Bert Reece, whose visit in Newberg this week as noted elsewhere, says he ran across the path of Van Leavitt, former Newberg man, in Clarksdale, Arizona, some time ago, where he is located with his wife and son and engaged in the plumbing business, which he learned in Newberg under his brother-in-law, Frank Storey, Newberg's first plumber. He put up the building now occupied by E. L. Evans and Charley Clemenson.

Miss Tillie Bell, who is known to a number of Newberg people as she has visited her grandfather, Arthur Millard, of West Third street, several times, and who is now a stenographer in San Francisco, has accepted a position as English correspondent for the firm of Jonkhoff, Stork & Co., of Semarang, Java. She will sail as soon as she receives her passport. The voyage will take six weeks, touching land at only two points during that time, Honolulu and China.

The Graphic has word from a Philadelphia man who recently returned from a trip to France where he inspected the re-construction work being done by the Friends church. He says the Newberg boys are doing most satisfactory work and commended them highly. Said Henry Keeney was showing tact that was being recognized in filling a responsible position. Meade and Paul Elliott and Lester Wright are expecting to start on the home trip about the first of April.

When G. W. Dayton advertised in the Graphic recently that he had for sale a cow giving seven gallons of milk a day, some of his friends indicated to him that his statement regarding the flow of lactical fluid was being taken with several grains of salt. And more skepticism was shown when he informed them the price for the cow was $175, but a Portland man came out a few days ago who was evidently convinced that there was something to Mr. Dayton's story, for he purchased the cow at the price asked.

When in need of job printing get it at the Graphic office.

One evening last week while Mrs. Evangeline Martin was driving home from Chehalis Center where she is teaching, the horse she was driving started up suddenly on the approach of an automobile, causing her to drop one line and thus lose control of the animal. She was thrown out and sustained a fracture of one shoulder, besides being pretty badly unstrung from the nervous shock she sustained. She is being cared for at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. H. Gardner, on River street.

Bert Reece, of Clarksdale, Arizona, and his sister, Mrs. H. M. Livingston, of Hurdfield, North Dakota, who had been visiting another sister, Mrs. L. S. Hill, at Cottage Grove, spent a few days the first of the week with their friends and former neighbors of the Graphic family. Although they left Newberg twenty-two years ago when small children, they remembered many landmarks and several faces. Their father, Miles Reece, who died in North Carolina about two years ago, will be remembered by many as the first principal of the Newberg public schools. After a few days' visit in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King, Mr. Reece will accompany his sister to her home in North Dakota.

BAND ORGANIZES WITH MEMBERSHIP OF TWENTY

It is gratifying to know that while many Oregon towns have similar organizations in the re-construction period, Newberg is not behind them in this manner.

Wednesday evening the musicians met over the bicycle store of Harry Garrett and perfected what is to be known in the future as the Newberg band.

The following officers were chosen: President, Arthur Hodson; vice president, Homer Parrott; secretary, Glenn S. Taylor; treasurer, Vernon Gould; director, Edward Klenle; manager, Harry Patterson. Those who have already signed as players are as follows: Cornets, Edward Klenle, Ned McCoy, George Trunk.

Saxophone, Dr. Massey. Clarinets, Harry Garrett, Howard Nottage, Glenn Taylor, Avery Hask, Orland Warner.

Flute, Homer Parrott. Altos, Ed Williams, W. L. Robertson.

Trombones, Lloyd Killin, Emil Sanders, E. B. Marr, Andrew Kersey, Baritone, Vernon Gould, Fred Holtsmeier.

Base, Arthur Hodson, E. W. Marr. Drums, Henry Billich, Harry Patterson.

Several others are contemplating joining this new organization and it is hoped by the band boys that those interested in playing will come to the hall Tuesday evening and affiliate themselves.

Tuesday evening of each week will be practice night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

TWO DETAILS NECESSARY TO LIFE

- No. 1. Good, wholesome food properly cooked.
- No. 2. Warm, clean clothes properly washed.

Cooking is a job every woman tires of. Three times a day, 365 days in the year, 1195 times from Christmas to Christmas, the fire must be made in the old cook stove. What a monotonous, tiresome, wearing thought. Modern man, thoughtful, cunning and skillful, has found the answer.

The Electric Range

Touch a button, the fire is made. Clean, Comfortable, Wonderful cooking at reasonable cost. Once a week all the clothes must be scrubbed and rubbed, rinsed and wrung, and nothing is more trying, no work harder. The Electric Washing Machine is a perfect answer to these conditions. The cost to operate is small. Ranges and Washers can be had practically on your own terms. Special rate, 4c for cooking.
