Mrs. Olive D. Bassett received a telegram from her son, Raymond, announcing his arrival in New York last Sunday and saying he would be mustered out of the service Tuesday in that city, when he would start for home at once.

About thirty of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. friends of Levi Dobbins gathered at his home Monday evening to help him celebrate his 79th birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Dr. L. W. Horn, veterinary surgeon, graduate of a Chicago Veterinary College, has located with his family in the Sloan property, 411 River street, and will have his headquarters at the Commercial barn. He came here from Independence.

Miss Olive Bassett, who is at home from Nyssa, where she taught during the year, is expecting to spend commencement week at O. A. C. and mingle with former friends. After spending some time at home here she intends to go to Pendleton.

H. M. Williams and family were out from Portland the first of the week visiting with relatives. Mr. Williams, who has a good position at the Columbia ship yards, says the company has enough contracts on hand to keep them going for several months.

Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Welter returned from Portland Monday where they attended the annual conference of the Free Methodist church. In the assignments made at the conference Rev. E. W. Hight was transferred to The Dalles, while Rev. W. N. Coffee, formerly presiding elder of the district, is to come to Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, former proprietors of the Imperial, have gone to Portland to spend a few days and soon after their return they intend to go to North Bend to remain for a time with their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Price. In their stay here they have made many friends, not only with the traveling public, but with the people of Newberg.

C. H. Christensen, who had a position at Frances, Washington, the past year, as janitor at one of the schools, has secured a like position at O. A. C. and is locating in Corvallis. C. H. got his start in Chehalis Valley and although he shifts about a good deal he never fails to drift back to Newberg in the course of time, so we might as well keep the door ajar for him.

W. C. Woodward, editor of the American Friend, published at Richmond, Indiana, will deliver the commencement address for the graduating class of Pacific College on Wednesday of next week. Mrs. Woodward, and the children are coming with him and also his aunt, Mrs. Mary Welch, of Bloomington, Indiana, but he will stop off at Central City, Nebraska, to attend Nebraska Yearly Meeting, they coming on through without stopping.

President Levi T. Pennington and Harlan Smith Ford-ed it to Scotts Mills last Sunday afternoon where the former preached at the Friends church in the evening. They returned home after the services, arriving before midnight. They say they found the roads to be in pretty fair condition except from Mount Angel on to Scotts Mills where there has been some heavy motor truck hauling that has put the bumps into what was at one time the best part of the road.

Abner Blair and family drove out from Portland and spent Memorial Day here.

W. S. Bean, who was employed at the saw mill, fell from the dock at the river Tuesday and was considerably bruised in his back and head.

F. M. Steward, of Portland, has bought the small tract two miles west of Newberg, known as the Joe Fennel or Taylor place and will improve it for a home.

The Parent-Teacher Association will meet Tuesday, June 10, at the grade building at 3 o'clock. This is the last meeting of the year and a large attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. George Kuykendall and little daughters, of Portland, and Oliver Hobson, of Chicago, visited at the A. T. Blair home last Friday.

L. W. Charles and family, who have been located at Eugene, were in Newberg today on their way to Colfax, Washington, where Mr. Charles has secured a position in the office of the Commoner.

Mrs. Anna Jones has sold her home on South Blaine street, consisting of a tract of nearly four acres, to Mrs. Stella Comstock, the price being $3,100. Mrs. Jones expects to spend considerable time visiting with her children before settling down in a home again.

The Decoration Day program was carried out as outlined with a march by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. to the cemetery, headed by the band of twenty-four pieces, where the usual exercises were held. Hon. B. F. Mulkey gave a splendid address at the Presbyterian church in the afternoon.

The air tank at the Bulk garage exploded last Sunday morning with a loud noise, creating consternation to nearby people and making necessary numerous repairs about the shop, including broken glass and shattered roof. Fortunately no one was in that part of the building at that time, and consequently none were hurt.

On last Friday afternoon a very interesting ball game was played on the college diamond between a McMinnville team and a picked-up team from Newberg, resulting in a score of 9 to 7 in favor of the latter. Billy Sullivan was catcher for the home team and showed up in good form, exhibiting some of the cunning gained in a thousand hard fought battles when he was one of the old guard of the Chicago White Sox.

There will be a meeting of the Knights and Ladies of Security on Friday evening, June 13. P. L. Cate, local deputy, has a number of new members to be initiated, and L. M. Thomas, district manager, and wife will be here to conduct the initiation service. After the business meeting a social hour will be indulged in. There will be music, and dancing for those who care for it. Ice cream and cake will be served.

Rev. John A. Reed preached at the Brethren church Sunday. Mr. Reed with his family are now located here, having come recently from Ellensburg, Washington. He will have charge of the Brethren church during Rev. Van Dyke's absence. Mr. and Mrs. Van Dyke will leave on June 17 for an auto trip to the Atlantic Coast. They will visit friends and relatives in various states and expect to spend next winter at Mrs. Van Dyke's old home in Virginia. They will be gone about a year.

Prof. Gilbert Shambaugh, who has held the position of instructor in English and Literature in Pacific College for the past two years, expects to leave here for his home in Ohio as soon as the commencement exercises are over. He intends to make a stop in Idaho and also at the sanitarium of the Mayo Bros., where he will submit his case for examination and possible treatment. Prof. Shambaugh has spinal trouble occasioned by a fall he received when he was sixteen years old, and in spite of the heavy handicap, he, after having been bedridden for three years, forged his way through high school and college by sheer force of will. He has a brilliant mind and his many friends hope that he may yet get relief that will remove the disability under which he has been laboring for so long.

BRING YOUR HUSBAND

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Gause were over from Washougal, Washington, last Saturday and Sunday.

Oregon Yearly meeting of Friends church will be held in Newberg, beginning on Thursday of next week.

The contract for grading and paving the road from Newberg to West Dayton railroad station has been let to the Northwestern Construction Co. for $224,155.

The academy graduating class of Pacific College gave a very entertaining class day program on Tuesday forenoon that was much appreciated by those in attendance.

On account of the handicap resulting from the flu, the high school is not graduating any students this year, and consequently there are no announcements to be made for the closing week.

The M. E. church choir of thirty voices went to Portland last Sunday evening and gave a concert at the Montavilla M. E. church where Rev. Hiram Gould is pastor. They returned in the evening after the concert.

Lee Jones, who had been in declining health for several months, died at his home out in the Fernwood neighborhood this morning, aged fifty years. He leaves a wife and several children. Funeral services will be held at the home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Newberg people had the pleasure of hearing the recently organized band for the first time on Decoration Day and many expressions of delight at their playing were heard. With the constant practice the fellows are keeping up the band will soon rank as one of the best in the valley.

M. G. Oakley sent in a second subscription of $10 for Armenian relief during the week and some one who did not give his name also sent in a check for $10 for the same purpose. The Graphic will gladly receive and forward and funds others may feel disposed to donate for this worthy cause.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brentner had their Ford pretty badly wrecked in a collision with a street car in Portland last Sunday and they received some painful wounds, though nothing serious. They drove to the city in company with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trimble and left their machine at a garage at Fifth and Taylor streets. When starting for home they drove out of the garage onto the street, when the machine was struck by a passing car. The Ford was turned over and Mrs. Brentner was pinned underneath and considerably bruised, and Mr. Brentner received some severe bruises on the side of his head. Mr. and Mrs. Trimble were also pretty severely bruised and the latter has been under a physician's care since coming home. Mr. Brentner says he had the right-of-way on the street and that the motorman had plenty of time to have stopped his car and thus avoid the accident, had he applied the brakes.

Sprinkle a little water over the ashes when removing them from the stove to prevent their blowing about.
