

Locals and Personals

Mrs. J. Hill, of Portland, attended the funeral of D. P. Strait Wednesday.

A new Kimball piano has been placed in the Christian church recently.

Mrs. Cochran, of Portland, spent the week end with Mrs. Nina Armstrong.

The Dairyman's League will hold a meeting at the rooms of the Commercial Club Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor are contemplating making a visit of three months with relatives in Southern California.

Jake Taylor, who is making his home with Walter Ricks in Portland, was out on business the first of the week.

Mrs. G. W. Ferree and daughter, Miss Eva, of Salem, came in Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ferree's brother, D. P. Strait.

Miss Sadie Hubbard, a trained nurse, has returned to her work in Portland after a vacation spent with her parents on West Third street.

C. H. Christenson is here from Corvallis in attendance at the bedside of his aged mother, who is not expected to survive for any length of time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sutton are here from Auburn, Washington, visiting his brother, Asa F. Sutton, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Sutton, on North Meridian street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummins went to Oregon City last Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Charles Catta. A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Catta, were located in Newberg and had charge of the hotel on North Main street.

On account of the prevalence of smallpox at Portland and the further fact that it is spreading, the State Board of Health has directed that children in the public schools be vaccinated. Dr. T. W. Hester, the city health officer, received the information the first of the week and in conjunction with the school board at once began to take steps for complying with the order.

Miss Mabel Reed is visiting with friends in Vancouver, Washington.

Roy Mills was down from Salem Tuesday looking after the interests of the Spaulding Logging Co.

Miss Louise Hodgkin, who has been in attendance at the State Normal at Monmouth during the year, has returned home on account of nervousness from over-work but will graduate with the class in February.

Clyde Stanton, who lives with his brother, J. H. Stanton, out on the Westfall farm, which he bought, left for Redding, California, Tuesday evening in response to a telegram giving information of the sudden death of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burgess, former residents of Newberg, who now live at Pullman, Washington, stopped over in Newberg Tuesday when on their return from Dallas where they went to attend the funeral of a brother of Mrs. Burgess.

S. M. Calkins & Sons have had a full force of men at work for several days changing the interior of the Commercial barn. The horse stalls are being removed in order to cut out the horse business and make room for automobiles and trucks.

E. E. Mattoon, a young man who left here Tuesday for Montana, was relieved of his cash, consisting of $60, while in attendance at a dance in Portland that night, so the story goes, and as a consequence he returned to Newberg and went to work again.

Wiley McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. McDonald, was down from Moro, Sherman county, the first of the week for a short visit. He has been farming up there and is so enthusiastic over future prospects that he is arranging to branch out on a larger scale.

The aroma that comes from the new candy shop on First street where Mr. Church, who came here from Silverton, is manufacturing sweets, is very inviting and the window display he is making of his products indicates that he knows the candy business.

F. E. Wanless and family have moved in from Springbrook and are located in the property on South River street which he recently bought of Mrs. Bartlett.

Maynard Leavitt has returned to Newberg and is opening up a jewelry store on North Main street in the property which his father, J. C. Leavitt, formerly occupied.

Enos Ellis is getting lumber on the ground for fitting up the building he recently bought on the corner of First and Main streets for his jitney and auto repair business.

Wm. Kincaid and J. H. Rees, who were in from Springbrook Tuesday, said they had failed to discover any evidence of serious injury to prune trees from the freeze in their section.

Miss Ruth Nottage spent the week end at her home in Newberg. Miss Nottage is a member of the February graduating class at the Oregon Normal and leaves next week for Marshfield where she has been engaged to teach in the city schools.

While on his way to San Francisco, California, last week, Percival J. Sharp stopped off to visit his brother, Millard Sharp, who is finishing this school semester here before changing to Estacada, where his folks recently moved onto a farm.

Rev. Edgar H. Stranahan, of Penn College, Iowa, who came last Sunday to speak at Friends church as advance man for the big "Forward Movement," was a dinner guest of the Ed Binford family, he and Mr. Binford having been college mates at Earlham.

Pupils of the college music department will appear in recital in Wood-Mar Hall on Friday evening at eight o'clock. This is a free recital, and all who are interested in music are cordially invited to attend. There will be vocal, violin and piano numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Hanning have sold their grocery to A. M. Kendrick who comes from LaFayette. Mr. Hanning has not been in good health for several months and was forced to quit business as he has been unable to be at the store for any length of time of late.

In response to a message, John Bard came from his home at Estacada Wednesday to assist J. C. Peterson in his trouble but saw that little could be done after looking into the matter. It developed that Peterson was owing him $1,100. Mr. Bard is a long-time friend of Mrs. Peterson and out of sympathy took her and the one child with him on his return and said he would see that she was cared for.

On last Friday morning word was brought into town that a semi-demented woman was at the roadside out beyond Rex and accordingly Attorney C. R. Chapin and Dan Balch went out and brought the woman in. It turned out that she had wandered away from her home in Portland, coming out on the highway in the evening and spending the night, which was very raw, by a stump that was burning. At times her mental faculties appeared to be normal, while at others her mind wandered. Marshal Ferguson phoned to a Portland physician whose name the woman gave and he communicated with the husband who came out and got her.

Tuesday evening, January 27, Vesta Rebekah lodge met in regular session, beautifully exemplifying the work and conferring the degree upon one new member. Three applications were received for admission by transfer and one by initiation. Interesting reports were given by delegates to the district convention held at McCoy Saturday, January 24. The brothers who accepted the proposal of service at the last meeting invited the sisters to the dining room where a bounteous "bean-quet" awaited being served in six generous courses. No question as to the good time! Our next meeting occurs Tuesday, February 10. We urge all members to be present.

The Oregon Growers' Co-operative Association meeting held at Springbrook on last Friday afternoon was attended by about 125 fruit and berry growers. C. I. Lewis, the organization manager, explained the purpose of the association and answered many inquiries that were put up to him. In speaking of the effects of the freeze on fruit trees he urged growers to wait and be sure trees were dead before pulling them out. He cited a number of instances where orchards that were supposed to have been killed by cold spells came out all right. A large additional acreage was signed up and with 200 acres more sufficient tonnage will be furnished to justify the formation of a marketing unit and the erection of a packing and shipping plant in this district. O. B. Guthrie will call on growers who may wish to join the association. His address will be general delivery, Newberg, up to about February 5.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Vinson on January 22, a daughter.

Mrs. E. I. Moore, of Halfway, is visiting at the home of her niece, Mrs. J. W. Cherry, 815, River street.

By a mixup of figures a mistake was made last week in McCoy Bros. advertisement. The correct price of the Dodge car is $1,245.

Miss Billie Wood, daughter of Dr. J. T. Wood, of McMinnville, was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chase last Saturday evening.

On account of the high cost the high school students are not getting out an expensive annual this year, but instead will issue an eight page paper which they will call "Our Yesterdays."

The Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the grade building next Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Hayhurst will give a talk. There will be refreshments and a full attendance of mothers is desired.

D. P. Strait died at his home out northwest of Newberg on last Monday from an attack of pneumonia. Funeral services were conducted at the Hodson & Elliott chapel Wednesday afternoon by Rev. A. C. Martin, pastor of the Chehalis Center church. The deceased came to Oregon from Indiana several years ago. He was a highly respected citizen who had the confidence of those who knew him. He left one daughter, Mrs. Belva Hill, and two sons, Ferris L. and Sylvan D. Strait, and three sisters, Mrs. G. W. Ferree, of Salem, Mrs. S. E. Winchester and Miss Leone Strait, of Newberg.

PLEASING RECITAL MONDAY EVENING

Mrs. Hull presented a number of the younger pupils of the College Music Department in a very successful recital in Wood-Mar Hall on Monday evening. They were assisted by three pupils of the vocal department, Miss Eva Miles, Richard Haworth and Clio Mardock.

The recital was well attended, and the splendid work done by the little folks, as well as the singers, was roundly applauded. The piano pupils taking part were Katherine Duer, Helen and Thelma Rankin, Thelma and Clea Stretch, Ila Travers, Helen Evans, Florence Elliott, Louise Klenle, Octavia Ware and Virginia and Robin Moore. Wilma Evans gave two selections for the violin.

GOWER-BAKER

A quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baker, Saturday, January 17, 1920, at 1:30 p. m. when their daughter, Alma, was married to Gerald Gower, of Newberg, Oregon. The Rev. A. H. Clark performed the ceremony.

Alma, the bride, was gowned in a French taupe traveling suit of Dovetwyne. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baker and one of Turner's popular young people—as she is a graduate of Turner public school, Salem high school and the Oregon State Normal. For the past two years she has been a successful teacher in the Warrenton public school.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gower, of Newberg. He is a member of the American Legion, having served in France twenty months.

The young couple were the recipients of many useful and lovely presents.

Their many friends in Turner and vicinity wish for them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

They will be at home to their friends after February 1, at No. 2, Fifty-third street, Astoria, Oregon. —Turner Tribune.
