

Locals and Personals

Paul Lewis is out from Orestown on a short visit.

Miss Hazel Paulsen was out for a Sunday visit with the home folks.

The school vacation occasioned by the teachers' institute being held at McMinnville brings no great sorrow to "Willie," we suspect.

C. W. Elston moved to Chehalis, Washington, this week where he will be associated with his father who is engaged in the warehouse business.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson are spending their honeymoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, at Blaine, Tillamook county.

The ball game played here last Friday between the Sheridan and Newberg high school teams resulted in a score of 20 to zero in favor of the home team.

Mrs. Emma Dunsen, of Sterling, Illinois, the mother of Mrs. W. H. Woodworth, has bought the J. Watson Baker home at 710 Sheridan street, the price being $5,000.

Oliver Reese and family, of Greenleaf, Idaho, who are on their way to Pasadena, California, to visit his father, are here for a short visit with the Thomas Perisho family.

F. H. Groshen, whose big West Chehalis apple crop was mentioned last week, left a sample of his Staymens Winesap at the Graphic office a few days ago, that are world beaters for size, color and uniformity.

J. W. Harvey Theobald, a minister of the Friends church from London, England, will be the speaker at the Friends church next Sunday morning. A cordial invitation is extended to any who may be interested to attend.

J. L. Haworth, of Springbrook, lost a valuable four-year-old mare recently that he had raised and there was mourning in the family as the animal was a good one and a pet. On being turned out of the stable the mare was frisky and started for a run and on passing around a building collided with a tree, which crushed her skull.

Frank Cummins has been out with a subscription paper during the week raising money to partly reimburse S. P. Timberlake for the loss he sustained in the fire. He says nearly everybody has wanted to help and the total to date is close up toward $1,200. Mr. Timberlake has always been a ready and generous helper for those in need and he has a host of friends in the community.

A Hallowe'en pie social was held at the Fernwood gym on Friday night of last week, good music for the occasion being furnished by the Junior brass band made up of about twenty lads of the neighborhood who are said to be making excellent progress in training. The pies were auctioned off by Col. Guy V. Abernathy and his success was attested by the amount of the sales which totaled $33.82. The proceeds went for the benefit of the band and will be used in the purchase of music. Games were indulged in following the supper and a jolly good time was reported.

The funeral of Mrs. Hollister, whose death is announced in the Rex items, was conducted at the Hodson & Elliott chapel on last Monday by Rev. Fred E. Carter.

The special meetings at the Free Methodist church with Rev. W. T. Klotzback, evangelist, are progressing nicely. All are invited. The preaching is good. 7:30 p. m.

Miss Ruth Barlow stopped at Newberg to visit her uncles, the Stanton brothers, on the Westfall place, while on her way to her home in San Francisco from Nampa, Idaho.

P. M. Tallman, of Springbrook, is getting a bit nervous over the prospect of doing his own cooking in the absence of Mrs. Tallman, who contemplates a trip to her former home east of the Rockies.

J. Watson Baker who is preparing to move to California soon, will have a public sale of his household goods Wednesday, November 12. The sale bill in full appears on page 4 of this issue of the Graphic.

All ex-soldiers and sailors who do not receive an invitation to the ball to be given by the American Legion in Duncan's hall Tuesday evening, November 11, 1919, are requested to get same of Frank Swart, secretary.

J. L. Hoskins arrived home from his trip east a few days ago in apparent good health and says he had a great time. He came by way of Southern California and visited at Santa Paula with his son-in-law, Prof. F. K. Jones, and family.

Lee Bissett, who went to Marysville, California, in September to take a position as athletic and physical trainer in the high school, was on the program at the eighth annual convention of the California Teachers' Convention held at Sacramento at a recent date, his subject being "Consistent Training by the Individual."

The Newberg Creamery feed store that was started to buck the Vincent feed store on account of the latter handling the Hazelwood creamery business here, has ceased to be, owing to a compromise, Vincent giving up the creamery end. The Hazelwood people have moved their fixtures one door west and the station is now handled by J. R. Townsend.

Committees for the Red Cross drive are all appointed for this section of the county and those having the territory in Newberg will begin their work Friday evening. The cause is such a worthy one and so universally regarded as a necessity, these times, that every one ought to be ready to respond without the need of argument, which they no doubt will be.

J. W. Harvey Theobald, a minister in the Friends church whose home is in London, England, and who has spent much time in travel, will give an illustrated lecture at Wood-Mar Hall on Friday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. While the pictures and the lecture will interest the members of the Friends church most, a cordial invitation is extended to others to attend. There will be no charge for admission.

Miss Katherine Savings returned Saturday from Blaine, Washington, where she has been visiting her parents.

Word comes from Salem of the death of a three-days-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills, which occurred Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Train have taken a five-year lease on the Miss Edith Graves place at Springbrook and have located on it.

Mrs. Frank W. Curtis left Monday morning for Yakima, Washington, where she will spend a couple of weeks visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore, who recently returned from an extended visit at their former home in Wisconsin, say they had a great time.

George L. Kelly is serving as foreman of the grand jury holding forth at McMinnville this week and a number of Newberg citizens have been called up for interviews.

The former colleagues of Miss Mary Minthorn, now Mrs. W. G. Strench, of Ketchikan, Alaska, will be interested in knowing that she is the mother of a recently born son, Roger Minthorn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Metcalf, one time residents of Newberg, who are expecting to go to Southern California soon, possibly to locate, were visiting at the Ray Newby home out northwest of Newberg the first of the week.

If anybody has any doubts about Newberg having reached the metropolitan stage let them be on hand when the 4:08 afternoon train for Portland reaches the First street station and hear the call of the newboys and be convinced.

Uncle Milton Newlin brought in a sample of pawpaws grown in his garden, the first of the week, and they were passed on as having the boyhood, yum-yum flavor. He has two very fine trees grown from seed and this is their first year to bear.

Zimri Mills has been down from Idaho for two weeks looking after his interests at Springbrook but has been so busy he has not shown up much in Newberg. He has retained a fine building site on one of his Springbrook tracts where his friends hope to see him build in the near future.

The Newberg Ministerial Association meets on the second Monday of the month at 10:30 a. m. in the office of the Presbyterian church. All gospel ministers of Newberg and vicinity and regions in the valley nearby, as Dundee, the Chehalis, Springbrook and Rex, are members and cordially invited to attend. Arrangements for the Thanksgiving service and other important matters. Come, brethren.

Chester Zumwalt has returned from Salem where he held responsible positions with the King Fruit Products Co. for several months, and has gone into business with his father, Frank Zumwalt. In addition to the Feed Store they have a thirty-acre prune orchard in Polk county that will come into bearing next season and they figure that they will have all they can do keeping things moving as they should.

On Friday evening of last week the Newberg Civic and Commercial Clubs gave a delightful Hallowe'en party at the club rooms, which were appropriately decorated for the occasion. W. Y. Arthur gave two vocal solos that were greatly enjoyed and Klenle's orchestra, with Miss Mabel Miller as accompanist, furnished excellent music. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and cider were served to the large number in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen, who spent the summer and fall with their son-in-law and family at Princeton, Idaho, have returned and have again taken rooms at the J. C. Colcord home on Wynooki street. A brother of Mrs. Allen, Elwood S. Cook, who sold out in Idaho recently, is here with his wife and son, Lloyd, for a visit. They are on their way to California where they plan to locate. Their first stop will be at Chico.

W. E. Bales and family will remove to Portland this week. Mr. Bales is superintendent of the Western Oregon service stations and as Portland is more centrally located he will be able to be at home oftener than by living in McMinnville. He and his family regret to leave McMinnville where they have formed warm acquaintances, but they are glad that they have been able to secure the same house in Portland in which they formerly lived. Mr. Bales was manager of the Standard Oil station in McMinnville prior to volunteering for Y. M. C. A. service overseas. He was most of the time stationed at LeMans, France.—News-Reporter.

Miss Effie Endicott, who recently recovered from an attack of scarlet fever, has gone to Vancouver to assist the sick in her father's family.

Henry G. Keeney and Miss Violet Fastabend were married in Portland last Sunday, the officiating minister being Rev. Homer L. Cox, pastor of First Friends church, at whose home the ceremony was performed. The cards announcing the event state that they will be at home in Newberg November 15. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fastabend, of Astoria, and was a student in Pacific College two years ago. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Keeney. While in his senior year in Pacific College he left for France where he spent several months engaged in re-construction work. He is taking enough school work at home to graduate with the class in college at the close of this school year, being employed at the saw mill in the interval.

YAMHILLERS IN OREGONIAN "COME AND GO" COLUMN

"For 25 years I've kept my shop open at Newberg," quoth M. McDonald, village smith of the Yamhill county trading center, as he registered at the Imperial yesterday. "I haven't paid much attention to auto repairing, like lots of other blacksmiths. There's been all that I could do, and more, in the regular line—horseshoeing, tire setting, and the like. I worked three men besides myself all the last season. Yes, sir, I'm a blacksmith, and not an automobile tinker. Twenty-five years in the same location, and I can hammer away like blazes yet."

Brides have been left at the altar and swains have been jilted at the church door—but the Hotel Oregon hangs up a prize for a more original disaster than that which befell a newly-wedded couple who registered at that tavern on Saturday evening. Arriving early yesterday morning they continued their honeymoon jaunt, but they left behind them, for the delectation of the chambermaid—their marriage certificate. There it lay, on the bureau top, an engraved document bearing an embossed and labeled "wedding wreath," and testifying to the recent nuptials. Clerk R. E. Doyle is treasuring it for the rightful owners, and awaits communication from them. The groom is an Amity young man and the bride is from McMinnville, and they were wedded on Saturday afternoon.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Forrest Staley accompanied Harry Crater to Eastern Oregon the first of the week.

Robert Walton came home last week from Tacoma. He is now an employee at the A. A. Post apple dryer.

George Hodges came home for an over Sunday visit, returning to Cascade Locks where he is employed.

Mrs. Ella Quinn and children arrived home the first of the week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Marie Christianson.

School closes three days this week while Mrs. Meyer and Mrs. Martin attend the teachers' institute at McMinnville.

There is a special drive being made to finish up the parsonage. Warm dinner being served Thursday and Friday to the workmen.

SCARCELY A DAY PASSES WITHOUT A "HOLD UP," "BANK ROBBERY," "STORE BURGLARIZED" AND SO ON

The Thug, the Porch Climber, the Burglar, Dark Lantern Man, all of this Gentry Hate Light and Shun It.

A light in your home, your store, your bank, any place, burning brightly during the night, puts fear into the heart of the criminal. His business prospers in the dark. The light causes him to move on to darker places.

If all our stores were lighted, two lights burning all night, it would prove the cheapest and safest burglar insurance we could invest in. The dark places in the alleys should be lighted and kept lighted every night in the year. The cost is unimportant if you can prevent the carrying away of valuable merchandise while you are asleep.

Light up the show windows, keep one light burning in the center and one in the back of your store.

Keep your porch light burning, and by this means reduce the criminal danger so prevalent at this time.

CALL FOR THANKSGIVING OFFERINGS FOR BABY HOME

As Thanksgiving Day approaches surely no one in our midst can feel that they have nothing to be thankful for. Stop a moment and count your blessings, if you can; then look about you and see whether you cannot find some one less fortunate than yourself. Would you not like to make a thank offering again this year—to the Albertina Kerr Nursery? The W. C. T. U. have received a lot of empty fruit jars, and we want to return every one of them full of canned fruit and vegetables to the Baby Home at Thanksgiving time.

Newberg did splendidly last year, we must not do less this year. The Lord loveth a cheerful giver, and it is more blessed to give than to receive; so take what you can spare to Mrs. Nettie Potter, 400 North Blaine street, and receive empty jars for your full ones. For further information phone White 201.

"No man acts toward his wife after marriage the same as before," said a man.

"I do," replied Smith. "Exactly the same. I remember just how I used to act when I first fell in love with her. I used to lean over the fence in front of her house and gaze at her shadow on the curtain, afraid to go in. And I act just the same way now when I get home late."
