

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards drove in from Tillamook Tuesday.

Ralph Roberts and family were out from Portland Sunday for a visit with relatives.

George Lutz, clerk in the E. C. Baird store, is off with his family for a vacation at Siletz.

Abe Cooke and his daughter, Mrs. Roy Riley, are off on an auto trip to the Tillamook beaches.

Miss Dora E. Jaquith, whose home was in Newberg at one time, came over from Laurel last Saturday.

Roy Ellis, son of Zimri Ellis, is here with his family from Lberal, Kansas, and will remain for some time.

Mrs. L. M. Parker returned home from Salem Tuesday morning where she visited with her son-in-law, Dr. J. R. Pemberton, and family.

Corporal Charles E. Reynolds, stepson of W. A. Kemp who is head sawyer at the saw mill, is expected home soon from overseas.

Mrs. Marie K. Evans and daughters, Helen and Wilma, in company with Miss Zella Sears, are spending a few days at the Tillamook beaches.

The mother of A. A. and J. E. Willis died at her home at Whiteson Monday from blood poison. The funeral was held Wednesday morning.

Mrs. T. H. Thorne has returned from an extended visit with relatives at Wenaschee and Spokane, Washington, and at their former home at Pendleton.

Bain Morris, son of George Morris, and Keith Horning, son of J. R. Horning, arrived home the first of the week, they having been with the army of occupation in Germany.

C. J. Hardwick, from Salem, is here for a few days, visiting his brother, George Hardwick. He came here from Eugene where he visited his sister, Mrs. C. J. Leavitt. Mr. Hardwick was in Newberg seven years ago and likes the place and people so well he may decide to locate here.

H. H. Parsons, who moved here from Tigard the first of the week, has located on Twelfth street.

Miss Myrl Woodward went to Portland Tuesday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Kings.

Ass Sutton went to Portland Tuesday evening to meet Mrs. Jones, the mother of Mrs. Sutton, who came from her Montana home for a visit.

Mrs. J. W. Moore, Miss Mabel Reed and Clifton Baron went to Portland Sunday to attend the District Meeting of the Brethren church.

The Misses Sarah and Elizabeth Sutton and their little nephews, the sons of Ass Sutton, left for Astoria and Seaside early Wednesday morning where they will spend a few days.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Myrtle Atkinson and the Misses Lula and Edna Graves arrived home from Grand View, Washington, where they spent ten days at the John Cox home.

Albert Reed, who recently had his foot injured in a mill factory in Portland and who spent part of last week at his home in Newberg recuperating from the injury, returned to work Monday morning.

Mrs. Evangeline Martin, Mrs. Emily Gardner and Silas Hanson went to Portland Wednesday to attend the funeral of their nephew, O. M. Hanson, who formerly lived on a ranch on Chehalis Mountain.

When Miss Pauline Robertson returned to her work in Portland the latter part of last week, she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Robertson, who has since been visiting in the city with Mrs. W. O. Robertson.

The college auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hollingsworth Saturday afternoon. This will be the last meeting of the auxiliary that Mrs. Pennington will attend for some time to come and a full attendance of the members is desired.

W. D. Pierson, of Carlton, is now driving and is well pleased with his Dixie Flyer, bought of the F. M. Shuck Auto Sales Co.

C. J. Hopkins is stationed at the city hall checking up the accounts of the city, and while there is looking after the work in the recorder's office while Mrs. Smith, city recorder, is taking a vacation.

Prof. F. W. Perlisho arrived home from Idaho Tuesday, where he went in the interest of Pacific College, and reports the outlook good for several students coming from there for the opening of school next month.

Harry E. Grove, who has been in Uncle Sam's service for a number of years and who saw considerable active duty in France, left here Monday after a ten days' visit with his sister, Mrs. J. E. Whitton. Mr. Grove has re-enlisted and will be stationed at Aberdeen, South Dakota.

C. C. Quackenbush is the new head accountant in the office of the Valley Canning Co. Mr. Sargent, who has held the place for several months, will return to Portland to take the place as credit man for the John Deere Plow Co., for whom he worked for ten years before coming to Newberg.

It is evident that small tracts of land in this section are in great demand from outside parties. W. T. Lewis says he had four different prospective buyers out to see the George Howland twenty acre tract in upper West Chehalis, Tuesday, and on Wednesday he sold it to Horace Washburn, from Seaside, for $3,500.

Fred Levi T. Pennington, who went east some time ago and who has been as far east as New York and south as far as Guilford College, North Carolina, is expected to arrive home Saturday evening and will take part in the Young Friends Conference which will be held on the college campus, beginning on Monday evening of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gates, Joe Gates and daughter, of Vancouver, Washington, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Alberts, of Hampton, Iowa, motored to Newberg Sunday and spent the day visiting their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Walther. This was Mr. and Mrs. Alberts' first trip out in the Willamette Valley and they were greatly impressed with what they saw.

Granville Everest, who was over from his Laurel ranch Wednesday, asked the Graphic to say for him that his five-acre tract just east of Newberg is not for sale. Said he was hindered every time he came to town by prospective buyers who stop him to ask if it is for sale. That was the place of his birth and he thinks it is good enough for a home in the sundown of life which will come later on.

Miss Adaline Ames, who has been teaching on an island on the Sound out from Seattle, is here visiting her uncle, Fred L. Ames. At the close of the school year she had planned to return to her home in Nebraska but an offer came to her of a position in the Seattle high schools the coming year and she accepted. She is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and has also taken advanced work in an Eastern university.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fuchs gave a birthday dinner last Sunday at their home on South College street, Mr. Raymond, the foreman in the shipyard at Vancouver where Mr. Fuchs is working, was out from Portland with his wife and daughter, Miss Mildred. Others in attendance were Earl Horning and Emil Brachler, of Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schmidt, of Dundee. It was something of a union affair since August is the birth month for Mr. and Mrs. Fuchs, Mr. Raymond and Mrs. Herman Schmidt. In the evening ice cream and chocolates were served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rees, who have lived in San Francisco for several years where he has been working in the land and timber department of the Southern Pacific Railroad Co., were here the first of the week visiting her brothers, H. R. and George Morris, and with his brother, J. H. Rees. For the past few months he has been located at Calexico in the Imperial Valley where the summer climate is such that abbreviated clothing is one of the requirements. He remarked that in three months' time while there he had not worn a coat, but that with deep soil, hot sunshine and water for irrigation it was the most productive country he had ever seen. Mrs. Rees will visit with her daughter at Kellogg, Idaho, before she returns to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Roberts are off for their new home at Greenleaf, Idaho.

Carroll Whinery, of Lebanon, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. F. M. Shuck.

The L. F. Moore family and Miss Grace Wilson left this morning for an auto trip to Crater Lake.

A little daughter of Tom Burns, who lives near Mountain Top, fell from a horse recently, breaking her arm.

Mrs. Minnie C. Wanless returned to her home in Portland Wednesday after a few days spent at her ranch near Ribbon Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Shuck, of the F. M. Shuck Auto Sales Co., motored to Lebanon, Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Shuck's parents.

Rev. J. A. Reed spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Portland where he took part in the program of the District Meeting of the Brethren church.

The Misses Mary and Merle Sanders have returned from the Alberta country for school work, the former for college and the latter for the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlap and D. C. Gilek went to Portland Saturday for a short visit with relatives and to attend the District Meeting of the Brethren church.

G. H. Carl's representative, of Carlton, visited Newberg for about an hour August 18, and purchased a 1919 Overland Model 90 from the F. M. Shuck Auto Sales Co.

Mrs. J. C. Bell and children of Corvallis, and Miss Myrtle Bell, of Tacoma, who spent several days last week with their grandfather, A. Millard, have returned to their respective homes.

Jesse Edwards is having some rooms fitted up for transients on the second floor of his brick building adjoining the Imperial hotel, which is overrun and unable to furnish rooms for all who apply.

On Tuesday while Bert Warner was working on the Chase & Linton gravel dredge he had an arm broken. A flying bolt flung a scantling that struck him, breaking his arm and giving him some other severe bruises.

The Miller Mercantile Co. announces that they will close their 5 stores on Labor Day, Monday, September 1, and will hold a big get-together picnic at LaFayette Locks. All employees and their families are expected to be there.

In the crowd at the ball game Monday the following McMinnville people were noted: J. G. Eckman, editor of the Telephone-Register, his son, Joe, S. S. Dow and daughter, with other young lady friends, C. B. Wilson and son, Wendell, and daughter, Miss Lois.

Miss Emma Silver, sister of W. W. Silver, who has been home from the mission field in China on a vacation, came recently from New York where she spent the winter and is making a visit here. She expects to sail on the return trip to China in about two weeks.

Dave Coyle, of St. Paul, is cleaning up the meat shop on First street just west of Hanning's grocery, and expects to open a meat market the first of September. The new shoe cobbler who has occupied the shop for the past few weeks has moved into the brick two doors west.

Large quantities of material are being assembled for the building of the new concrete bridge on East First street and pile driving was begun Wednesday. Horace Newlin, of Springbrook, has the contract for hauling the gravel and sand from the river for the concrete work.

Lottie Spencer, a member of the Degree Team of Kirkpatrick Council, Knights and Ladies of Security, is in town this week looking up new members. She will be present at the lodge meeting Friday night. As this will be an open meeting the public is cordially invited to be present.

Thomas Hollingsworth, who lives on Illinois street, noticed a news note in a Portland paper the other day from Des Moines, Iowa, telling of a patch of hand tenced corn that measured eight feet two inches in height. Now Uncle Tom grew up on a 640 acre farm 20 miles from Des Moines and he says he knows what Iowa corn is, but that he can beat this corn story here at his home in Newberg where he has a patch that has been "hand tenced." Some of the stalks of which measure nine feet eight inches in height, and this has not been a good corn season either. With favorable weather conditions he thinks he would have been able to grow some really tall corn this season.

Electric Ranges
" Washers
" Sewing Machine
" Brooms (Vacuum Cleaners)

Save you physical effort,
Do the work better.

Cook, wash, sew and sweep splendidly

Special rate 4c per kilo-watt hour for cooking

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

Farmers are selling wheat about town in small lots at $2 a bushel.

Ira Hutchens, who has been in the Newberg hospital for a few weeks, was removed to his home Saturday.

R. F. Hewland, G. A. R. veteran, was overcome by heat at the saw mill Tuesday and has since been in a serious condition.

Mrs. H. M. Huffman, who was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland for an operation, is reported to be getting along well.

Roscoe Hutchens and family, accompanied by Joe Henderson and daughter, went to Pacific City Sunday for a short vacation at the seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Priser are in Portland this week visiting some former Idaho friends and attending the District Meeting of the Brethren church.

Mrs. F. W. Curtis visited with Portland friends for few days this week. Her daughter, Miss Leona, accompanied her, returning Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. M. Shuck has recently received a telegram giving information of the death of a favorite cousin, Minnie Ferguson, of Anthony, Kansas.

Mrs. Matilda Hoskins, widow of C. J. Hoskins who was the pioneer prune grower of this section, is in falling health at her home at Springbrook.

Alfred Smith, the harness maker, and one of the Walker brothers came in from the Alberta country a few days ago. They say it is awfully dry up there.

Charley Butler has been employed as a salesman by the new firm that is opening up in the brick store building on the corner of First and College streets. He began checking up a stock of groceries this morning. Other lines will follow later.

On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pyle and Mr. and Mrs. Connor celebrated their wedding anniversary with a big dinner at the Pyle home at the corner of West Third and Lincoln streets. Besides those mentioned above those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Tuffley, Kenneth Martin, of Oregon City, and Fred Sutherland.

NU BONE CORSETS

ALSO BENDS EDGEWISE

Supremely Fashionable, Delightfully Comfortable, Moderate Priced and Satisfaction Guaranteed, Non-Elastic, Non-Breakable, Makes no Permanent Band. Appointments made by phone.

CORA E. NIEDERICKS

Phone White 200 Newberg, Ore.

Rev. Fred E. Carter and his Indiana relatives are away on a fishing trip.

T. H. Thorne has been laid up for repairs during the week on account of being jammed in a stall by one of his horses.

State Forester F. A. Elliott and son, John, came down from Salem Monday afternoon, by chance, of course and looked in on the big ball game.

jitney Service

Am prepared to carry passengers about town, picnic parties and make Highway trips. Cecil Hinshaw, 816 Ninth street. Phone White 43. 2817

Cut Weeds and Grass Forthwith

Since grass and weeds at this time of year increase the danger of fire and are also unsightly, notice is hereby given to property owners to have all such cut without delay and the premises cleaned up. By direction of the council.

Rebecca W. H. Smith, Recorder of the City of Newberg.

Summer Jewelry

THE bracelet watch is an ornamental utility.

Our assortment contains the newest examples of goldsmithing skill and design.

The movements are 100 per cent American and built to go.

C. A. MORRIS
Jeweler and Optician

SICKNESS IN YOUR FAMILY

MAKES necessary many unusual articles for comfort and to aid recovery.

The Rexall Store is equipped to supply every such article desired by doctor or nurse

HOT WATER BOTTLES—SYRINGES, BED PANS—ICE CUPS—INVALID RINGS—CRUTCHES COTTON GAUZE, ETC.

And every prescription filled by us insures the medication and action desired by your physician

LYNN B. FERGUSON
Prescription Druggist

The Rexall Store

ALWAYS PLENTY OF CASH HERE

to meet any legitimate demand. Our cash reserve is always above what the law requires. Also, we have plenty of cash to loan on approved security at all times. If you sometimes feel the lack of ready cash come and consult our loan department. We shall be glad to aid you if we possibly can consistent with sound banking principles.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
NEWBERG, OREGON

Bring Your Films

TO

Graham's Drug Store

We are doing the work at the Store which insures prompt and satisfactory service

In To-Day—Out To-Morrow

Graham's Drug Store

NEXT DOOR TO P. O.

Nyal and San Tox Remedies.

Eastman Kodaks