

Mrs. Ruth Heacock was here from Lents the first of the week visiting relatives.

Mrs. George W. Range was down from McMinnville visiting her daughters last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Hodson were down from McMinnville last Sunday visiting the Hoskins relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Fendall and little son were over from Forest Grove on a visit with relatives last Sunday.

The Rev. Fred E. Carter family have been busy during the week moving from the parsonage to the Deskins' property just north of town which they bought some time ago. The A. C. Seely family will move into the parsonage property.

Mrs. J. H. Moore was out from Portland the first of the week visiting her mother, Mrs. P. J. Richmond.

The W. W. Hollingsworth Co. were called to Sherwood the first of the week on account of the death of Mrs. Sarah Smith.

The little thirteen-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peters, of Springbrook, who had been in a Portland hospital for treatment for some time, died on last Friday.

George H. Umbaugh, publisher of the Kelsonian, of Kelso, Washington, the smelt "emporium" of the Northwest at this season of the year, spent Sunday here visiting his children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Rundell, and on Monday morning took a look-in at the Graphic office.

Mrs. Viola Gordier, of Santa Cruz, California, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlap.

Mrs. J. R. Pemberton and little daughter came down from Salem Tuesday for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker.

Since the item was written announcing the death and funeral of Patrick Mullen at St. Paul, information comes of the death of the aged widow.

Bernard Mainwaring, editor of the O. A. C. Index, spent a day here with his parents during the week when on the way to the state of Washington on business.

The college auxiliary will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. M. Parker and a full attendance is greatly desired as the Easter sale is to be arranged for.

Rev. Hiram Smith closed his week's Bible lessons at the Brethren church Saturday evening, and left Sunday evening for Weston where he will conduct another short study of the Bible.

H. A. Hinshaw, of the Southern Pacific, and B. C. Miles, of Salem, who are members of a new endowment committee for Pacific College in connection with the Interechurch World Movement campaign, were in Newberg Monday evening attending a meeting of the committee.

Mrs. Bell Gubberud, a sister of David Irean, died last Sunday, aged 55 years, leaving a husband. Funeral services were conducted at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel this, Thursday, morning at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. George H. Lee, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The body of A. Johnson, who was killed at Centralia, Washington, by a falling tree, was brought here for burial and funeral services were held at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The age of the deceased was 50 years and he was a cousin of Swan Benson.

Senator John A. Hurley, of Vale, Malheur county, in passing through Newberg last Tuesday stopped off a short time to visit his uncle, John U. Smith. The parents of Mr. Hurley lived at LaFayette a number of years ago and he grew up at Independence where they located when they left this county.

Meade G. Elliott, who is doing Y. M. C. A. work in Seattle, was home over Sunday for a short visit. He said Rev. Perry Macy, son of Paul Macy, of Springbrook, who has been doing pastoral work in the state of Maine, was to go to Everett, Washington, to take the place as pastor of Friends church.

L. A. Hanning, who recently retired from the grocery business, has bought the five-acre tract just north of town where J. H. Wilson built a nice bungalow a few years ago. The Hannings have been occupying the J. F. Taylor property on North Meridian street since the Taylors went to California for an extended visit.

Col. W. A. Westfall died some time Wednesday night at his home on Sheridan street near Main. Mrs. Westfall, on going to his room in the morning found his lifeless form. The deceased came to Oregon and located in Newberg several years ago, and was actively engaged as an auctioneer as long as his health would permit, but for the past few years he has been confined to the house from paralysis.

Quarterly meeting services will be held at the Free Methodist church by Rev. J. G. Hessler, of Hillsboro, beginning Friday evening and continuing over Sunday. Communion service will be held at the close of the Sunday morning sermon. On Sunday afternoon there will be a meeting in the interest of home missions conducted by Mrs. Lettie Youngs at 3 o'clock. The evening service will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Charles E. Ladd, a member of the pioneer Ladd family, of Portland, died at his home near Carlton last Saturday morning at the age of 62 years, leaving a widow but no children. For many years the deceased was closely associated with the Ladd & Tilton Bank in Portland, but in recent years he has spent the greater part of his time at his home at Carlton. Funeral services were conducted on Monday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, in Portland.

County Commissioner S. E. Cummins, who was down from the county seat the first of the week, said he recently returned from a trip by auto to California where he traveled 5,000 miles over paved roads and where the various types of paving are being used. Said his repair bills down there were almost nothing and that the only thing for Oregon to do is to keep plugging away for better roads. Incidentally, Mr. Cummins said that the report that was going over the county that he had married again was absolutely without foundation, even for the rumor.

Rev. and Mrs. George C. Carl and son, of Portland, attended services at the Newberg Brethren church last Sunday.

County Clerk C. B. Wilson has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Semon J. Madson, deceased.

Mrs. Vesta Hollingsworth, who has a position at the Y. W. C. A. in Portland, was out on a visit the first of the week.

A five-year-old son of Francis Crowe died Tuesday morning. The funeral was conducted at the Catholic church Wednesday.

Mrs. George King and daughter, Miss Jeanette, of Vancouver, Washington, and Leslie Cullen, of Portland, spent Sunday in Newberg.

Walter Dunlap and family, of Portland, spent the week end in Newberg. They were accompanied by a niece from Santa Cruz, California.

Rev. H. G. Crocker came from Oregon City Tuesday to conduct the funeral of A. Johnson, whose body was brought here from Centralia, Washington.

Mrs. Lewis L. Tallman and her sister, Miss Lucile Bradley, of Tacoma, are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell, of Springbrook Heights.

The grammar school base ball team of West Chehalis invites other grammar school teams desiring to arrange for games to call Black R152 for conferences.

Patrick Mullen, who had lived on a farm near St. Paul for the past sixty years, died the first of the week at the age of 81 years. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning at St. Paul.

Word has been received by relatives here of the birth of a daughter on March 14 to Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Allen, of Astoria. Mrs. Allen will be remembered as Miss Ruth Peterson. The little one has been christened Patricia Marion.

The extra train carried 332 passengers to McMinnville Wednesday evening, who went to see the big basket ball game between the Newberg American Legion and the Multnomah Guard teams. The score was 22 to 9 in favor of the Guards. Station Agent G. W. James went along as boss of the excursion.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson and daughter, Miss Lucile, arrived last week from Cleveland, Ohio, and are looking for a location. At present they are visiting at the home of Rev. Carl Miller, at Springbrook, the later having made his home with the Johnson family for several years previous to his marriage.

In a recent communication received by friends here from Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Van Dayke they state they are well and having a fine time but that the bad Virginia roads and the prevalence and severity of the flu are preventing them from visiting many places and people they wished to see. They expect to start on the return trip about April 15.

The county court tried to get the State Highway Commission to put the hot stuff on the new bridge on First street while it is clean but failed, the commission having decided to wait until a paving plant shall be located at a nearby point. As a consequence the court ordered the bridge thrown open for travel as soon as the approaches are ready, which will be very soon.

James Carl Pope, who had been a sufferer from cancer on one ear for a long time, died on last Sunday at his new home on Center street which he bought a short time ago of Mrs. Barbara Austin. His age was 68 years and he left a widow, two sons and a daughter. Funeral services were conducted at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel Wednesday morning by Rev. George H. Lee.

Several of the boyhood friends of Herbert Hoover from Salem and Newberg have notified Chester G. Murphy of their intentions of attending the meeting at the central library Friday night, when plans for organizing the Hoover Republican Club of Oregon will be perfected. Mr. Murphy announces that petitions for circulation to place Hoover's name on the republican ballot will be ready for volunteers to circulate and sign. The speakers will be personal friends and admirers of Hoover.—Oregonian.

An organization meeting of the Newberg district of the Oregon Growers Co-operative Association was held at the Commercial Club rooms last Friday afternoon when nearly all of the fifty-three local members were in attendance. Talks were made by C. I. Lewis and Seymour Jones, of Salem, and by George Zimmerman, of Yamhill, the latter being a member of the Yamhill county board of directors. At the close of the discussion an election of a local advisory committee was held, resulting in the choosing of Frank Carlisle, H. L. Amoth and W. T. West.

WIRING
MOTORS
RANGES
WASHING MACHINES
VACUUM CLEANERS

or any kind of Electric Merchandise, we can supply your requirements. We sell laboratory tested lamps, Edison Mazdas, they are the best

See us for anything Electrical

Yamhill Electric Company

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

Your Valuables will be ABSOLUTELY SAFE in OUR SAFETY DEPOSIT VAULTS

OUR SAFETY DEPOSIT VAULTS WERE BUILT TO PROTECT YOUR VALUABLES. THEY ARE MADE OF HEAVY MANGANESE STEEL SUNK IN CONCRETE, MAKING THEM FIREPROOF AS WELL AS BURGLAR PROOF.

YOU WILL HAVE PEACE OF MIND, WHEN YOU PUT YOUR VALUABLES IN ONE OF OUR SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES PUT YOUR MONEY IN OUR BANK

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
NEWBERG, OREGON

WHY MAINTAIN A MORGUE?

Take those dead ones from your book and send them to

Knight Adjustment Co
McMinnville, Oregon
Branch Offices at
HILLSBORO, DALLAS, CORVALLIS

Elkay's Straw Hat DYE

Makes your old Hat
Look like new

Easily Applied, Quickly Dried

In Sixteen Colors

LYNN B. FERGUSON
Prescription Druggist
The REXALL Store
NEWBERG, OREGON

Prices Have Advanced

Come in and let us tell you how to

SAVE

ON YOUR TIRE COSTS

Miller Ad-On-A-Tire

Saves you about 75 per cent. We will gladly tell you all about them

Let us show you how by having your Vulcanizing done at the right time,
IT WILL SAVE YOU BIG MONEY

DOYLE'S TIRE SHOP
VULCANIZING
713 First St., Newberg
OUR MOTTO:—Our Customers Must be Satisfied

FOR RENT

40 ACRES

ON THE BOTTOM. 1 MILE FROM NEWBERG HIGH SCHOOL

Share rental. Nearly all has been in grain and hay the last 3 years. Ideal for potatoes or any kind of crop. This has not been offered for rent before, as same has been for sale. For particulars inquire or write

H. A. CALEF
68 FIFTH STREET, PORTLAND, ORE.

ABOVE IS FOR SALE SUBJECT TO LEASE. PRICE $8,000.00

RED DRAGON

SQUIRREL AND GOPHER POISON

Sure Death to Squirrels and Gophers

AT
GRAHAM'S DRUG STORE
Phone White 113

Eastman Kodaks Nyals Medicines