canvassing for students for Pacific College which is to open for the new year September 30, will go to Portland Saturday to deliver an educational address at one of the sessions of the quarterly meeting of Friends church.

Luther Newlin, who shipped his teams and wagons to the Alberta country some time ago with the intention of selling them, decided to remain for a time and await a better market. He writes home that he is finding plenty of work to keep the teams busy.

Mrs. Eva H. Hull returned from Hood River Monday, leaving Prof.
Alex Hull pleasantly located up at the base of Mt. Hood. While there she says she took a horseback ride up the mountain side to a height of 8,000 feet which was an experience to be remembered.

Mrs. Wm. Rees, who spent a week visiting in Corvallis, came in Monday night with her brother, Hiram Smith and wife, for a short visit with their father, John E. Smith. Mr. and Mrs.
Smith were on their way to Granite Falls, Washington, where he has a position as teacher in the high school for the coming year. Mr. and Mrs.
Rees are living in Portland and their son is at the front in France.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Willis, who were located in Newberg several years ago, he at the time having charge of the G. M. Bales shoe shop, were callers at the Graphic office Monday. They are now living in Los Angeles but came to attend the Encampment at Portland and for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Portland, who were with them Monday.

M. H. Galt, formerly cashier at the First National Bank, who has been farming on a large scale in the Alberta country, passed through New-berg Monday in company with a young man formerly from Indiana, Chester Long, bound for Eugene.
They returned to the United States for the purpose of getting into some line of military service. Mr. Galt leaving his big ranch and equipment to a neighbor.

daughters were here from Suver the first of the week visiting at the R.
M. Thurston home.

A. Lundburg, of Rex, who recently returned from an extended stay in California, was a caller at the Graphic office a few days ago.

H. C. Spaulding informs the Graphic that B. C. Miles, of Salem, has sold his interest in the Spaulding Logging Co., and that he retired from the firm on the first of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Phelps came in Saturday from Washougal, Washington, for a short visit with their Newberg friends. Mr. Phelps returned Monday, but Mrs. Phelps will remain this week.

Mrs. W. S. Culbertson and daughters, Junia and Jane, of Washington, D. C., where the husband and father holds an important government position, are visiting at the J.
C. Lemon home north of town.

The rooms formerly occupied by the Enterprise that are being fitted up by the Yamhill Electric Co., the owners of the building, will, when completed, be taken by Orville Smith who will re-open the Newberg restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Smith and daughter, Charleen, and Mrs. Fred Smith, of Portland, in company with Mrs. Trentor, of Modesto, California, came out Sunday by auto and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. P. W.
Baughman.

I. A. Hanning and son, Hillis, in company with Henry Allen, spent three days the first of the week autoling and camping along the Columbia Highway. They explored Eagle Creek Canyon and are fulsome in their praise of its beauties.

J. Huber, a competent workman who opened an upholstering and furniture repair shop on First street near the J. L. Van Blaricom grocery some time ago, has a new advertisement in the Graphic this week calling the attention of the public to his place of business.

Howard Brentner recently received a half dozen German coins sent him from France by his former chum, Corporal Montgomery, of Falls City, who assures him in an accompanying letter that they are genuine, for he took them from the pocket of a German soldier who had been gassed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chase, recently from Fort Collins, Colorado, are in town visiting the latter's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sargeant.
Mr. Chase is a printer by trade, being an experienced pressman. They came to Oregon to get into a lower altitude on account of Mrs. Chase's health.

The demonstration of the Fordson tractor made Tuesday on the J. C.
Lemon farm by Briedwell & Tilbury, of McMinnville, was witnessed by a large number of interested people and the work done was said to be highly satisfactory. Mr. Lemon ordered one of the tractors some time ago and says he expects to keep it going as soon as it arrives and the soil is in condition for working.

J. Henry Scattergood, of Philadelphia, who has been a liberal financial supporter of Pacific College for a number of years, said in a recent visit he made here that he was more than pleased with what he saw of the college and that he thought the home supporters of the college were entitled to much credit for the sacrifices they had made in sustaining the institution. Since the United States got into the war Mr. Scattergood has made two trips to France in the interest of reconstruction work and the talk he gave at Friends church while here showed that he had some very practical ideas about the difficult questions that will be to solve when the war is over.

Walter Zwick, whose home is above Dundee and who has been in the Navy for the past year, was in Newberg the first of the week, he being home on a short furlough. He has made four trips across the Atlantic and on one trip got as far away as an Italian port on the Mediterranean. He was on the Tippecanoe when that vessel was torpeded by a German submarine some 500 miles off the coast of France, one man only being lost, though all were cast adrift in boats for many hours before they were picked up. While ashore at Bordeaux on one trip he had the pleasure of meeting the Newberg bunch of engineers, Evans, Gower, Nelson, Coe and McDonald, it being a glad surprise to all of them when they chanced to come face to face at a big gathering.

Miss Ethel Plank of Eugene, is visiting in Newberg with Mrs. E. H.
Burns.

The Goff-McEwen families arrived home from the Tillamook beaches Tuesday evening.

Joe Stephens, of Mehama, spent the week end with friends in New-berg.

Mrs. Scott Brebner, niece of N. F.
Byers, of Portland, visited here on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. A. Jackson, of Mullen, Idaho, sister of N. F. Byers, came in Monday evening for a visit.

are here from Barneville, Minnesota, visiting the Guy Howard family.

Mrs. Kirk Landers, niece of G. W.
Byers and cousin of Mrs. N. F. Byers, of Emmett, Idaho, is visiting those families this week.

Mrs. F. C. Simpson and baby, old friends of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Byers, came out from Portland Tuesday evening for a few days.

Rev. G. F. Round has been appointed to preach at the M. E. church in Willamina until conference meets in Portland, September 25.

F. B. Southwick, who for many years has been one of Salem's prominent contractors and builders, has been in Newberg today on business.

I. W. Hill, who was burned out a short time ago, is getting his tailoring and cleaning business established in the Byers building across the street.

Rollin Bixby, who enlisted as a government seaman, sailed from Portland the first of the week, bound for New York City by way of the Panama Canal.

Ralph Knight, who was up from Sherwood today, said he expected to start for Philadelphia Friday evening to report for duty in France in the Friends unit of the Red Cross.

Dr. and Mrs. I. D. Mills, of Santa Ana, California, who were delegates to the Encampment, spent the first of the week in Newberg, visiting the Hoskins families, who are relatives.

Miss Ella Griffith, daughter of Fred Griffith, who was out from Portland Tuesday, said five of their family the father, two sons and two daughters, were working in the ship yards.

Peter Lund and son, of Gaston, were Newberg visitors Tuesday, making arrangements for the big sale to be held at his place on September 12, and ordered the bills at the Graphic office.

Howard Kaufman, a former New-berg boy, but now working for Uncle Sam in the spruce camp near Toledo, came in Saturday for a few hours' visit with his father, D. Kaufman, and other relatives.

J. W. Hanville, of Santa Cruz, California, a veteran who attended the Encampment in Portland last week, has since been visiting his son, Roy, in Newberg, and with other sons in Portland and St. Johns.

Delbert Replogle, who has been located at Noorvik, Alaska, 200 miles north of Nome, since his graduation from Pacific College in 1916, came in last Sunday and will not start on the return voyage until about September 12. He is associated with his parents in government school work among the Eskimos and is all round handy man, having charge of the electric light plant at the station, the saw mill and wireless station, all of which he installed.
He is the wireless operator and receives press despatches, including election returns, war news and other interesting news matter, which he makes up into a newspaper by the aid of a typewriter, copies of which, some half a dozen, he sends out to circulate around to outside stations.
When he returns he will take a lot of supplies and—well, just company.

The first call for dinner made by the Western Walnut Association auto touring party was made at the Imperial hotel on last Monday, when the hungry members of the party sat down to feed and talk shop, and said talk was decidedly nutty for they were an enthusiastic bunch.
They started out from Portland early in the morning, going directly to Scholls, where they inspected the Ferdinand Groner groves and his big drier of 6,000 pounds of nuts per day capacity. Coming over Cheha-lem Mountain they hit Newberg at the noon hour and from here went on south by way of Dundee, Albany and on to Eugene. On arrival here the party was composed of J. C. Cooper, W. M. Reburn, Dr. I. H. Wilkins, McMinnville; J. C. Lewis, W. S.
Brown, C. J. McIntosh, O. A. C.; Knight Percy, Salem; J. N. Percy, A. E. Wright, Thomas Withycombe, Portland; P. H. Jobse, W. S. Flynn, Wilsonville; N. E. Britt, Newberg; Geo. A. Dorris, Springfield; E. W.
Matthews, Amity; John S. McGee, M.
McDonald, Aracoe; Barnett Y. Roe, Gaston; Chas. Trunk, Dundee; Ferdinand Groner, Scholls. A number of Newberg citizens went with the groves were inspected.

Judge W. W. Nickell was in New-berg Tuesday.

Rev. George H. Lee will preach at Forbes Presbyterian church in Portland next Sunday, his place in the home pulpit being supplied by Rev.
E. M. Sharp, of California.

Mrs. W. S. Stull has returned from a thirty day outing with her sisters in Washington much improved in health. She enjoyed a ten days' camping with her sister, Mrs. B. A.
Caleen, at Manor, Washington, then motored seventy-five miles with Mr. and Mrs. George Ross to Government Springs, Washington, going up via Shepherd Springs, returning on the Oregon side, crossing the Columbia River by ferry at Stevenson, thence over the Columbia Highway to Vancouver. She says it is a fine trip into the mountains and the Soda Spring is excellent. She visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Castrey and other relatives at Vancouver Heights.

HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE STUDENTS

You Need These Comforts and Conveniences for Efficiency in Your Studies---

It is the consensus of opinion of leading educators that the most efficient students are those who enjoy the necessary comforts of life. Of course, there are always prodigies—"Abe Lincolns"—who can get along without. But the majority of the best students are well equipped with these conveniences.

You can find almost everything you need in the way of toilet goods at our store.
We have given especial thought to the requirements of high school and college students, and will be glad to assist your selection, any time you visit our store.
