SPRINGBROOK

Rev. Wm. Allen, of Sherwood, visited at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon.

Paul Lewis, of Oretown, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Lewis, here.

Roy Shires and Miss Ramona Wanless were married at the parsonage Sunday afternoon.

Miss Edith Minchin, of Dundee, is visiting in this vicinity. She is a former pastor of this place.

The special meetings have been attended with unusual success. There have been twenty-three or twenty-four at the altar so far.

Rev. Preston Mills, former pastor of Springbrook meeting and who went from here to Idaho but who is now engaged in mission work in Portland, was out Saturday and Sunday with his family and were visitors at the J. H. Rees home.

DUNDEE

Mr. and Mrs. Roe R. Robison visited relatives in McMinnville Monday.

Miss Margaret McWhinnie, who has been a guest at Otterbrook, has returned to her home in Portland.

Mrs. G. A. Rowden, of Portland, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Greer. Mr. and Mrs. Greer and Miss Hatch spent the week end in Portland, attending the lecture, Sunday evening, given by our former Dundeeite, T. A. Harper.

Mrs. Charles A. Low, one of the more recent comers to Dundee, made a visit to her relatives in Salem the first of the month and there contracted influenza from the effects of which she passed away in a few days. Mr. Low has the sincere sympathy of the whole community.

The many friends of "Uncle John" Parrett are extending to him their sympathy over the loss of his brother, William, whose death at Parrett Mountain was mentioned in the Graphic last week. Several sons of William Parrett's have been for a long time residents of Dundee and their friends sincerely sympathize with them over the loss of their father.

An informal Valentine party was given at Community Hall on Saturday evening. It was another of those delightful occasions, peculiar to Dundee, where grandparents, parents, and children of all ages, engaged in the same games, a real home affair. The "Circus Parade" by the wee folk was the pretty feature of the evening. The only animals in evidence were the Democratic mule and the Republican elephant, both of which objected to being compelled to make a team and made desperate efforts to free themselves from the embarrassing situation. Little Dan Bailey called the combination a "Whoa-Back" and was willing to assume charge of the incongruous pair, an undertaking which only youth and its attending optimism would attempt. After the program, coffee, cakes, sandwiches and pie were served. The next important event in Dundee is to be the masked ball on this coming Saturday. Come and mask and take part in the grand march, whether you dance or not, then see how many of your neighbors will recognize you in spite of your disguise.

Dundee's pastor, Rev. J. H. Gillespie, has begun the publication of a weekly church bulletin in which he not only chronicles church affairs but has added a page of local news, a department which will be greatly appreciated by all members of the community whether members of the church or not. The following excerpts are taken from the bulletin: "The Ladies' Aid have bought a nice 5-room modern (except heat) cottage. It will be moved onto the church lot for the pastor. Several moves will take place in Dundee this spring. Mrs. Dearborn entertained a large company of Women's Home Missionary workers Tuesday. Prayer meeting Friday afternoon at Mrs. Greenville's. Our Sunday school superintendent, Bro. Bahringer, and others are anxious to bring about Decision Day. Our girls are helping in the congregational singing. The Sylvan farmers are always early at church. Our congregations and Sunday school have doubled in attendance since October. What shall our goal be? Who says 100? Among the sick reported this week is Brother John Parrett and his wife, two of our oldest members. We hope and pray for their speedy recovery. Mrs. B. S. Hunter had a birthday Tuesday. One of our helpful Sunday school workers, Miss Fogg, is now a student at Willamette, Salem. We wish her prosperity and hope for her return in due time. She will be missed by all. Epworth League at 7 p. m. At 7:30 p. m. the pastor will make an address on Abraham Lincoln, the great American."

CHEHALEM CENTER

Miss Clara Staley visited friends in Dayton last Saturday.

Miss Mildred Smith was quite sick with pneumonia, but is reported to be getting well now.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cate, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson are moving to Chehalis Center. Vivtor will be in the employ of M. G. Oakley the coming season.

A number of friends of Mrs. Marie Christianson gave her a shower on last Saturday afternoon consisting of flowers, victrola records, three pairs of blankets, sheets, pillow cases, a quilt for her bed, besides a comfort bag which contained numerous useful articles. She is to draw one out every day until all are drawn. Mrs. Christianson has been stricken with paralysis for the past seven years. She endures her misfortune with such a Christian, patient attitude she deserves these small attentions by those of us who can come and go and enjoy life. She wishes to thank, through the columns of the Graphic, all those who contributed in any way to her pleasure.

CANDIDATES WILL SEEK RE-ELECTION

With the approach of the Republican primaries various names have been mentioned in connection with county offices. Martin Miller, who has served as county assessor for a number of years, with credit, will not seek re-election.

W. D. Nickell's name has been mentioned this week in reference to the county assessorship. S. S. Duncan, county school superintendent, will again be a candidate for re-election. Other county officers will make the run for re-nomination for their respective offices, according to gossip making the rounds.—News Reporter.
