

Floyd Bates was down from Rosedale on business last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Copeland, a sister of George Crites, is here from Al-abama on a visit.

Mrs. Frink returned from a visit to her daughter near Cor-vallis last Monday.

Miss Bertha May Pennington is visiting in Portland with Miss Olive Terrell and other friends.

John Kirkley has gone to New-Portland to spend a few days looking after property interests at Nye Beach.

Frank Lafond and family came by auto from Doty, Washington, to spend the Fourth in Newberg and visit relatives.

Miss Esther Munson, of Jeffer-son, is in town for a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Munson.

Orie Macy has resigned his po-sition with the Spaulding Log-ging Co., of Salem, and has en-listed for service with the Spruce division of government service.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Patton, former Cleveland, Ohio, friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Duer were out from Portland on a visit last Sunday.

Manager Carr, of the Ameri-can Type Founder's Co., was out from Portland last Saturday assisting S. S. Dow in estimating the loss on the Enterprise plant.

Mrs. W. E. Gearin and sister, Miss Hazel Wassam, came out from Portland by auto Saturday for a short visit with their par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Was-sam.

Paul Brissenden, of the Depart-ment of Labor, Washington, D. C., former teacher in Pacific Col-lege, spent the Fourth in New-berg as a guest at the Mrs. Hall home.

Wesley Boyes and son, Wen-dell, came out from Portland Saturday, the latter to remain on the farm for rest and recrea-tion for a time with his uncle, David Boyes.

Miss Hazel Paulsen returned to her commercial work as stu-dent in the Behnke-Walker col-lege in Portland the first of the week after having spent several days at home.

Mrs. Belle Sutton moved her household goods to Portland this week and will keep house for her son, who is working for the S. P., taking care of the air brakes on the cars.

On Monday at 1 o'clock Roy Fortune and Miss Mabel Jacob-son, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Jacobson, were married at the residence of Rev. O. F. Goettel, the latter officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Orr, for-mer proprietors of the Newberg Steam Laundry, who are now located at Tacoma, spent a little time in Newberg one day last week renewing acquaintances.

Miss Nellie Moore, who has been working at Hood River, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hubert were out from Portland to spend Sunday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Evans and daughter visited with friends in Forest Grove last Sunday.

On Friday morning of last week the creamery at St. Paul was entirely consumed by fire.

E. W. Evans was here from McMinnville last Sunday visit-ing with H. M. Williams and sisters.

Prof. W. E. Lawrence, of the department of botany in O. A. C., spent a little time in Newberg Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pool, the latter a sister of Mrs. M. Mc-Donald, were out from Portland to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. Mary White returned from North Yakima the first of the week where she spent several days visiting her son.

Dave Smith and wife of Yam-hill, spent the Fourth in Newberg enjoying the celebration and visit-ing former Iowa friends.

H. E. Crowell returned from Salem Wednesday where he went to look after the shipment of lo-ganberries in car load lots.

J. W. Hughes, brother of Mrs. John W. Moore, who spent some time visiting relatives in Nebras-ka, returned to Newberg Mon-day.

Mrs. Jane Rittenhouse came down from Junction City last week for a short visit with her son, Ralph, who came in from Aberdeen, Washington, to meet her. She returned home on Mon-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, the former a brother of Paul J. Johnson, are here from Zelandia, Saskatchewan, Canada, on a visit. They are farmers in that country and say the season is dry there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards and son, Lowell, were here from Tillamook last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards were also here from Vancouver for a Sunday visit at the paternal Ed-wards household.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Kautman went to Corvallis Saturday evening to spend Sunday with their son, Howard, who is in the em-ploy of the government in a spruce camp and can only have Sunday as a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wassam and daughter, Fay, with a friend of the latter, Miss Rosale Van-buren, of Salem, spent the Fourth in Newberg at the Wassam pa-ternal home. Mrs. Wassam and the girls remained until Sunday evening.

L. W. Charles and family, who were on their way from Ione, Morrow county, to Junction City, spent a day in Newberg last week visiting with relatives. Mr. Charles learned the printer's trade in the Graphic office and of course he knows the game. For the past few months he has had charge of a paper at Ione but he received an offer of the manage-ment of the Times at Junction City, as the proprietor is off for the army, and he accepted.

Mrs. Theo Jeffries received in formation this week of the death of Elizabeth Yager, a former teacher in the Newberg schools, who resided here with her moth-er for two or three years. Since leaving Newberg they have been making their home in Berkeley, California, where the daughter has been engaged in teaching. The date of her death was July 1. Later—Since the above was set up this further information comes: Death came from heart failure, following an operation. The body was taken to LaFay-ette, Indiana, for burial. After leaving Newberg Miss Yager graduated from the San Jose Normal, taught one term in the Campus School at Leland Stan-ford University, and at the time of her death was a teacher in the Oakland schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hadley came down from Dayton today to cash their cherry checks and visit relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. Wampler and Mr. and Mrs. Priser motored from Fruitland, Idaho, and are visiting with Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Van Dyke. Rev. Wampler will have charge of the services at the Brethren church on next Sunday.

C. C. Clinton is in town mov-ing the Intertype machine from the Enterprise office across the street and setting it up in the Graphic building, in the room formerly occupied by Vernon Gould, the jeweler, who is now in the army.

Enos Ellis has a public sale of household goods billed for Sat-urday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Commercial barn. Any-one having anything they want to dispose of at public auction will find this an excellent oppor-tunity to sell.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Taylor motored from Astoria last week to spend a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bishop. On the Fourth both families motored to Salem to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans.

Dr. E. E. Daniels closed his of-fice in the Edwards block on ac-count of a physical break-down and has located with his family on a ranch at Sheridan. Dr. M. Adell Gochnour, who has been practicing in Portland, has taken the office vacated by Dr. Daniels.

The insurance adjusters have been here during the week and so far as appears the property losers in the fire of Tuesday afternoon of last week are pretty well sat-isfied with adjustments made. Whether or not any of the build-ings will be repaired is still un-settled.

Mrs. Louise Anderson, of Tac-oma, Washington, and Mrs. Emma J. Boyce, of Eagle Creek, arrived in Newberg the first of the week for a visit with Mrs. Mary E. Bankson and Mrs. C. H. Christenson. All four ladies have been friends from childhood and will enjoy the visit to the limit.

Fred Gearin, who was prevent-ed from getting his potato crop out of the ground last fall by the rains, and has been away at the ship yards this spring, is just now plowing the crop out and marketing it. And strange to say, the potatoes are entirely free from sprouts and in fine con-dition.

Guy Bennett, who was former-ly in business in Newberg but who is now in the hardware busi-ness in Vancouver, Washington, made a tour to Salem by auto with his wife and two little sons on the Fourth and on the way home stopped here for a short visit with former friends in the evening.

W. B. Mainwaring returned home from San Francisco last week where he spent a month with the Reserve Officers' Train-ing Corps at the Presidio. He says he got along very nicely and will have an opportunity to report for service, provided he is not called in the draft before the latter part of September.

Mrs. Nancy Boston, aged 78 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Underwood, corner of Third and Meridian streets, Wednesday night. The funeral will be conducted at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel Friday afternoon by Rev. R. E. Myers. Burial will be made in the Pleasant View cemetery.

Mrs. Louise Struchen, a sister of Mrs. G. E. Kienle, was here Wednesday from Portland in company with her son, Arthur, who is home on a furlough from Ft. Douglas, Arizona. The latter says he found on his way home the heat much more intense in the Imperial Valley in California than he had experienced in Ari-zona.

Suggestions for Summer Comforts and Economies

An Electric Range—Perfect Cook-ing, Solid comfort, Cheap fuel, No dirt, soot, ashes, smoke.

An Electric Iron—has no equal

An Electric Fan—All same sea breezes

An Electric Toaster—Makes toast fit for the most exacting.

An Electric Vacuum Cleaner is health insurance.

Four cents per Kilowatt hour Cooking rate.

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

Mrs. Joe Holligsworth and young son are down from Cald-well, Idaho, on a visit.

E. W. Hodson, Tom Tyndall, C. A. Morris, N. F. Byers and E. H. Woodward are combining on the installing of a hydrant with hose attachment in place, on the alley in the rear of their buildings for extra fire protection, hoping that in case of need of it, the fact that it is there ready for quick work may prevent excessive loss to property.

Dale Butt came home from Se-attle last Sunday where he passed a successful examination and was enrolled for the aviation branch of the Navy. He will await his call, which will prob-ably come within the next two weeks, when he will probably go into training at the aviation school at the University of Wash-ington. He says he is looking forward to pleasant association with fellows in this branch of the service who are largely recruited from the ranks of college circles.

Dr. H. B. Clough, who prac-ticed medicine in Newberg for a time several years ago, and who is now stationed with the medi-cal staff at Vancouver barracks, made a short call on the Graphic household last Friday evening. With him were his daughter, now fifteen years old, his sister, Mrs. Marshall, who lives in Vancou-ver, and his brother, Lin, and family from Snohomish, Wash-ington. They started out for a drive over the Terwilliger Boule-vard in Portland and kept coming after finding the road was paved the most of the way out to Newberg. Lin Clough, who was a student in Pacific College several years ago, made inquiry about many of his former school mates.

J. M. Cook of Portland, was in Newberg today on business con-nected with a land deal.

Jewelry a Soldier can wear

The soldier boy feels a lone-someness one cannot de-scribe. You can lighten this by giving him some useful token. The soldier can wear a LOCKET attached to a black cord around his neck. These lockets, made especially for the soldier, hold two good sized pictures.

The Signet Ring

on which the whole name and address may be engrav-ed is not only a remem-brance but also serves as an identification.

The Radio Wrist Watch

which shows you the time on the darkest night means so much to your soldier boy. Has your soldier boy all of these comforts to cheer him. Come in today for we have a complete line.

C. A. MORRIS

Jeweler-Optometrist

Phone White 32. 604 First St., Newberg

Ugh! The Dust In Summer!

Heat and dust during the summer give the housewife more work and worry than any other cause, and while it is impossible to prevent dust, yet it is possible to have the means of quickly and easily removing it.

This week we are displaying everything that will help you in this direction, such as

WHISK BROOMS --- BRUSHES
CHAMOIS --- SPONGES
FURNITURE and OTHER POLISHES

any of which we will be very glad to show you and explain to you

This is a very good time to think about the use of cleaning fluid for cleaning your clothes, etc., and straw hat cleaner to keep your straw hats looking as new as when you bought them a month ago.

AND HOW ABOUT SOAPS?

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist

The Rexall Store

Newberg, Oregon

OREGON STATE CAMPMEETING

OF THE CHURCH OF GOD

Will be held at

Woodburn, Oregon, July 11 to 21, Inclusive

A beautiful 10-acre park in city limits, electrically lighted, fine water and excellent sanitation. Subjects of vital and universal interest will be set forth by ministers from different states. Following is a partial list.

The Bible Church.....Sunday, July 14
Jews Return to Jerusalem.....Monday, July 15
Sunday School Work.....Tuesday, July 16
Divine Healing.....Thursday, July 18
The Millenium—When?.....Friday, July 19
Ordinances of the New Testament.....Saturday, July 20
Scattering and Gathering of God's People.....Sunday, July 21

"THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE"

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS

Meals Served on the Grounds