

Locals and Personals

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TIME TABLE

NORTH BOUND TRAINS

Leave Newberg	Arrive Portland
No. 355, 6:12 a. m.	7:45 a. m.
No. 354, 9:11 a. m.	10:35 a. m.
No. 353, 1:18 p. m.	2:45 p. m.
No. 352, 4:08 p. m.	5:35 p. m.
No. 350, 7:04 p. m.	8:30 p. m.
No. 349, 12:50 a. m.	2:05 a. m.

†Sunday only.

SOUTH BOUND TRAINS

Leave Portland	Arrive Newberg
No. 351, 7:35 a. m.	9:00 a. m.
No. 355, 10:30 a. m.	11:45 a. m.
No. 353, 1:00 p. m.	2:20 p. m.
No. 352, 4:05 p. m.	5:30 p. m.
No. 357, 5:55 p. m.	6:55 p. m.
No. 361, 11:25 p. m.	12:45 a. m.

Trains Nos. 355 and 353 discontinued between Newberg and McMinnville.

United Motor Bus Company Time Table No. 3

Effective May 1, 1919. Subject to change without notice.

Leave Portland	Leave Newberg
4th and Alder	Parlor Pharmacy
8:30 A. M.	8:30 A. M.
9:30 A. M.	10:00 A. M.
11:00 A. M.	11:00 A. M.
1:00 P. M.	1:00 P. M.
2:30 P. M.	4:00 P. M.
4:15 P. M.	6:15 P. M.
6:30 P. M.

For reservations for Theatre Parties, etc., or for lost articles, call General Office, 506 Panama Building, Portland, Main 5105, or Parlor Pharmacy, Newberg, White 35.

No reservations less than 50 cents. No charge less than 25 cents. Look for the Triangle which is the Union emblem.

Miss Melba Saunders, one of the Commercial students at Pacific College the past winter, went to Salem last week to complete her course at the Capital State Business College.

The choir of the Baptist church loses for an indefinite time their leader, Miss Eva Moore, who has gone to Wisconsin to visit her parents and other relatives and friends.

J. C. Kirk, aged 84 years, who had been here visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Terrell, for several weeks, returned to Pasco, Washington, the first of the week.

N. A. Wickwire, who recently came to Newberg with his family, expecting to buy a small place near town, has located for the present at 508 South River street.

Dr. Harry Littlefield is garbed in citizen's clothes and he and Mrs. Littlefield are again residents of Newberg, he having received his discharge at Camp Lewis a few days ago.

Miss Lorene Smith, former Newberg high school graduate, when on her way from La Grande to Monmouth to attend the Summer Normal, stopped off here last Saturday for a visit with Miss Lorene Keeney.

As a parting gift to Pacific College, Prof. and Mrs. W. Ellis Pickett offered a scholarship in Pacific Academy to the graduate of Chehalis Center eighth grade for the year 1919-20 who stands highest in scholarship.

Mrs. Alfred Fuchs was showing on the streets Wednesday a German helmet that was awarded her and Mr. Fuchs at the Liberty Temple in Portland for their having bought Liberty Bonds to the amount of $1,000.00.

Died—June 6, 1919, at Porterville, California; Mrs. Naomi Flora, wife of C. C. Flora, aged 73 years and 10 months. The family were residents of Newberg and vicinity for many years and they had many friends here.

A. V. Hendrickson, who came out from Portland Tuesday to attend the Pickett-Everett wedding, called at the Graphic office to renew his subscription. The Hendrickson home was formerly out northwest of Newberg two miles.

Attorney M. H. Kendall was down from McMinnville on business Tuesday afternoon, but did not manifest any undue nervous strain as a result of the excitement occasioned by the oil boring talk that is current about the county seat.

E. E. Finley was up from Tigard Monday.

Born—To A. B. Shepherd and wife Tuesday morning, June 24, a son.

Wm. Sargent is working for the Pacific Face Brick Co. in Portland.

Misses Louise and Vera Samaga, of Portland, are visiting old friends in Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gehrke and son, Willie, of Gaston, spent Sunday with Newberg friends.

Fred Werth, former Newberg resident, was out from Portland on business the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gunning were down from McMinnville last Sunday visiting the J. F. Taylor family.

The Newberg band has been engaged to play for the big celebration to be held at Dayton on the Fourth.

Mrs. Mary Honeywell and children, of Portland, spent a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Duncan.

John Beals is very nicely settled in his new location, 401 First street, and since putting in some new machinery has a modern shoe repairing shop.

The S. D. Pearson family has gone to Rosedale to look after the prune orchard and will be away most of the time until after the fruit is harvested.

A car on the side track near the Spaulding Lumber mill caught fire Tuesday, but owing to the prompt and efficient service of the men no damage was done.

A team belonging to Mr. Addison, one of the wood haulers at the Spaulding Logging Co.'s mill, ran away the first of the week, breaking the wagon tongue.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Patton and Ira Patton are here from Miles City, Montana, and will take their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Driver, back with them if she gets able to make the trip.

Rollin-Birby sailed from Portland Wednesday on the West Harlan, one of the largest steel boats ever built in Portland. The destination is Italy and a cargo of wheat is carried.

The W. W. Hollingsworth Co. had charge of the funeral of Thomas Coleman, aged 65 years, which was held at St. Paul Tuesday forenoon. Deceased, who was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Abernathy, had been in declining health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, who sold their home on the corner of School and Sherman streets to Dr. Littlefield, left here on Tuesday afternoon for Bolivar, New York. Mrs. Baker has been a teacher in the Newberg schools for the past few years.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. L. A. Moore accompanied her niece, Miss Eva Moore, and Mrs. Chas. Churchill to Portland where they left on the 7:10 train over the Northern Pacific for an extended visit with relatives in and near Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Miss Grace Wilson went to Portland Monday to assist her friend, Miss Faye Price, a former student in the Newberg high school, in arranging for the marriage of the latter and Ralph Grabler, which was solemnized on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson also attended the wedding.

E. W. Evans was down from McMinnville Tuesday. Nearly thirty years ago he was a resident of Newberg, his home being at the foot of River street at what is now known as the McKee property, and it was he who set the walnut trees now growing there. He took great pride in the care and growth of the trees.

W. E. White & Co. report the sale of the L. M. Carey home of 22 1/4 acres, located between Newberg and Springbrook, to J. B. Adams, of La Fayette, for $8,500. Mr. Adams has a prune orchard at La Fayette but is buying the Carey place for a home, where he will engage in the berry business combined with poultry raising. Mr. and Mrs. Carey will go to Southern California in order to be with their son, Clyde.

On Wednesday afternoon while driving on First street going east, Mrs. Louie Barcroft collided with Rev. B. J. Cady's car at the intersection at Dayton Avenue. Mr. Cady was turning off of First street toward the avenue and apparently neither driver saw the other car until about the time the crash came. No one was hurt and the cars were not much injured, as they were not going at a rapid rate.

Mrs. Ivy W. Hazenberg, wife of W. F. Hazenberg, who had been in declining health from paralysis for some months, died on Monday at her home in Newberg, aged 45 years. The body was prepared for shipment to Napa, California, the former home of the deceased, by Hodson & Elliott, and Mr. Hazenberg and his daughter started on the trip south with the body on Wednesday afternoon.

Ed Asmus is the new member of the school board at Rex.

J. C. Porter is rusticiating at his farm in Tillamook county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gordon were here from Metzger, Sunday.

The college auxiliary will meet Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Thos. Root.

Isaac Roberts has gone to Tillamook county to engage in road work during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Moore went to Lebanon last week for a visit with the Rev. Yarns family.

C. C. Sargeant, accountant at the cannery, is located in the Brown property on Main street.

Miss Norma Harvey arrived home from Lebanon the first of the week where she has been teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, friends of the Ed Crede family, drove through from Tacoma a few days ago.

Thomas Crozer and family were down from Salem last Sunday visiting the W. E. Crozer household.

Mrs. J. R. Horning went to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Monday for additional treatment for gonorrhea.

Nathan Cook and family were here from Cartney on the Oregon Electric last Saturday and Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Rev. J. T. Little is preparing to move to Portland, he having accepted the pastorate of the First Nazarene church in the city.

Hon. J. C. Nelson, although ninety-two years old, was able to attend the meeting of the Pioneer Association in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ricks, of the Elson-White Lyceum Bureau, came out from Portland last Sunday for a visit with the W. T. Allen family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff, with their daughter, Mrs. McEwen, and the twins of Athens, went to Hood River, the former home of the Goffs, on Wednesday by auto.

Newberg people got a very good view of an airplane that was on its way from Portland to McMinnville last Saturday, and again on Monday when it was making the return trip.

Mrs. Mary C. Welsh, who is out from Bloomingdale, Indiana, for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Woodward, went to Corvallis today to visit her nephew, Paul V. Maris.

Hon. W. W. Langer telephoned from LaFayette asking that the announcement be made that a picnic of former North Dakota people will be held at the Yamhill locks on the Fourth.

Wm. Rees and family have moved back from Portland, they having sold their property in Newberg and located on a loganberry tract in West Chehalis, it being a part of the S. J. Madison farm.

A group of about 100 people who were formerly located in Klickitat county, Washington, gathered in the grove at the city park last Sunday for a picnic dinner and love feast. Ten automobile loads of people drove over from Vancouver to take part in the re-union.

Edgar Newall, who spent four years in the ambulance service with the Canadian forces in France where he saw the worst to be seen in war, has been visiting with Newberg and Springbrook friends for the past week. His mother is in Seattle and he expects to return to Canada soon.

Prof. Eli Hadley, brother of Alonzo Hadley, came out from Portland last week, bringing their sister, Alma, who has taken her maiden name again. She left here many years ago and has since been a resident of California. However, she came here from Montana where she spent some time with a son.

The latter part of last week when driving out in the Fernwood district with a half dozen sacks of potatoes in their car, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Duncan were quite severely injured by the overturning of the machine. In turning out on meeting another machine the wheels skidded on the grass, causing it to turn over. Both were caught under the car and Mr. Duncan's neck was almost broken though he is now on the road to recovery.

The Barcroft Drug store has been sold to W. A. Graham who was formerly engaged in the drug business at Des Moines, Iowa. Since coming to Oregon he has been doing supply work and he came to Newberg from Falls City. Mr. Graham has a pleasing personality which is always a valuable asset for anyone who has to deal with the public. He was fortunate in being able to secure the bungalow on Fifth street recently vacated by the J. R. Waldron family, where he and Mrs. Graham are comfortably located. The store under the new management will be known as the Graham Pharmacy.

4c The Retail Price of 4c Wood is $6.00 Per Cord

Electricity at 4c per Kilowatt Hour is cheaper and better in every way for cooking purposes. The Westinghouse Automatic Electric Steel Range is a marvel of perfection. We sell this range at the price it costs us laid down on our floor. If you want to save money, labor and inconvenience, the Electric Range is the way to do it. There are thousands of these ranges in use all over the country and they are perfectly satisfactory in performance and operating cost. Electric Cooking is ideal. The food is better prepared. There are more nutritious values left in the food when cooked the Electric way than by any of the old methods.

You will have an ELECTRIC RANGE some day
4c Why not now? 4c

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

Hobart Littlefield is home from overseas and appeared on the street for the first time today.

The Graphic editor went to Portland last Saturday to attend the funeral of a long-time newspaper friend, W. J. Clarke, son of the pioneer journalist and historian, Sam Clarke. For seventeen years Mr. Clarke was the publisher of the Gervais Star and he was a familiar and jovial figure at the annual meetings of the State Press Association. After selling out at Gervais some years ago he went to Portland where he operated a job printing plant until his health began to fail him a year or more ago.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst our beloved brother, Theodore H. Gardner, and

Whereas, Toward all with whom he came in contact Brother Gardner exercised the teachings of Odd Fellowship and made those principles a part of his daily life, and

Whereas, The sincere and heartfelt sympathy of the members of this Lodge goes out to the family of our brother in this their time of sorrow and affliction; therefore be it

Resolved, That Willamette Lodge No. 96, I. O. O. F., does hereby extend to the bereaved family the unalloyed sympathy of the entire membership of this Lodge, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and copies thereof furnished to the bereaved family and to the local press.

B. J. Groth,
W. L. Robertson,
A. C. Stanbrough,
Committee.

Yamhill County Abstract Co.
J. H. GIBSON, Mgr.
The only Abstract Books in Yamhill County
McMINNVILLE. OREGON

A Home Industry

THE VALLEY CANNING CO.

having doubled its capacity, desires to encourage large plantings of black caps, loganberries, red raspberries, strawberries, and will make long-time contracts, thus insuring the grower a dependable investment for the future.

WANTED—Unlimited quantities of cherries, berries, pears, quince, plums and prunes. Ours is a home institution and we are here to do business, giving everybody a square deal. Come in and let us talk it over with you.

Valley
Canning Co.

You'll Meet Many Friends

When you come to this bank to cash a check or for any other purpose. They will be men you are glad to know and of high reputation for business ability. The list of our depositors contains the names of many of the city's business people. If you have no bank account why not open one?

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
NEWBERG, OREGON

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. W. A. Graham, a druggist of wide experience, has purchased the Barcroft Pharmacy, and will maintain a modern up-to-date drug store. A competent Registered Pharmacist will always be in charge and careful attention will be given your prescriptions.

By courteous treatment and fair dealings we will endeavor to merit your patronage.