

NEWBERG'S NEED

DO you know that if all the money tributary to Newberg were deposited in the home banks this city would greatly exceed the MILLION DOLLAR CLASS IN DEPOSITS. Now that would mean even greater resources to put to the developing of our farm lands and business.

Let's patriotically patronize home enterprise.

DUNDEE

At the annual school election Monday Thos. Warner was elected director and E. P. Diment clerk.

David Marr and Elmo Shannahan are home from O. A. C. and James Allan from the University of Oregon.

Sheldon Mills, of Portland, who spent last summer at Otterbrook, has come back again for another summer at work in the Red Hills.

Medric M. Greer, another one of our overseas boys, arrived home on Sunday, after a quick trip across the ocean and a few days at Camp Dix and Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Goddard and Mrs. William Greer, of Tacoma, Theodore W. Spencer, Mrs. Cornelia J. Spencer, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Spencer and children, and Mr. Price, of Portland, have been recent guests at Otterbrook.

The most pretentious play Dundee's amateurs have ever given was "Green Stockings," presented by the high school students on Saturday evening under the direction of Prof. E. H. Anderson. The scene of the play is an English country house where a fashionable father is considerably bothered because his oldest daughter is still on his hands after the marriage of two younger ones and the engagement of the youngest of the four. The oldest daughter decides to take an engagement and then complications begin.

All the young people did good work in interpreting the characters, the principal flaw being the need of prompting which always marred a play. This difficulty was attributed to the delay necessary in securing the copyright for the presentation and the consequent lack of time for memorizing the long, difficult parts. Vel Marr, as Admiral Grice, a testy old gentleman, with the manner of an old seadog, pleased the audience, especially in his manner of breaking the news gently (?) of the death of Col. Smith.

Oriand Warner, as William Farraday, was a well preserved, fashionable, superficial, thoroughly selfish father, who managed to combine some real paternal feeling with his selfishness. Oriand deserves special credit for the clever way in which he came to the rescue in several awkward situations, an addition to his lines not previously rehearsed.

Will Hutchison, Col. Smith, had the difficult part of representing himself as the dead colonel and at two young men who fell in love with the young lady who had faked him as a sweetheart.

Fred Hutchison, Robert Tarver, an empty headed young swell running for office, was the comedian of the play and did his work well. Ralph Bennett and Robert Bennett, as Henry Steele and James Raleigh, two young men who fell in love with Cella too late, were characters well taken, especially in the scene of Ralph's abstract tete-a-tete with Cella. John Trunk made a dignified old family servant, Martin, whose orders were often conflicting.

Isabella Allan, the unmarried daughter of twenty-nine with a sense of humor, for so young an amateur, depicted the varying changes of mood in a most creditable manner. Sunshine and shadow followed each other rapidly in her role and she handled the changes well. Pauline Powell as Madge (Lady Rockingham) was a typical fashionable young English matron. Jessie Dillingham as Evelyn (Lady Trenchard) was a selfish, young widowed sister. Ruby Dodd, as Phyllis, the youngest sister, a charming and pretty but thoroughly selfish girl, did her work well. Hazel Pearson, Mrs. Chisholm Farraday, of Chicago, as Aunt Ida, a florid, quick-tempered, warm-hearted woman, won all hearts by her delightful way of standing by Cella in the mock engagement.

The play was valuable to the students as an addition to their English work for the year.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. Cyrene Palmer spent the week with relatives.

Miss Nellie Carter is at home at present, having spent the spring and summer in Portland.

N. C. Johnson and daughter, Miss Nina, attended the Adventist camp meeting in Portland.

There were a number of the Chehalis Center people took in the Rose Carnival in Portland last week.

N. C. Maris visited the community Tuesday in the interest of the Industrial Club work among the children.

Miss Gladys Small motored to Portland Tuesday, bringing her

Health Insurance

One of the distinctive qualities of food baked with Royal Baking Powder is wholesomeness.

This is health insurance of such vital importance that millions of women bake at home just to be sure that Royal Baking Powder is used.

Remember the adage—"Bake it with Royal and be sure."

friend, Mrs. Lila Pinney Suits, out for a visit.

Mrs. Etta Hall was greeting her many friends in the neighborhood the first of the week, having just returned from a visit in Wisconsin.

The Parent-Teacher Association held their meeting Monday evening, with business meeting and a social afterward, with a feed of cake, sandwiches and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Grimes and daughters, of Ferwood, came over to the Overland Sunday evening and did justice to that chicken dinner at the home of Mrs. Marie Tangen.

Lester and Lawrence Baker, accompanied by Eugene Thores, motored out from Portland last Saturday evening and spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hall and grandson, Elmer Hall, Ernest Hall and wife, Darrell and Delmer Hall, all celebrated Mrs. Alta Christian's birthday, by making them a visit.

The Boys' Athletic Club have a ball ground at present on the northwest portion of Mrs. Marie Tangen's farm. The boys certainly appreciate Mrs. Tangen's kindness in allowing them the base ball diamond. The last game resulted in favor of the young married men. Next Sunday afternoon they will engage a team from West Chehalis in which Billy Sullivan, the well known White Sox catcher, will be present.

The W. C. T. U. ladies, eight in number, held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Edith Walton June 11. The jubilee workers reported $17.30, six in new membership, and the rest in contributions to the Jubilee fund. They planned to have a public meeting in the near future with Mrs. Letta Hanson down for an address, and with an ice cream social afterwards. The July meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marie Tangen on July 9th.

Upon invitation the G. H. O. Club loaded into four autos Wednesday and motored over to Amity for a picnic dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Yarns, the parents of Mrs. A. A. Post. The following were the club ladies: Mesdames L. H. Meyer, A. A. Post, Wm. Small, Marie Tangen, Etta Hall, Nina Ramsey, J. W. Graves, R. W. Staley, Etta Shire, G. I. Morgan, L. R. Ralston and M. P. Johnson, Miss Clara Staley, L. E. Ralston, Ted Johnson, A. A. Post, chauffeurs.

School election was held Monday afternoon with 16 voters present. S. T. Bixler was elected to take the place of Mrs. Mary Johnson as director, F. L. Strait as clerk to succeed Mrs. Carrie Johnson; the ladies having served during the past six years to the best of their ability. The vote for the new auditorium went 14 to 2 in favor of the building. The Chehalis Center people, as patriotic citizens are proud to erect this in honor of our returning soldiers and for the benefit of the rising generation.

WEST CHEHALEM

That he cut himself while splitting wood for his wife.

That farmers' wives should not ask their men to split wood anyway.

We have observed—That Billy Dolph carried his arm in a sling for a time recently.

Kenneth Fendall and Ralph Baker are home for a few days. They expect to leave for the Umatilla country shortly to work during the summer.

George Bush has a field of wheat south of the church which is the best crop grown on that piece of ground for a season's age. All fall grain in the neighborhood is much above the average.

The South side road out the Valley has been greatly improved by rolling and grading. A very good piece of work was done and what appeared to be a hopeless stretch of road is now quite presentable.

Rock crushing will soon be under way at the Patton quarry. Fifteen hundred yards will be spread on the Lake road and around two thousand yard on the Ribbon Ridge road north from the church, atop of the volunteer work of the Ridge people. A few other short stretches of road will be also be rocked.

Mr. Martin, of Dundee, gave us a very good straightforward sermon Sunday. He said a Christian should be a drummer for the house of the Lord and a drummer that carried examples. The Sunday school lesson next Sunday will be about the greatest thing in the world. Come and find out what that is. Preaching service at 11, Christian Endeavor at 8 in the evening, led by Ralph Baker. The best that life has to offer is not found in excitement but in the like of this. Try it and see.
