The Choice of Those Who Know

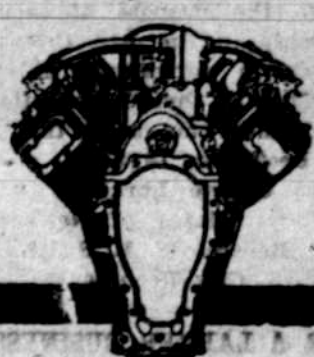

Manufacturers and leading motor car distributors recommend ZEROLENE. The majority of motorists use ZEROLENE. ZEROLENE reduces wear and gives more power because it keeps its lubricating body at cylinder heat. Gives less carbon because, being refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, it burns clean and goes out with exhaust.

ZEROLENE is the correct oil for all types of automobile engines. It is the correct oil for your automobile. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.

At dealers everywhere and Standard Oil Service Stations.

Correct Lubrication for the "V"-Type Engine
This, the "V"-Type of automobile engine, like all internal combustion engines, requires an oil that holds its lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and goes out with exhaust. Zerozene fills these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

DUNDEE

Mrs. E. W. Marr's sister and her daughter from Canada have been recent guests at the Marr home.

Slover & King's Dramatic Company gave three evenings of varied programs at Community Hall this week.

On Friday evening a number of the young people dropped in to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Herring on their wedding.

Dundee friends of Rev. J. Stanford Moore are pleased to learn that he has been appointed pastor of the Epworth Methodist church of Portland.

The Dundee high school sophomores entertained the freshmen at a pleasant evening gathering at Prof. E. H. Anderson's one evening this week.

Miss Helen M. Hatch, who has been a guest at Otterbrook for a month left on Tuesday to resume her work in the Civilian Relief Department of the Red Cross.

Rev. McCulloch, of Portland, and Rev. Rees, of Amity, conducted services in the Dundee church last Sunday. Rev. Rees expected to preach in Dundee this coming Sunday but is unable to be here. Some one else will take his place.

Mrs. F. L. Cowles, of Spokane, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. A. Dearborn.

A pleasant meeting of the Dundee Woman's Club was held at the Library on Thursday afternoon. Plans were made for an evening's entertainment to be given in the near future. During the social hour Mrs. G. A. Dearborn, hostess for the day, entertained the ladies with two Thanksgiving games. Four new names were presented for membership to the club.

On Saturday evening, the 14th inst., the annual business meeting of the Dundee Red Cross will be held at Community Hall. Reports for the year from all departments will be read. As every adult in Dundee and vicinity is a member of the Red Cross it is hoped there will be a large attendance. It is your duty to be present and to know what your community is doing in this important work.

During the past year patriotic demands upon the time of the ladies have been so many that the social side of life has been neglected. It is hoped that during the coming winter there will be time for more play and several events of interest are planned. The new plan for the social hour for the regular club days is meeting with decided approval and all members of the club are assured a pleasant afternoon on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

A sweet little Red Hills maid celebrated her seventh birthday on Saturday. Sugar restrictions being off, her birthday cake had real frosting and candles and of course the seven candles. Her little heart was so full of happiness over the receipt of several small gifts that when she found the last one, a roll of pennies that came to her in the evening, she said, "Mamma I got so many presents today I'd like to give my pennies to the Belgian babies." "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Dundee has added a "sporting editor" to the city's force on the Graphic and hereafter you will receive your sporting news in the correct phraseology of that department. The following account of the last basketball game came too late for publication last week. (We go to press on Tuesday.) On last Thursday evening the H. S. Alumni tangled with the Y. M. P. C. in the first basketball game of the season. The entire Alumni team was not there so they were forced to put in some substitutes. But in spite of this the Alumni were in the lead at the end of the first half, the score being 17-16. The first ten minutes of the second half were very hard fought. Then the Y. M. P. C. began to send a few in. The game ended in a score of 35-23 for the club. The club hopes to have another game in the near future. One fan who has attended about 99.99 of the games played by the club thinks they are going to win every game this season. If you want to see a good game see our next one.

A beautiful achievement! Recently we met a lady who has done what most persons of her age, sixty, have considered either impossible or too much trouble. She, like many a pioneer girl of her day, had but little schooling and grew to womanhood with little attention being at home to the correct use of English. When her son came she hoped to give him the best educational advantages. But he inherited his father's business ability, disliked study, left school too young and he, too, grew up careless in speech. After a few years two little granddaughters came and then it was that this grandmother made her grand resolve and set herself the task of teaching by example the use of good English. She had a friend write out for her a contrasting table of correct and incorrect uses of irregular verbs and the bothersome pronouns and she drilled herself in the correct expressions, until, after two years, one would scarcely recognize her speech. Imagine her satisfaction when a celebrated speaker, making an address in her town, made an error in grammar, and she could say to herself, "That is one of the things I have learned not to say." Sixty years young! What a beautiful example of what ideals and the will power to live up to them do!

ceived a telegram informing them of the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. Estelle Taylor, she having recently undergone an operation for appendicitis in a hospital at that place. Later word has been received that she is slowly recovering.

The Red Cross Auxiliary meets at the home of Mrs. U. S. Bryant every Thursday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Baker, Mrs. Walter Everest, Mrs. Ray White, Mrs. R. L. Jones, Mrs. W. S. Bryant and Mrs. E. H. Weatherhead.

EXAGGERATED IMPRESSION.

"What are we going to do with Germany after the war?"

"Let us not anticipate," replied the man with the impulsive imagination. "Maybe there won't be enough of Germany left to worry about."

ENOUGH SAID.

"See here, Eliza, tell the cook she mustn't burn the steak the way she does."

"But, my dear, she likes it that way."

WAR HORSE IS WELL TRAINED

Education Has to Be Rigorous, Since So Much Depends Upon His Action in Battle.

A war horse, before he is ready for service, receives an education almost as rigorous and comprehensive as that of the recruit who rides him into battle. When properly trained he will face barbed wire and even rush entanglements regardless of lacerated legs and flanks. After he has been accustomed to have a man mount rapidly on his sensitive back he is taught to kneel with his rider. He has to be taught to pull up in his own length from a gallop, to stand steadily while a rider fires from his back, and to lie still on the ground while he is being used as a cover for his rider, who snipes over his side.

One of the most difficult things required of a war horse is to become familiarized with the sword. In warfare it is a common trick for a cavalryman to aim his first blow at his opponent's horse, for no horse will stand after being pricked on the nostril or lip.

When a horse knows his rider well he will perform surprising deeds. A brigade has been known to go through three lines of bayonets and then through a barbed wire entanglement. Not so long ago a Canadian troop charged two lines of German machine guns and rifles, wheeled and then rode through them a second time.
