HOME-MAKING NOT SO EASY

Housewife Seeks to Be Right When She Condemns Ideas Formulated by the Theorists.

"I am always amused," said the housewife, according to the New York Evening Post, "at the proposition that so often read and hear that munition and factory girls enter domestic service. The theorists seem to imagine that such a change can be accomplished right about face—overnight. In the twinkling of an eye, Good housework, of the sort that should be our standard, is not so easy as all that. While I don't consider that housework requires lifelong training, yet never have I taken a girl from a factory who knew the difference between a cloth for washing dishes and one for wiping floors. As a rule a factory girl is ignorant of the simplest sanitary essentials that stand for home making. Cooking she may be taught, and cleaning she may learn, but the basic principles and habits are not picked up so readily. Many a time have I said to a maid: 'Had you gone to kindergarten you would never have piled your dishes and saucers like that.' It was at a kindergarten conference in California, you may recall, where it was said that no convicted criminal in that state had had kindergarten training. Besides their uncertain help in the homes of others think how wanting in their own homes—when they get them—these young factory girls will be—unless they pick up considerably more knowledge about domestic ways and means."

EAST HAS ITS OWN IDEALS

Not All Wisdom, Virtue and Honesty Can Be Claimed as the Prerogative of the West.

If it is more important to introduce ready-made cigarettes than it is to supply an example of unparalleled commercial honesty, China owes us a great deal. Otherwise, it is vice versa. As an expert manager and as a member of the committee on foreign trade of the National Association of Manufacturers, I have learned much from foreigners in methods of merchandising, in courtesy and in breadth of business vision. The credit losses of American manufacturers average less in their dealings with the far East than they do in their domestic relations. Unjustified claims, petty exactions and semi-dishonesty are less frequent in foreign than in home trade.

An incident which happened in a New York hotel may give a hint as to why orientals are slow at accepting American ideals at our own valuation. An export manager was discussing with his Bombay agent the details of a campaign to cover the markets of India and Afghanistan. An American friend, calling the manager aside, whispered:

"How can you bear to talk with a nigger?" The exporter explained his long friendship with the Indian and the importance of their business relations. Then he turned to introduce the two men. The Bombay merchant had hastily put on his right glove and shook hands with his hand covered. "Why the glove?" the exporter asked when they were alone. "How else could I return the insult of his first glance without embarrassing you, good friend? The fact that he did not appreciate the insult makes my enjoyment the keener."—Exchange.

if not the superior of any other cereal beverage you ever tasted!

Here is one of the most daring offers ever made. If we are wrong, we stand to lose a fortune. If we are right, our product should receive your preference. We appoint you judge and jury. Your decision will be final. You will accept—will you not?

OUR STARTLING PROPOSAL

Go to any dealer in soft drinks and buy two bottles of RAINIER SPECIAL. Take them home. Properly chill them. Enjoy the beverage—compare it with any other cereal beverage you ever tasted. Have a try. Get their opinion. If they or you think you have ever tasted a cereal beverage that surpasses it, mail us the caps of the bottles, with your name and address, date of purchase, and name and address of dealer from whom purchase was made, and we will return to you, without quibble or question, the sum you spent for the beverage.

A FORTUNE INVOLVED

If we were not reasonably sure of our ground, it would be the height of folly to make this offer. The six million people to whom it eventually will be made could easily take a fortune from us. Our product, however, is such a superior article that we feel we are taking no more than an ordinary business risk. Our opinion is that RAINIER SPECIAL has no equal among cereal beverages in the world today.

ACCEPT OUR OFFER AT ONCE

Our offer is so unusual that all should accept it. If RAINIER SPECIAL is found inferior, you get every penny of your money back. If superior, you are enlightened as to the proper brand of cereal beverages to demand. You win either way. You take no risk whatever. You will find RAINIER SPECIAL wherever good things to drink are sold. The large eleven-ounce bottles contain two standard size glasses of beverage. This daring offer holds good for five days only.

Rainier Products Company, Seattle, U. S. A., Manufacturer of Rainier Special, Rainier Beer, Malt Rainier, Rainier Cereal, Syrup and Denatured Alcohol.
