Prof. Alexander Hull has a story in the September number of the Sunset magazine, entitled "A Star in Arcadia."

Mrs. L. M. Parker returned home from Salem Monday evening where she cared for the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Pemberton while the parents went on a short vacation.

Miss Lyra E. Miles, who was a student in Columbia University last year, and who will teach in Pacific College the coming year, is down from Salem in company with her sister, Miss Eva, attending the conference.

W. T. Anderson has bought the Newberg Transfer barn of S. P. Timberlake but the latter will not give possession until next spring when Mr. Anderson plans to build a garage on the location. The price paid was $3,500.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. George came out from Portland the first of the week with their son, Howard, who is just home from Coblenz, Germany. He returned to Camp Lewis Tuesday expecting to be mustered out of the service within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards went to Tillamook the latter part of last week for a short visit with their son, C. J., and family. They say that aside from the places where road work is in progress in this county they found the roads to be in pretty fair condition.

The time for the opening of Pacific College and the Newberg public schools has been set for Monday, September 29. This will give the young people a month in which to earn shoe money by helping out the labor shortage at the cannery, the saw mill and in the prune orchards.

The Valley Canning Co. has motor trucks hauling peaches from the big orchard at St. Joe and owing to the road work that is in progress between Newberg and Dayton they are coming around by the West Chehalis road. The cannery is selling the best grade of peaches at three cents a pound.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Wright, August 18, a son, Russell E. S. F. Wallace of the Fair Store is away for a few days on business and pleasure.

The Portland papers give notice of the issuance of a marriage license at Vancouver, Washington, for Lionel Kramien and Miss Esther Hollingsworth, of Newberg, but the young lady named maintains that the papers have not been properly served and acknowledged, up to the present time.

The old G. A. R. drum corps of the state is being thinned out by death and W. H. Brooks, of Newberg, is the only one now living in Yamhill county. He will attend the National Encampment to be held at Columbus, Ohio, and in recognition of his services his expenses while away will be paid.

John Ramage, who has been in France for several months, has recently returned and is visiting friends in Newberg. He was with the supply department of the observation balloon corps, and has been over a considerable portion of Germany locating lost supplies, including 20,000 gas tanks.

Mrs. Mary E. Bankson has been visiting in Portland during the week with her niece, Mrs. G. M. Beaumont, and on her return will take her final departure from Newberg and go to Corvallis to reside, in order to be near her only sister, Mrs. C. H. Christenson, who is now located there. Mrs. Bankson has many very warm friends in Newberg who regret to see her go.

A message came to Newberg the first of the week by way of Okaloosa, Iowa, giving information of the death, at Whittier, California, of Mrs. Edith McGrew, the wife of President H. E. McGrew, of Penn College, former president of Pacific College. The deceased was sorely afflicted while the family was located here and all these years has been anxiously waiting for the call of the death messenger. Beside the husband one daughter, Miss Marion, is left.

There is an opening here for some one who may be looking for a location for starting a milk supply route, since O. A. Cooper, who has been supplying milk to Newberg customers under the name of the Newberg Dairy, has decided to sell out and go elsewhere. He has a sale of his cows and other personal property advertised to take place on Wednesday, September 2, at his place on the Wm. Moore farm two miles north of Newberg. N. E. Nelson will be the auctioneer.

The Adam Bauer family, who have occupied the L. P. Moore property on East Hancock street for the past two years, will, in the next few days, move to the old Demkins residence on the corner of Hancock and Meridian streets which they recently bought. The Moore property, which they will vacate, has been rented for Rev. Clarkson Hinshaw, who is coming from Haviland, Kansas, to take the place of Evangelistic Superintendent for Friends church. The Hinshaw family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Hinshaw and one son who will enter Pacific College, are coming through from Kansas in a Ford and are expected about the first of September.

The Misses Ruth Lee and Norma Harvey are off for Port Angeles, Washington, to begin work in the same schools in which they taught last year.

The Spaulding Logging Co. is furnishing the lumber for the new bridges being built at each end of First street, which requires over 200,000 feet. They are also furnishing lumber and building materials for a number of residences and farm buildings. Among the purchasers are F. M. Stewart, C. H. Nichols, U. S. G. Miller, Isaac D. Hunt, Chas. H. Graves, L. A. Baxter, Ed Asmus and N. W. Bailey.

President Levi T. Pennington arrived home on last Friday evening but he is planning to start for Richmond, Indiana, with the family, Friday afternoon, which will be their headquarters during the coming year. They had to hurry away a little earlier than had been expected, owing to a pressing call which came from Okaloosa, Iowa, urging him to be in attendance at a special educational meeting to be held in that city on Tuesday of next week.

The reception given for the Pennington family on last Saturday evening on the lawn at the home of E. H. Woodward, was well attended and proved to be a very pleasant and enjoyable affair. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hall and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hanson and a number of others were in attendance from Portland. Mrs. W. E. Corser, Rev. Fred E. Carter, S. L. Hanson and E. H. Woodward, spoke appreciatively of the work of Mr. and Mrs. Pennington in connection with the church and college with the hope that they would return in the course of time to resume the same work. Both responded with the assurance that their hearts were here and that it was their desire and intention to return to their Newberg home and work at an early date as possible. In the way of refreshments ice cream and cake were served.

Zef Sears, who came from Madison, South Dakota, to join his family, who came some time ago, arrived here the first of the week. They have the property just east of town which they bought of C. H. Nichols. Mr. Sears drove through in two weeks' time in a Willis-Knight and says that although he struck some awfully rough roads he got through in fine shape. The family dog, a keen-eyed, intelligent looking Scotch Collie, occupied a rear seat and appeared to be enjoying Oregon scenery and climate, on arrival. A gentleman named Haas, who has a brother in business at Sheridan, was another passenger on the trip. Mr. Sears was located in Newberg several years ago in the jewelry business and is now back to remain as a full fledged Oregonian.
