CONVENTION DELEGATES REPORT

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday chapel periods were given over to the reports of the delegates on the Student Volunteer Convention at Des Moines.

Gladys Scott, on Monday morning, started the ball rolling by giving a background for the later reports. She told of the jolly good times the P. C. and 80 other western delegates enjoyed on the trip to and from the convention, and of the pleasant reception accorded to all delegates.

On Tuesday morning, after the quartet sang the Convention Hymn, Miss Sutton gave a very comprehensive report on some of the most inspiring messages. The opening address, given by John R. Mott, embodied the following four objectives of the Convention: To catch a vision of a new world; to receive a new challenge, to realize the wondrous unity and spiritual solidarity; to receive fresh accession of spiritual power. Robert E. Speer spoke on the "Imminence of God," the same topic being the theme of a later message by S. T. Taylor. Dean Brown, of Yale, and Bishop O'Connell, of Denver, both spoke on "Christianizing our National and International Relations." But the real climax of the Convention was in the message of Sherwood Eddy who spoke on "America for World Selfishness or World Service." He gave four touchstones by which every Christian can measure himself: Are you pure? Matt. 5:2-28; are you honest? Luke 16:18; are you surrendered? Luke 14:33; are you going out to lead that sacrificial life? John 15:12.

A real breath from the Convention was wafted to us on Wednesday morning by Paul Elliott, when he read the "Morning Watch." This was printed on small cards handed to each individual to guide their morning worship. It was composed of various short scripture verses on the need of workers in various fields, and of a prayer consecrating each individual to the work of the Lord. After this, the quartet sang another Convention song. Paul gave a detailed description of the exhibit in the Auditorium. As one enters the main door, he is confronted by this gripping poster: "We are measured by the height of our ideals, and the depths of our convictions." There were booths throughout the building, each represented some heathen country, and showing the vital need of workers there. He then brought it close home, saying, "Our safety was purchased through Christ's sacrifice," and asking if we were going to lead that sacrificial life, and left us with the injunction that "we are measured by the height of our ideals and the depths of our convictions."

HIGH SCHOOL AGRICULTURE NOTES

"The art of agriculture will never rise higher than the level of the man who manages the land."
 "The world does not require so much to be informed as to be reminded."

Remember the warning sent out by O. A. C., and wait till spring opens up before doing your pruning. Don't forget to remind your friends that their children can get awfully agriculture training at the Newberg high school. Start with next semester, beginning February 9, and three good credits for remainder of the year.

Tell the world that Newberg is "on the Pacific Highway." It advertises Newberg. It pays to advertise!
 The Associated Industries of Oregon recently published a new "Directory of Oregon Manufacturers." It is said to be a "fairly accurate list" exclusive of the sawmill industry. We have one of these new Directories. It is mighty useful. You are welcome to its use at any time. "Associated Industries of Oregon:" The name and a glance at the directory might lead an ignorant man to believe that agriculture is not an "industry." The presumption of our manufacturers—when the "farm class" makes up one-third of the total population of the United States! Cheer up, Mr. Farmer! Our time is coming—and it's coming fast. Co-operate! Co-operate!

Oliver F. Kilham, Director Agriculture Department Newberg High School.

Notice To Planters
 After finishing the digging and grading of our Italian and other prune trees, we find we have a few thousand nice 4-6 and some 3-4 foot Italian trees in excess of what we counted on. Are therefore able to book orders against this limited supply as long as they last. These trees are first class and were not injured by the hard freeze of December. To those needing Italian trees for Spring planting, we can only suggest prompt action—for certainly this limited number will not last long.

Logan Plants
 Now is the time to arrange for your Logan Plant to insure getting them when you are ready to plant. The same is true of your strawberry plants, small fruits, fruit trees, etc. Place your order now and know you'll get the trees and plants at planting time.
