FORMER STUDENTS GET TOGETHER

Old Time Games Are Played and Reminiscent Stories Told
at Wood-Mar Hall

The halls of Pacific College echoed the laughter of many voices Tuesday evening when a goodly company of alumni, old students, present students and faculty gathered in a united effort to bind closer the feeling of comradeship for each other and inspire loyalty to the college.

Many long forgotten college pranks were rehearsed and old times lived over again, while gray hairs vied with youth in winning a game of dominoes, crockinole or jack straws.

Dr. Hester, who was master of ceremonies, spoke of the desire of himself and many others for a closer bond of friendship and unity among alumni and old students. The idea met with such hearty response that steps were taken at once to form an organization. Mrs. W. L. Robertson was chosen chairman of the executive committee and she with two each from the alumni, old students, the present student body, commercial department and music department, will have charge of the arrangements for the next meeting.

Miss Mildred Ferguson delighted the company with an excellent piano solo played in her usual capable manner.

Mrs. Rebecca W. H. Smith was called on for reminiscences and soon proved that the chairman had made no mistake in choosing her for that part. Her first story was one about Herbert Hoover, who was registered as "Bertie" in the early academy days.

Palmer Hayes closed the program with a well rendered vocal solo.

Gifts, delightful to the inner man, were dispensed in the domestic science room and all departed, looking forward to the call for the next such gathering when a much larger company will be expected.

DUNCAN-EVANS WEDDING

A simple but charming wedding was solemnized Thursday, December 25, at noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Duncan, in McMinnville, Oregon, when their daughter, Miss Wilma E. Duncan, was married to Charles Arlie Evans, of Newberg.

The wedding march was played by Miss Theo Duncan, the younger sister, and the ceremony was read by D. Lord Morgan, pastor of the Christian church.

The bride wore white silk with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations, white lilies and maiden hair fern.

After the ceremony a delicious three course dinner was served to the guests.

The young couple will be at home to their friends at 1003 North street, Newberg.

Both the bride and groom are well known in Newberg where they have many friends, the bride having been a successful teacher in the schools for the past few years. The groom grew up here and for two years was stationed in France as a member of the 18th Engineers Corps.

THREE HUNDRED DOLLAR BURGLARY PULLED OFF

Either on last Saturday night or Sunday night burglars gained entrance to the Larkin-Prince hardware store by a rear window and helped themselves to the stock to the amount of some $300 worth, including a number of shotguns, a rifle, 150 to 200 pocket knives, a number of manicure sets and other articles. A considerable amount of silverware that was of easy access was not molested.

The firm offers a reward of $50 for the capture and conviction of the guilty parties.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Wilma Elizabeth Duncan, Newberg, to Charles Arlie Evans, Newberg.

Ruth Louise Meyer, Newberg, to Wallace Reid Cate, Portland.

Thelma Irene Toney Duke, McMinnville, to Chas. A. Brown, Corvallis.

NOTED MUSICIANS COMING JANUARY 16

Will Appear at Wood-Mar Hall
Under Direction of Monday
Musical Club

Much interest and enthusiasm is being manifested in the announcement of the Gray-Lhevinne concert to be given at Wood-Mar Hall January 16. This same company will appear at the public auditorium in Portland at a somewhat earlier date.

The Oregonian announces Estelle Gray as "the violinist of inspiration" and comments as follows:

Throughout the recent war period in this country these artists appeared successfully in music entertainments at naval camps and similar training stations.

The Gray-Lhevinnes, who live near San Francisco, California, have won distinguished success in their professional concerts from Atlantic to Pacific.

Chicago Musical Leader says: "Wept and laughed as the moods were interpreted by this winsome pair." Chicago Music News: "With the perfection of finish, yet the unspoiled, fresh charm of youth." Denver, Colorado, Post: "M. Lhevinne is one of the few pianists who makes everyone love the best. All are held spellbound by the superb art, personality and intimacy of these recitals." Chicago Herald: "His brilliant, romantic playing and her marvelous powers aroused the vast audience to storms of enthusiasm. Estelle Gray is a violinist that can find a smile in the classics."

PLEA FOR DONATIONS FOR WOMAN'S BUILDING FOR U. OF O.

The University of Oregon has a much larger enrollment this year than ever before, and because of this, the class room facilities of the campus are greatly overcrowded.

The new Woman's Building that is now under construction will relieve the situation a great deal, but the building is founded on faith in the people of Oregon. It is not paid for yet. The state appropriated $100,000, and the people of Oregon were asked to raise $100,000 in addition. All but $30,000 of this has been raised, and the students of the University are putting on a campaign to raise this amount during the Christmas vacation.

Oregon needs this new building, and needs it badly. Class rooms have been improvised in all sorts of places. The Woman's Building is not to be a dormitory, but is to house the women's class rooms and gymnasium.

It has been begun, and the question now is: Shall the needed $30,000 be raised, or will a smaller, inadequate building be built that will have to be discarded in a few years. Surely Oregon will stand behind her University, Gladys Paulsen or Harold Lee, Newberg students at the U. of O., will receive any contributions to this fund that any Newberg person may wish to make, and will forward them to the Woman's Building fund.

CITY SUED FOR $5,300 BY MRS. CATHERINE PLATT

A former resident of Newberg, Mrs. Catherine Platt, has entered suit against the city for damages amounting to $5,300 for injuries alleged to have been sustained when she tripped and fell on a sidewalk on Willamette street last July.

L. F. Moore, W. W. Silver, W. E. Crozer, D. D. Coulson and Q. M. Kelling, members of the city council are also named as defendants in the suit.

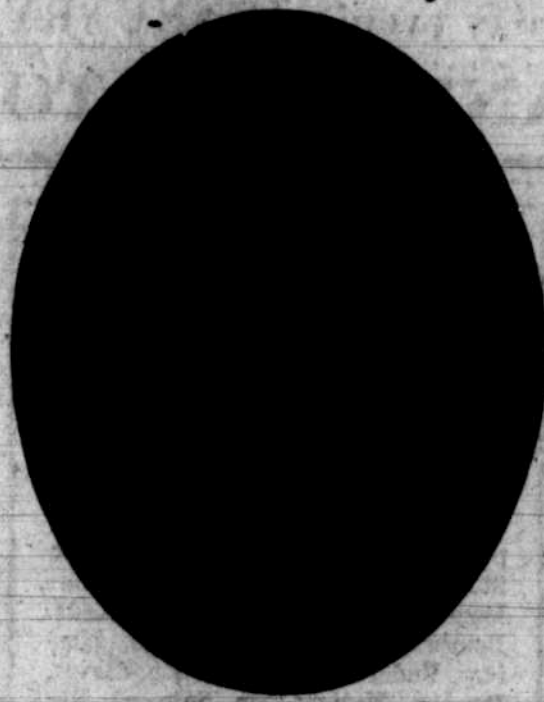

Mrs. Platt will be remembered as the mother-in-law of W. C. Kruger, former Newberg hardware man.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors, including Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, and to the I. O. O. F., for kindnesses shown on account of the sickness and death of our husband and father, George B. Wallover.

Mrs. Minnie Wallover and Family.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

REV. DANIEL HODGIN

On next Sunday morning special evangelistic services will begin at Friends church, under the leadership of Rev. Daniel Hodgkin, a friend of the pastor.

All members of the church are urged to be present at this first service and others who are not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to attend.

A general invitation is also extended to the public to attend as the meetings progress.

Rev. Hodgkin is a southerner, a Guilford College man and a fine speaker.

BURNELL E. FORD ROYAL LYCEUM ENTERTAINER

The third number in the lyceum course given at Wood-Mar Hall on Friday night of last week, was well attended, and Mr. Ford, inventor and entertainer, held the closest attention of the audience for an hour and a half.

His lecture was an educational feast, as well as an entertainment of the highest order, and it was of intense interest, both to old and young alike.

Apparently Mr. Ford was equally as well delighted as was his audience, for he remarked at the close that in all his electrical demonstrations everything worked so well that he got through in less time than was usually required, and also that the audience was so responsive he was able to give his talk with the greatest ease and satisfaction.

Three other numbers are yet to be given and there is promise that they will be as satisfactory and enjoyable as those that have so far been given during the season.

LARGE YAMHILL COUNTY APPLE ORCHARD SOLD

C. C. Murton, manager of the Miller Mercantile Co., has recently disposed of his apple orchard located about three miles northwest of McMinnville.

Nine years ago Mr. Murton purchased 100 acres of land and set the entire tract to apples and has developed it into one of the finest apple orchards in the county. Three varieties were originally set, Rome Beauties, Spitzenbergs and Yellow Newtowns. It was soon discovered that Yellow Newtowns do not do so well in this county so they were all grafted to Rome Beauties.

The new owners intend to erect large packing houses to care for the crops as the orchard is now in full bearing.

ADELPHIAN SOCIETY MEETS

Last Friday afternoon the Adelpian Society of the Baptist church held an enthusiastic business meeting at the home of Mrs. Nettie Potter. Arrangements were made for our coming chicken pie supper and other important business was transacted.

We dedicated the beautiful water set, which Mrs. Potter had received from friends, by drinking the fine fruit juice contained in the pitcher, and eating the accompanying sandwiches and cake.

Our next meeting will be in the vestry of the church, which will be warm. The members are expected to be present. Others are cordially invited. Time, 2:30, Friday, January 10, 1920.

Mrs. Amy Nye, President, Mrs. Mary E. C. Scott, Secretary.

Mrs. G. W. Ferree, of Salem, is visiting the S. E. Winchester family.

UGLIEST WOMAN FOUND IN LONDON

A London theater manager advertised for the ugliest woman and found her, and her rights to the title were confirmed by a jury of 30 case-hardened theatrical men. The manager expects to extort a great deal of money from the curious public by exhibiting the most beautiful woman on the stage with her opposite. "I am proud of my title," said the candidate for ugliness, "because my features are natural, which is more than some beauties can say for their beauty. I shall not have to make up for the part."

HARVARD WINS IN THE BIG MEET AT PASADENA

When the report came in that the first half of the great foot ball game between Harvard and the University of Oregon at Pasadena today the score was 7 to 6 in favor of the former, there was hope throughout the state that Oregon would pull through the second half and nose out as the winners, but not so, for the report comes that neither team scored in the last half, leaving Harvard the winners. Apparently it was a very close game with the Oregon boys giving a good account of themselves.

HOLIDAY JOY TURNED TO GRIEF

James C. Bunch, Former Newberg
Man, Loses Life at Lebanon

The old, old story of the gun that was not loaded was repeated at Lebanon last week, resulting in the death of J. C. Bunch, who formerly lived on a farm out north of Newberg. The story as told in the Telegram follows:

An accidental discharge of a gun brought death and sadness to a Linn county home Thursday, changing Christmas from a day of happiness to a day of mourning. The victim was James C. Bunch, who came to this section from Yamhill county a few months ago and bought a small place six miles southeast of Lebanon and one mile east of Sodaville.

Two friends, E. V. Potter, of Newberg, and W. T. Harness, had come to the Bunch home to spend the day. At about 11 o'clock the three men decided to take a walk out to the woods nearby and Mr. Bunch said he would clean his 22 rifle and take it along. The gun was loaded, but he thought otherwise, and took it outside and was proceeding to clean it, when the gun went off and the bullet entered his forehead above his right eye and penetrated the brain, causing instant death.

Mr. Bunch was a little past 52 years of age and leaves a wife and child about six years of age.

The Kind of Music that Haunts You
When you hear a bit of music that sings through you day after day, and you don't forget, there is usually a very good reason—it has heart appeal.

The Gray-Lhevinnes, who have won the hearts of America from coast to coast, from army camps to metropolitan cities, have that something that makes you see the soul of music.

The music they write is the kind you hum—the poems to the songs are the kind you love because it is real.

Everything these young artists do is human, original and genuine. It is a treat to hear one of the Gray-Lhevinne concerts, because they give you a new viewpoint and make you love the best of music.

They have a priceless violin, made in 1715 in Cremona and Lhevinne is as famous as a master pianist and composer as Estelle Gray is as the violinist of inspiration. But they are so simple, you just love them for themselves.

FRANK CRITES

The George Crites family was made to rejoice Wednesday by the arrival home of their son, Frank, who has been in the Navy for the past four years. He recently arrived at Fort McDowell, California, direct from Siberia, where he was stationed for several months. He expects to be mustered out of the service at an early day.

CHEVROLET CENTER

W. R. Everest, wife and son, Eidon, are driving a nifty new Chevrolet.

Mrs. George Young has been suffering the past week with an attack of pneumonia.

The tree at the school house Christmas eve was a decided success, Howard Walton making a typical jolly Santa and all report a very jolly time.

Last Sunday while H. Walton and family were driving to church one wheel of the family carriage gave way. Moral—Buy a new Ford or Chevrolet.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer entertained to a Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hall and daughter, Florence, Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hendrickson, the Misses Rosa, Hilma and Goldie Hendrickson, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson, of Kalama, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cate, of Newberg.

Miss Ruth Meyer, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer, was united in marriage to Wallace Cate, December 23, at the Methodist parsonage by the minister. They are making their home in apartments in Portland. The very best wishes go with the newlyweds. May they have a long, happy and prosperous journey through life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Small and family entertained the following guests to dinner last Sunday: The Messdames Marie Tangen, Mary Johnson, Etta Hall, the Misses Elsie Tangen and Marguerite Johnson, the Messrs. Frank Remillard, Aubrey Tangen, Carlos and Edward Johnson. Mrs. Small served one of her sumptuous dinners consisting of roast veal with vegetables, whipped cream, cake, lemon pie, fruit salad, etc.

For many purposes a waterproof apron is desirable. Leather is expensive and so scarce now that its use should be confined to purposes for which substitutes are unsuitable. A material classed as a leather substitute is well adapted to this use. It has a cotton fabric base and is pyroxylin surface coated. It is more durable than ordinary rubberized goods, therefore well worth its somewhat higher first cost. On the other hand, it is cheaper than leather.
