

Locals and Personals

G. W. Myers Jr., and family were down from Sheridan the first of the week.

John E. Vestal is out from Portland visiting his cousin, Mrs. Henry Ehret and family.

Bob Patterson returned last week from overseas service. He spent several months in France.

W. C. Dunlap, of Southern California, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlap.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Randall, who live on Wynook street, June 27, a son.

Charley Cavell is off for the Alberta country today to look after a prospective sale of his land.

Rev. Coffee, the new pastor of the Free Methodist church, will preach his first sermon next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hall and Mrs. Sweet and young son were out from Portland last Sunday afternoon.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith, who live across the river in Marion county, June 26, a daughter, Chester Holt, who was on the firing line with the A. E. F. in France for several months, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. F. C. Wooten, of Portland, has been out visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eryn Scott, during the week.

Mrs. Olive Bennett has a new grandson born to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Williams at Dee, in the Hood River country, June 26.

Newberg will pass a quiet Fourth without any celebration. A large number of those who go away to celebrate will go to Dayton. The cannery will run in order to take care of the stuff.

The Polk County Observer says: T. J. Werth, formerly of Newberg, who now lives at Butler above Williams, recently bought three Jersey cows at $250 per head. He is engaged in dairying on his ranch.

S. M. Calkins, who bought the Henry Mills property on South College street opposite the Friends church a short time ago, is putting an addition to the house that will add much to its appearance and furnish nearly double the amount of room.

Postmaster John Larkin arrived home last Monday from his extended vacation in Southern California and reports a very satisfactory breathing spell.

The bicycle trade in Newberg is picking up. Harry Garrett, the Cyclery man, sold three the first of the week and has just received a shipment of 20 new bicycles.

Rev. Joseph Hall closed up his business here and took his departure for his new home at Santa Ana, California, Monday afternoon. He has two sisters living in that city.

Capt. Fred D. Rucker, M. D., who was recently discharged from the service, is here visiting his family. Mrs. Rucker is a sister of Dr. Sarah Smith and Mrs. Georgia Babcock.

A. P. Fletcher and Ed Perkins were down from Lafayette the first of the week circulating a petition urging the improvement of the State Highway from West Dayton on past Lafayette.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sanders, who drove through from Bend in a Ford, are here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sanders. He has a position in the postoffice at Bend and is off on his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom and President Pennington and daughter, Bertha May, went to Yreka last Saturday where on Sunday night Pres. Pennington preached at the Evangelical church.

Vivian Hadley has accepted a position with the Graves Canning Co., of Sheridan, and the boys say he has applied for an additional position as drum major for the ladies' band that toots for the cannery.

Prof. R. L. Rutherford, of Montana, who was on his way to Berkeley, California, to attend summer school at the university, stopped over here Tuesday night for a short visit with his friend, Asa F. Sutton.

A note slipped under the door of the Graphic office Monday night which was signed Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Updegraff, San Diego, California, said, "Saw the Rev. Mr. Van Dyke and wife in Spokane on their way east on June 26. Both well and enjoying their trip. Were leaving for Yellowstone Park."

Rev. George W. Lee is expected to arrive home from his extended visit east during the week and he is in his pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, when the quarterly communion service will be observed.

Dr. L. W. Horn, the new veterinary, has bought the Oliver property on North School street, making it necessary for A. C. Seely, who has been occupying it, to move. He has taken the Comer property on South Center street.

The Craig sisters' place out northwest of Newberg has been sold the second time, the first purchaser failing to come through. The man who gets the place is C. A. Palmquist, who came from Montana and the price was $5,250 cash.

M. S. Shrock and another gentleman named Darling, who represent the State Dairymen's League, were in Newberg Tuesday conferring with the managers of the condensery, relative to effecting an organization among the dairymen of this section.

John Ormond was here from La Grande a few days ago visiting his son, Wm. Ormond, of the creamery, and while here received the glad intelligence that his son who has been with the army in France had sailed from Marseilles for the home land.

Dave Irelan, our efficient street commissioner, who had a force out giving the street fringes a Fourth of July hair cut the first of the week, should be encouraged in the good work, even to extending admonition to property owners to cooperate.

H. M. McFadden, advance man for the Ellison-White Chautauque Bureau, came out from Portland last Saturday evening to meet with the local committee. He says the talent which constitutes the six-day course, which Newberg will have, is doing good work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Haskin, who went to Bandon recently where he has an engagement playing drums and saxophone in an orchestra, write that they are enjoying Bandon's beautiful beach. He will play with the Myrtle Point band for the Coos County Round-up.

Rev. W. N. Coffee, the new pastor of the Free Methodist church, has just returned from Greenville, Illinois, where he attended the General Conference of the church. He will preach Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Curtis and Ira Patton and Mrs. Jefferson Wholman, who came from Montana recently to visit their mother, Mrs. Patton, who has been sick for some time, have returned home with the intention of selling out their Montana interests and coming to Oregon to locate.

Leo Fried, of the Prineville Land & Cattle Co., Martin Marks, of the Martin Marks Coffee Co., of Portland, and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. Goldsmith, L. S. Kelsner, superintendent of the city parks of Portland, and daughter were Sunday guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Evans.

Dr. Burton C. Platt, of Los Angeles, who is the owner of the "Bonanza Gostery," consisting of 360 head of full blood and high grade Nubian goats, is here visiting Gilbert & Bissett, the local goat firm, and indulging in goat talk. Dr. Platt has a desire to invade Oregon and he is out looking up a location suitable for handling goats.

J. P. Mattoon, an experienced cheese maker of Tillamook, has accepted a position with the Newberg Creamery and the first cheese was turned out the first of the week. The proof of the pudding is the tasting and the Graphic force has a promise of a nibble when the cheese has had time for proper seasoning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carey, of Sacramento, California, and Mrs. Kate Watt, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wells one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Carey drove from Sacramento in their car. Mr. Carey and Mrs. Watt are old time friends of Mr. Wells. Mrs. Watt and Mr. Wells had not met for forty years. A very enjoyable day was spent talking over old times.

F. O. Breckenridge has sold his 20 acre tract east of town, formerly owned by Rev. Joseph Hall, to a man from North Dakota named Doolittle, who will come on in the fall to take possession. He is said to have sold a Dakota farm recently for more than $70,000, retaining the growing crop which he estimates to be worth $20,000. While here he stated that a number of his neighbors were selling out their holdings at from $50,000 to $150,000 with a view of seeking a milder climate in Oregon. Mr. Breckenridge has accepted a position at one of the state institutions at Salem under the direction of Dr. Steiner.

Miss Leona Jackson, who spent several days visiting with friends in the country after the closing of the Newberg schools, left here Tuesday for Oakland, California, where she will spend a part of her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn returned Monday evening from a two weeks' wedding trip, and are now living at the Imperial hotel. Mrs. Dunn was formerly Miss Crockett, of the Mrs. B. M. Kling millinery establishment, and Mr. Dunn is employed in the L. E. Ferguson drug store.

Frank Taylor, the combination printer and real estate man, in company with F. A. Morris made an all day auto trip Monday, circling up through McMinnville, Amity, and into Polk county, and say the hay crop is the best ever and that grain is making great promise of a most abundant crop.

Mrs. Eunice Kurich, of Sweetgrass, Montana, who has been visiting a sister at Dayton, spent the first of the week in Newberg visiting Mrs. Josie Fields. She was located in Newberg several years ago in the hotel business. Besides owning a section of Montana land, she is engaged in the confectionery business.

Rev. T. Brouillette was out from Portland the first of the week in company with a cousin of his, the Rev. Charles Brouillette, of Long Beach, California, who is off for a vacation of a year and will make a tour of this country, after which he intends to sail for Europe. They came out to visit Nelson Brouillette who is their nephew.

Mr. Whitney, who recently bought some of the J. L. Haworth and W. E. Williams prune land out north of Springfield, was at one time publisher of the Albany Herald and later was elected as State Printer, which office he held for four years. His home has been in Portland of recent years. He has been out lately looking after the berry crop on the land.

Mrs. K. Hawley Jackson in sending an article for publication writes that they arrived in India, March 16, and that they went at once to a station where they have since been attending the Marathi language school and working hard in order to meet the requirements of the first examinations which occur in November. She says they are enjoying the work thoroughly.

On Wednesday W. E. White & Co. made the sale of the John Holliday place out north of Springfield, owned by Dr. Charles E. Jones, of Tigard, to W. E. Eames who has been farming a place out west of town formerly known as the Hicks farm. This farm was sold recently, making it necessary for Mr. Eames to move, and consequently he got busy on a purchase of his own. The Holiday place sold for $6,500.

Mr. Olson and two other members of the United Bus Co., who are operating cars on the run between Newberg and Portland, have invested $10,000 in three big motor cars, each of 12 passenger capacity, which they propose to operate between McMinnville and Portland, by way of Newberg, carrying passengers at $1.25 from the county seat to Portland. One of the cars is already out of the shop and has been on the run from here during the week. It makes a neat appearance and looks like it would do satisfactory service on good roads.

A. J. Heskett, who has been a member of the Ellison-White Chautauque force for the past two years and who is spending a little time at his home at Rex, was a caller at the Graphic office a few days ago. With the end of August he will terminate his contract with Ellison-White and return to New York to again take a position with the Pond bureau. He was with this bureau when the war came on and as Mr. Pond enlisted for the service Mr. Heskett dropped out. Mr. Pond has now returned and has made him an offer which he says he cannot afford to turn down.

Frank E. Colcord arrived home from France the first of the week where he spent fifteen months in the Friends' mission and reconstruction service. He was first stationed at Oran where he was engaged with the transport department in connection with the factory there for making demountable houses and was afterward stationed at Auberville and Varennes and finally at Besancon. Driving a motor truck as he was much of the time he had an opportunity to see much of the country. He sailed from Marseilles across the Mediterranean Sea, making a stop at Oran on the coast of Africa for coaling, which kept them for four days, as the coal was passed from the bunkers to the vessel in baskets by the Arab natives. Leaving this port they passed out through the Straits of Gibraltar. The ship was loaded with returning soldiers and some forty Red Cross workers.

4c The Retail Price of 4c Wood is $6.00 Per Cord

Electricity at 4c per Kilowatt Hour is cheaper and better in every way for cooking purposes. The Westinghouse Automatic Electric Range is a marvel of perfection. We sell this range at the price it costs us laid down on our floor. If you want to save money, labor and inconvenience, the Electric Range is the way to do it. There are thousands of these ranges in use all over the country and they are perfectly satisfactory in performance and operating cost. Electric Cooking is ideal. The food is better prepared. There are more nutritious values left in the food when cooked the Electric way than by any of the old methods.

You will have an ELECTRIC RANGE some day
4c Why not now? 4c

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

Mrs. B. G. Mitchell and daughters, Eleanor and Louise, who spent a few weeks here, visiting her mother, Mrs. Ella Langellier, left the first of the week for Detroit, Washington. Mr. Mitchell is doing Y. M. C. A. work in Siberia and is said to be getting along well as superintendent of the branch in the field in which he is located. He has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work for many years and is known as an active, forceful exponent of this branch of Christian work among men.

The Misses Ruth and Florence Lee returned home last Friday from Port Angeles, Washington, where the former has been teaching this last year and where Miss Florence went two months ago to finish her school year with her sister. Before returning home they spent eight days up at the Olympic Hot Springs in the heart of the Olympic Mountains with Miss Norma Harvey, who has been teaching in Port Angeles, and with Miss Ethel Andrews, of Vancouver, who spent her week's vacation with the other three girls.

CHELEMAN CENTER

Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer went to McMinnville last Friday.

Robert Shires is home from West Timber to spend the Fourth.

Forest Staley had the misfortune to get his fingers badly hurt at the rock crusher Monday.

Mrs. Etta Hall is now at home to her many friends after having made an extended visit with relatives in the East.

Henry McGuire Jr., is erecting a very neat cottage on his home farm. Wonder if Henry has any intentions in the matrimonial line?

L. H. Meyer motored to Portland Sunday, bringing Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hall and Miss Florence out to the country for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchings, of Portland, were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Lineas Christianson.

Mr. Hutchings lately returned from overseas service.

The home of Mrs. Marie Tange was invaded last Wednesday evening, June 23, by a number of the young people who participated in a general good time. After indulging in a barn dance, ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Tange gave the festive occasion in honor of Edwin Small, one of the lately returned overseas soldiers, it being his birthday.

Last Friday evening by invitation a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer gathered for a social time at their home. The time passed very pleasantly in a social way. A generous supply of sandwiches, cake and fruit plates were served. Those present were the Messrs. and their wives: Chas. Shire, S. W. Staley, R. L. Ralston, S. T. Bixler, H. Walton, the Messdames Wm. Small, Mary Johnson, Etta Hall, Marie Tange, G. I. Morgan and the Misses Gladys Small, Marguerite Johnson and Ora Morgan, and Christian Meyer, aside from the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer.

Carlos Johnson and Elmer Hodges are expected home soon. Carlos was home a short time Sunday evening but returned to Portland on his way to Camp Lewis. Johnson, Hodges and Victor Hendrickson were among the first to volunteer their services to the U. S. in the early part of 1917 from Cheleman Center. Victor is still in the overseas service. Aside from their experience of giving up all that was dear to the heart in the homeland and enduring hardships untold in knocking around from camp to camp, they have gleaned a good knowledge of the world, and of military training, but best of all they have done their duty for home and the U. S. A. Later—Carlos Johnson came home Tuesday evening.

Subscribe for the Graphic and get the home news.

IF YOU NEED
CASH

just write a check for it if you are a bank depositor. But it is surprising with how little actual cash you can get along, and comfortably, too. If you are a depositor try the experiment of putting your cash where it will not tempt you to spend unnecessarily or too readily. We'll accept your account with pleasure. You'll continue it with more.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
NEWBERG, OREGON

THE NEW Brunswick

featuring the New Oval all wood tone amplifier is here.
This oval tone chamber with other exclusive Brunswick features makes

THE PHONOGRAPH SUPREME

Graham's Drug Store

SUCCESSOR TO BARBOFF'S DRUG STORE

NEXT DOOR TO P. O.

Nyal and San Toy Remedies

Eastman Kodaks

SAVE Vacation Money By Buying Vacation Needs NOW

We have given careful thought to securing the articles necessary for

YOUR VACATION COMFORT

We not only save you money but offer a more complete selection than you can find at resorts. :: :: ::

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist

The REXALL Store

NEWBERG,

OREGON