

A Summer School of Patriotism

This Chautauqua program is built for national service. The government has recognized the great value of the Chautauqua in this war year and is sending lecturers to speak on vital war problems. Inspiring music is a war-time necessity and this musical program sounds a strong patriotic note throughout the week. There is splendid entertainment, also, to lighten and brighten war-worried minds.

War Pictures

The latest views from the war zone will be shown at Chautauqua in connection with Henry Warren Poor's great lecture "Wonders of the World War." Up-to-the-minute views of "our boys" in field and camp.

Mrs. A. C. Zehner

Coming to Chautauqua audiences directly from Washington to speak on vital national problems in connection with her famous lecture "American Ideals." Mrs. Zehner is known as "the best woman lecturer in America."

Metropolitan Artists

Mary Welch, great Chicago contralto, heads this splendid company. Agnes Bodholdt, pianist and accompanist. Jo Polak, cellist, of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Music lovers have a rare treat coming in their two concerts on the third day.

MOANA VIERRA'S Royal Hawaiian Quartet

Four splendid Hawaiian singers and players, featuring steel guitar, taropatch and ukelele. Under the leadership of Moana Vierra, of Honolulu. Two programs of the best music from the Islands on the second day.

President Wilson Endorses Chautauqua.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington

14 December, 1917.

My Dear Mr. Flowers:

It has been on my mind for some time to thank your organization for the very real help it has given to America in the struggle that is concerned with every fundamental element of national life. Your speakers, going from community to community, meeting people in the friendly spirit engendered by years of intimate and understanding contact, have been effective messengers for the delivery and interpretation of democracy's meaning and imperative needs. The work that the Chautauqua is doing has not lost importance because of war, but rather has gained new opportunities for service.

Let me express the hope that you will let no discouragement weaken your activities, and that the people will not fall in the support of a patriotic institution that may be said to be an integral part of the national defense.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

Mr. Montville Flowers,
President, International Lyceum
and Chautauqua Association,
Hotel LaSalle, Chicago, Illinois.

New York City Marine Band

Two great concerts on the fourth day by the famous New York City Marine Band. Featuring martial airs and war-time music. Evening concert will be featured by return of Mary Adel Hays, American soprano.

Minosaku Toshi Yamamoto

Japanese author, scholar and lecturer will discuss Japanese-American relations and Japan policy in Asia. A lecture of tremendous interest and filled with invaluable information about our ally in the Orient.

23 - BIG EVENTS - 23

Community Singing

"Let the nation sing and it will become united and victorious." Two big "community sings" on the fifth day featuring national songs. Conducted by the Eichhorns, leaders of mass singing all over the United States.

Apollo Concert Company

The Apollos, five great musicians, open Chautauqua with two rousing programs. They feature the big Apolophone, the concert instrument extraordinary. One of the best known musical companies before the public today. Don't miss "Apollo Day."

CHEER UP, FRANCE

They can see the Yankees coming
And they are fighting night and main,
For they know that we will help them
To win back their homes again.

For we'll drive those devils back
To the land from where they came,
And we'll break their power forever
In freedom's righteous name.

Cheer up France! for we'll be there;
More are coming every day
And we'll help you lick the Germans
In the good old Yankee way.

Then let us stand behind our President,
And Jack Pershing, brave and true;

For to win this war for freedom
Uncle Sam is in need of you.

OLIVER R. WORDEN,
Marine Barracks, Mare Island, California. Supply Detachment.
