RIBBON RIDGE

Mrs. N. P. Nelson was a Ridge visitor last week.

Mrs. L. A. Van Oedol is quite ill and is in Newberg under the doctor's care.

Fred Williams brought out his new Chevrolet car from Newberg on Friday.

Mrs. Fred Williams is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Laughlin, of Yamhill, this week.

Mrs. Cynthia Swartz has returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives at Hoquiam, Washington. We all hope she enjoyed her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carter and son left for western Kansas last week for a visit with Mrs. Carter's grandmother, who has been in poor health for some time.

The farmers of the Ridge held an interesting meeting on Monday evening, March 21, at the school house in the interest of good roads. A plan was outlined by which they hope to grade and rock the road from the West Chehalis church to the E. Wenger ranch on the summit. It is hoped they will receive some substantial encouragement from the County Court.

REX

James Kane spent Monday in Portland.

Mrs. H. Strate spent the week end in Portland.

Jay Ditto is spending a few days in Portland with his wife.

Merritt Woodworth and Willard Wiley spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. A. Sanapolis and Mrs. James Kane were Newberg callers on Monday.

R. E. Brown had about $50 worth of tools and parts stolen from his Overland car Saturday night.

Steve Sanapolis is not sorry that the days are getting longer, for he does so hate to pack a lantern.

Miss Ethel Morris, of Newberg, and Mrs. M. H. David, of Springbrook, ably assisted on the program Saturday evening.

The over Sunday guests at the Frosts were the Messrs. and Mesdames M. N. Repp, H. A. Burgett and R. J. Wilkinso, of Portland.

The concert at the church Saturday evening was very well attended, considering the stormy weather, and everyone reported an enjoyable time.

Carl Miller is very much elated over the prospects of a good hatch of chicks some day this week. We hope the incubator does not explode.

CHEHALEM CENTER

J. Sanger Fox held the services at the church Sunday.

Miss Gladys Small is a guest of Portland friends this week.

Mrs. Etta Perry, who is in the Newberg hospital, is improving.

Miss Mabel Rush and her mother, of Newberg, were visitors at the home of Charley Shire Sunday.

The W. C. T. U. is to hold their meeting at the home of Mrs. R. W. Staley, this Wednesday, afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry, parents of George Perry, are here from Montana during the illness of Mrs. Geo. Perry.

Miss Fieta Graves returned home Sunday, having spent the week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Olive Graves, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hall and grandson, Dale, of Newberg, were out to visit their granddaughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Lines Christensen.

Mrs. Nellie Palmer and son, Cecil, of Bend, who have been spending some time here at the E. B. Ridge-way home, have gone to Dundee to visit Mrs. Cyrene Palmer.

Word received from Carlos Johnson is that his division, the 6th, is to relieve the 42nd division in Germany and that he may not return home before August. At present he is on a furlough at Nice, Italy, seeing the sights in the Alps.

The play, "Men, Maids and Match-makers," given last Saturday evening by the young people, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association, was highly appreciated by the large audience present. The Messrs. George Hodges, Robert Shire, Aubrey Tangan and Edward Johnson, and the Misses Gladys Small, Clara Staley, Elsie Tangen and Marguerite Johnson, displayed good talent in producing the comic drama. Each bachelor and bachelor maid provoked much fun and laughter in their art of proposing but Aunt Salina and Dr. Imhoff brought down the house with their sad love affairs. Mrs. Nina Ramsey should be congratulated on her efforts as director of the play and the evening's entertainment. The committee want to thank the young men who gave the splendid Hawaiian music, Miss Elsie Tangen for rendering so well those musical solos, the Misses Clara and Violet Staley in two duets given so nicely, Miss Nina Johnson in giving a talented instrumental solo, and lastly to thank the audience for the good attention and attendance. Proceeds were $27, something like $20 cleared.

DUNDEE

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Robison spent Friday in Portland.

William Wilson and family visited Carlton relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. Leon Cyr has returned after a five months' absence from home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sayles made a business trip to Portland on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Noble and two guests spent Sunday at the Noble's Red Hills home.

The Allen Fruit Co. has purchased a large Holt tractor to operate on their Red Hills orchard.

Edward S. Henry has returned from service in France and visited friends in Dundee on Monday.

Mrs. L. J. Eddens, who returned from the McMinnville hospital on Sunday, is rapidly convalescing.

Harold Fogz, who has been with an aero squadron in Texas, has received his discharge and is at home.

In a letter to a friend Mrs. Morecroft says: "Mr. Morecroft's burns were deep and, though healing nicely, are slow, so it may be some time before we are home."

All Dundee is eagerly awaiting the play to be given by the boys in the near future. Rehearsals are speeding up and it is expected that the play will be given before Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Allan, H. B. Powell and Alex Allan went fishing on the Sandy one day last week. Their generosity with their catch extended through their respective neighborhoods.

Mrs. G. A. Dearborn, who has been a sufferer for years from chronic appendicitis, was operated upon at Portland on Friday. At last reports she was getting along as well as could be expected.

The Thompson house occupied by Mr. Forbes burned to the ground on

Have you ever heard this?

"My baking powder," says the smooth solicitor, "costs less than Royal."

But he omits to say that it often leaves a bitter taste, that food made with it is likely to stale in a day and that it contains alum, which is condemned by many medical authorities for use in food.

England and France prohibit the sale of alum baking powders.

ROYAL Baking Powder

is made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes

Royal Contains No Alum—Leaves No Bitter Taste

Saturday evening between nine and ten o'clock. Mr. Forbes was away from home and is at a loss to know how the fire started. Mr. McKinney, a neighbor, saw the fire which started in the wood shed. Just as he got to it the wood shed collapsed, falling against the house and setting it on fire. Mr. McKinney saved Mr. Forbes trunk and a few household articles. Mr. Forbes lost his Spanish-American war medals, valuable papers, Liberty bonds, etc.

Some more interesting letters have recently been received from some of Dundee's boys in service. Joe Ryan speaks of meeting Lester Warner in Germany and says "Lester is too darn fat to wiggle." One of our boys says, "Mother always sends me the Graphic and the first thing I always look for is the Dundee items." In another letter is this bit of pride in the home town: "Am proud of Dundee's patriotic record, generosity and prosperity. You appreciate that it is quite a desirable little community and becoming more so all the time." One boy in a letter to his grandmother says, "Your dress material is quite snappy and a nice color. You should look perfectly 'grand' and I hope to see you wear it often when I get back." One boy speaks of sometimes reading a copy of the Graphic three times.
