INTERESTING QUESTIONS WITH ANSWERS

The Following Is Furnished by Commissioner Daniel C. Roper

Question—Who is the Commissioner of Prohibition appointed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Mr. Roper?

Answer—John F. Kramer.

Q.—What is liquor, or intoxicating liquor, under the terms of the Act?

A.—Alcohol, brandy, whiskey, rum, gin, beer, ale, porter and wine, and in addition thereto, any spirituous, vinous, malt, or fermented liquor, liquids and compounds, whether medicated, proprietary, patented or not, and by whatever name called, which contain one-half of one per centum or more of alcohol by volume, and which are for use for beverage purposes.

Q.—Does the Act permit any sign or bill-board advertising liquor to remain upon any one's premises?

A.—No; any one allowing any such sign or bill-board to remain upon his premises is subject to a heavy penalty.

Q.—By whom shall intoxicating liquors carried in violation of law in wagon, buggy, automobile, water or air craft, or other vehicle, be seized?

A.—By the Commissioner, his assistants, inspectors, or any officer of the law.

Q.—Does this include state officers, such as sheriff or constable?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Is it permissible to manufacture non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices for exclusive use at home?

A.—Yes. Such manufacture may be made without permit, and persons so manufacturing are not subject to penalties.

Q.—Upon whom is the burden of proof to show that liquor is lawfully acquired, possessed and used?

A.—Upon the possessor.

Q.—Who are required to investigate and report violations of the Act?

A.—The Commissioner, his assistants, agents and inspectors.

Q.—To whom shall such officers report violations for prosecution?

A.—To the United States Attorney for the district in which the offense was committed.

Q.—Who is required to prosecute violators of the law?

A.—The United States District Attorney.

Q.—Who are authorized to swear out warrants for the apprehension of violators?

A.—The Commissioner, his assistants, agents and inspectors.

Q.—By whom shall such warrants be issued?

A.—By any United States Commissioner or other officers, or Courts authorized to issue the same.

Q.—How shall the provisions of this Act be construed?

A.—Liberal, to the end that intoxicating liquor as a beverage may be prevented.

Q.—What articles and preparations, after having been manufactured and prepared for market, are not subject to the provisions of this Act provided they are not used or sold unlawfully?

A.—(a) Denatured alcohol and denatured rum.

(b) Medicinal preparations manufactured in accordance with the United States Pharmacopoeia, National Formulary, or the American Institute of Homeopathy formulae, and which are unfit for beverage purposes.

(c) Potentiated, patent and proprietary medicines that are unfit for use for beverage purposes.

(d) Tincture, medicinal and antiseptic preparations and solutions that are unfit for beverage purposes.

(e) Flavoring extracts and sirups that are unfit for use as a beverage or for intoxicating purposes.

(f) Vinegar and preserved sweet cider.

Q.—Does the misuse of wine for sacramental purposes subject persons to the penalties announced in the Act?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Who is authorized to issue prescriptions for liquor?

A.—No one excepting physicians holding permits issued by the Commissioner to prescribe liquor.

Q.—What conditions shall exist before physicians can issue prescriptions for liquor?

A.—After careful examination of the person for whose use the prescription is sought, or if such examination is found impracticable, then upon the best information obtainable, the physician must in good faith believe that the use of such liquor as medicine by the patient is necessary and will afford relief to him from some known ailment.

Q.—What limitation is placed on the quantity that may be prescribed?

A.—Not more than a pint of spirituous liquor to be taken internally, may be prescribed for the same person within any period of ten days.

Q.—What is required under the Act of a physician who issues prescriptions for liquor?

A.—He shall keep a record, alphabetically arranged in a book prescribed by the Commissioner.

Q.—What shall the record show?

A.—(a) Date of issue.
(b) Amount prescribed.
(c) To whom issued.
(d) Purpose or ailment for which it is to be used.
(e) Directions for use.
(f) Amount and frequency of dose.

Q.—What are the duties under the act of a carrier of liquor?

A.—The carrier shall make a record at place of shipment of the receipt of the liquor; he shall deliver liquor only to persons who present to him a verified copy of permit to purchase, which shall be made a part of the carrier's permanent record at the office from which delivery is made.

Q.—What is required of the agent of the common carrier?

A.—He is authorized to administer the oath to the consignee in verification of the copy of the permit presented, and if not known to the agent, he must be identified before delivery of liquor is made to him. The name and address of the person identifying the consignee shall be made part of the record.

Q.—Is it unlawful to advertise liquor, or the manufacture, sale, keeping for sale or furnishing the same, or where, how, from whom or at what price the same may be obtained?

A.—Yes, but manufacturers and wholesale druggists who hold permits to sell liquor may furnish price lists, with description of liquor for sale to persons permitted to purchase liquor. Such persons may also advertise alcohol in business publications or trade journals circulating generally among manufacturers of lawful alcoholic perfumes, toilet preparations, flavoring extracts, medicinal preparations, and like articles.

MRS. COOPER GIVES DINNER FOR SISTERS OF P. E. O.

P. E. O. sisters of Chapter L were entertained at the hospitable home of Mrs. Minnie Cooper, president of the chapter, on Monday afternoon.

After a short business session the sisters spent a very pleasant hour in social conversation and in looking over a pretty basket of dainty handkerchiefs the president had received at Christmas time. (One from every member of Chapter L.) In the basket was a card of thanks to the sisters and since reading the card the sisters are wondering if it was "an announcement" as on the card, beautifully written, was "One 'shower' mayhap bring another. Watch your president ('tis Leap Year!') She mayhap bring you a brother." No need to say the sisters will welcome a "brother" in true sisterly spirit.

Other guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Hayward, of Dundee, and Baby Jean Spaulding who won the love of all with her sweet smiles and playful ways.

The dinner served at six is one long to be remembered. There will be joy in the recollection of this day for every member present.

BASKET DINNER

The New Year's Day program at the Dundee Methodist church was enjoyed by all.

The sermon by the pastor was appropriate for the New Year. This was followed by a basket dinner for the Sunday school children and the entire congregation. Then followed the meeting of the Sunday school board and the election of officers for the year.

The outlook is good for the year.

REVIVAL MEETINGS AT FRIENDS CHURCH

On last Sunday the revival began at the Friends church with good interest and attendance at both services. The evangelist, Daniel G. Hodgins, was born and reared in the Southland. You will like his messages. He is an interesting speaker. His hearers are given frequent glimpses of colored folks of the old plantation days.

He preaches the old time religion with old time fire. The most piercing truths are given forth out of the love and sweetness of a large sympathy. He is an evangelist of wide experience. Also he is a man who understands a pastor's problems, having served several years in that capacity in the state of Ohio.

We are sure the people of Newberg will not want to miss hearing this man from time to time. Come and bring your friends.

The hour is 7:30 each evening except Saturday.

Fred E. Carter, Pastor.

AT THE FREE METHODIST CHURCH

There will be a district quarterly meeting at the Free Methodist church commencing this (Thursday) evening and continuing over Sunday.

There will be a Sunday school convention for this district held Friday and conducted by Rev. E. W. Hight, a former pastor here.

The district quarterly conference for the Portland district will convene on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

On Sunday the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will hold a meeting at which there will be a program with a missionary sermon by W. N. Coffee. The meeting will close with the Sunday evening service. The District Elder, J. A. Hopper, will have charge of the district meeting and will preach on Sunday morning at least.

A good attendance is expected from the circuits on the district and entertainment will be provided for all visitors.

W. N. Coffee, Pastor.

MINISTERS TO MEET

The Newberg Ministerial Association will meet at the office of the Presbyterian church next Monday, January 12, at 10:30 a. m. It is desired that every member who can shall be present.

May we not have a general rally. George H. Lee, President. W. N. Coffee, Secretary.

THE OREGON VOTER'S JOB

The Oregon Voter has opened up a campaign to make it less easy to amend the constitution, says the Corvallis Gazette. The Voter has unquestionably espoused a righteous cause and we bow respectfully with uncovered head before the undaunted ambition that would undertake such an enterprise, laudable as it may be. Opposed to any sane plan for amending the constitution will appear all that horde of radicals that were so loud and so numerous just before the war—the crowd that believes that whatever is wrong and that any change is progress. The two Journals, Salem and Portland, may be expected to line up like embattled harpies in order to fight the "reactionary" forces that would make it more difficult to change the fundamental law of the land to "meet changing conditions" forgetful that fundamentals never change throughout all eternity. And they have the foamy side of the argument which appeals to the foam vote which is usually in the majority. So, we wish the Voter success. It's a case of St. George against the dragon and we trust it may repeat the saint's ancient achievement.

MITCHELL-PUTMAN WEDDING

On New Year's day, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Putman, at Springbrook, the parents of the bride, occurred the wedding of Miss Maud Putman and Charles Reuben Mitchell, of Chehalis, Washington. Just forty-two years before in the same room of this house, the marriage of the father and mother of the bride was solemnized by Rev. Bruce Wolverton, who was also present to solemnize the nuptials of this, their eldest daughter.

Guests were in attendance from Sheridan, Sherwood, Newberg, Portland and Chehalis, Washington, to witness the ceremony and to bid the young couple joy and prosperity in their future career as husband and wife.

They will make their home in Chehalis, Washington, where the groom is engaged in banking.

BELL-GAUSE WEDDING

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emma A. Newby, of 2223 D street, Vancouver, Washington, on January 4, the marriage of Miss Myrtle Edna Gause, of Vancouver, Washington, and Dana Cahoon Bell, of Nampa, Idaho, was solemnized. The Rev. A. H. Thompson of the First Methodist Episcopal church read the service, using the impressive ring ceremony. The bride wore a becoming simple gown of white satin and Georgette crepe with bead trimming. The members of the families were the only guests.

After a brief wedding trip they will make their home at Nampa, Idaho.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Salads should be served the day they are prepared. Always use a wooden spoon or fork to stir salad. To tell good eggs put them in water. If the large ends turn up they are not fresh.

Cold coffee is excellent for ferns of all kinds. Use about once a month.

Celery seed is an excellent substitute to flavor soup. In cooking tough meat or an old fowl add a pinch of soda to the water to make tender.

To pack a bottle of liquid for traveling roll it in corrugated paper that comes around "breakables" from the store.

In the kitchen, hanging up, keep a pair of scissors to cut up raisins, citron, suet, etc. They are easier to clean than the chopper and very handy for lots of things.

FOR THE CHILDREN

A picture has been accepted by the school board from Mrs. Hurlston to be framed and hung in the room for the little ones. When ready it will be placed in the east window at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. store for a few days.

At the W. C. T. U. meeting to be held at the library Saturday afternoon, January 17, Mrs. L. P. Round will speak on "The Year's Gains."

MUSICAL TREAT FOR NEWBERG

Friday Night, January 16, the Date —Wood-Mar Hall the Place

The Gray-Lhevinne concerts are enjoyed by everybody, old and young, by the cultivated musician and the plain business man.

The originality and art of the Gray-Lhevinne are such that they convey a message of wonder and delight to those of meager musical attainments, as well as to those who have had the advantages of music study.

The personality of these two artists is such as to result in recitals radiating youth, romance and enthusiasm, as well as the highest artistry. Without descending to the trivial, they make the works of the master composers intimate and appealing. It is a "story-music" concert, something distinctly new and unique in the music line.

They have played before the most critical audiences in Paris, London, Berlin and the great musical centers of the United States. During the war much of their concert work was in the training camps in this country and in Canada. And in every place the effect is the same. They always rouse their audiences to storms of enthusiasm.

Estelle Gray, "violinist of inspiration," and Mischa Lhevinne, master pianist composer, will appear at Wood-Mar Hall on Friday evening, January 16.

It is certainly a great advantage to Newberg to be able to secure these well known artists and it is sincerely to be hoped that we may demonstrate at this time that we are a town that can appreciate and support concerts of the best class.

The admission price for reserved seats will be 75 cents. Tickets will be in the hands of the various members of the Monday Musical Club and will also be on sale at Kienle's Music Store, beginning Friday January 9.

BWARE OF PEDESTRIANS

Some one in Dr. Wiley's office in the Oregonian building, evidently a stenographer, forwarded to Assistant Secretary of State Sam A. Koser, the following clever satire on rules of the road:

1. Pedestrians crossing streets at night shall wear a white light in front and a red light in the rear.

2. Before turning to the right or left they shall give three short blasts on a horn at least three inches in diameter.

3. When an inexperienced automobile driver is made nervous by a pedestrian, he shall indicate the same, and the pedestrian shall hide behind a tree until the automobile has passed.

4. Pedestrians shall not carry in their pockets any sharp instrument which may cut automobile tires.

5. In dodging automobiles, pedestrians shall not run more than seven miles an hour.

6. Pedestrians must register at the beginning of each year and pay a license fee of $5.00 for the privilege of living. There shall be no rebate if they do not live the entire year.

7. Each pedestrian before receiving his license to walk upon the streets must demonstrate before an examining board his skill in dodging, leaping, crawling and extricating himself from machinery.

8. Pedestrians will be held responsible for all damages done to automobiles or their occupants by collision.

CARD OF THANKS

Newberg, Oregon, January 5, 1920.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends for kindness and sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our dear daughter, Maude. Also many thanks for the beautiful flowers from Mrs. E. L. Evans, Mrs. Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Orth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lewis and Family.

The Chehalis Center W. C. T. U. ladies will hold their meeting next week at the home of Mrs. K. L. Tangen at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.
