

Immediate Profits and Ultimate Values

BOTH are increased when farm production is brought to the maximum point. Therefore when the farmer is able to profit most, he benefits the community greatest.

The U. S. National Bank is constantly on the alert to help local farmers better their crops and livestock and make necessary improvements in methods.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Harper have been recent week end guests at Otterbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Groth are rejoicing over the arrival of another daughter. The stork also visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Livengood last week.

Found—On the railroad crossing near Dundee, a ring, evidently a keepsake. Owner can have same by calling upon Mrs. John Parrett Jr., and proving property.

Portland friends of Miss Ella Crawford have received letters telling of her safe escape from the Lincoln Hotel, recently burned in Seattle. Miss Crawford lost all her clothing and personal property but is thankful in having escaped the terrible fate of some of the other residents of the hotel.

All Dundee seems to have been playing "Fruit Basket," a few families staying put in their accustomed places but others wonderfully changed about. Harry C. Starr has bought the B. S. Hunter property southwest of town. Mr. Powelski has purchased and is remodeling the Boley Edward's house. Mr. Kay and family have moved to the Red Hills to the McCleary place. Spence Vedder and family have moved to the G. W. Beyers house, W. H. Hill to the former hotel building. Mrs. Asha Vedder occupies the Chas. Parrett home and will conduct a hotel. Mr. Johnson has moved to Scott Livengood property. Asa Ryan occupies the Johnson-house Mrs. Wm. East has gone to Eastern Washington to keep house for her uncle, Henry Hagey, John Parrett has bought the East property, Rev. and Mrs. Gillespie have moved to the parsonage recently vacated by John Parrett, and Mr. Smith, who has opened a garage in the blacksmith shop, has moved to the house vacated by Mr. Gillespie.

The first meeting of the Dundee Woman's Club after some months of vacation—on account of so much sickness in the community was held at Community Hall on Thursday. After the business meeting, Mrs. Shannahan as hostess took charge of the program. The article in a recent copy of the Woman's Home Companion by Helen M. Taft on "Women in Politics" was read by Mrs. Bland Herring. Miss Taft gives reasons why women need politics as much as politics need women, urges women everywhere to study national and world problems, and to work with one or the other of the great parties. Both parties need woman's enthusiasm, economic sense and interest in reforms, while women need the experience that has come to men from the discipline of years of united work in such organizations. An interesting feature of the program was a straw vote for U. S. president. Herbert Hoover took the lead with Wood and Lowden tied for second choice. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Shannahan, Mrs. Herring and Mrs. W. J. Gordon.

B. A. Reetz, of Junction City, called on friends and relatives the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cate motored out from Portland Friday evening. Mrs. Cate remained out for the week to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hendrickson and the Misses Rosalie and Goldie Hendrickson, of Portland, and Mrs. Johnson, of Aberdeen, Washington, were out to visit Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson last Sunday.

There was no school Monday on account of the funeral of Calva Martin. The entire neighborhood was saddened and sorry to hear of Rev. Martin's death. The family have the sympathy of many friends here in their hour of sorrow and bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Lineas Christenson entertained the following relatives at a fine birthday dinner last Sunday. It was the birthday of Harley Hall and Mrs. L. F. Hall. Aside from those mentioned were L. F. Hall, Mrs. Harley Hall, Delmer and Elmer Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Larsen and son, Dale, and Otto Loubeck, all of Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Castile, Newton Peters and the Misses Ina Ward and Emma Robins, of Tualatin.

The Parent-Teacher Association held the meeting at the school house last Friday evening. A large crowd was present. The program consisted of a number of readings by the little folks. Charley Post impersonated the darkey boy in a reading and a song. The Misses Clara and Violet Staley sang "Freckles" which was well received by the audience. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: T. Bixler, president; Mrs. Nina Ramsey, vice president; Chas. Shires, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer, treasurer. Coffee and cake were served during the social time following the meeting. Mrs. Meyer explained to some extent the two mill tax question. There will be more discussion on that subject at the next meeting, the second Friday in May.

PLEASANT VIEW

Mrs. Henry Versteeg left Sunday for Amity where she will visit her sister.

Albert Marsh died at the home of his brother, Walter G. Marsh, on Sunday the eighteenth. The funeral was held at Laurel on the following Wednesday.

The many friends and neighbors of Miss Mae Jones were entertained at her home last Saturday evening. After dancing and games a lunch was served to the guests and all present enjoyed the evening.

The school children are looking forward to a jolly time on May Day when Pleasant View, District 74, will visit District 92 and the afternoon will be spent in playing games and other childish diversions.

REX

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have moved into a house owned by Mr. Yokel.

Mr. Sturgis has taken possession of the store he bought of Mr. Lewis.

Mrs. Eves entertained at breakfast Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Fleda and Ruth Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. Semmer entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Fleda and Ruth Kane.

A very exciting base ball game was played Friday afternoon between Springbrook and Rex, on the Rex diamond, the score being 23 to 17 in favor of the home team. This Friday a game is scheduled with Fernwood.

One hundred and two attended the surprise party given Mr. and Mrs. Kane Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth. They were very much surprised. The evening was spent playing games and in singing. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

DUNDEE

Miss Frances Scallon, of Portland, was a week end guest of Mrs. R. A. Olmsted.

Otto Elkins and family have moved to their new home, the Frank Livengood place.

Mrs. Allen, of Newberg, was a guest at the home of her brother, L. J. Eddens, the first of the week.

Miss Florence McCleary, from the Coast, has been visiting her cousin, Miss Bernice Keyes, and also cousins in Newberg.

Miss Eula Strange and Miss Dorothy Prosser, of Portland, enjoyed blossom time at Otterbrook Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Heath, of Corvallis, who had been visiting in Portland, had a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Newton Bailey, Friday.

Mr. Robison went to McMinnville on Sunday and brought his mother, his aunt, Miss Lizzie Robison, and Mrs. Sanders and her children to enjoy the orchards in bloom.

H. C. Locke, recent purchaser of the Altman place, brought in a car load of fine cattle last week. Mr. Locke expects to have his dairy in full operation in a short time.

Mr. Bently who is a partner with R. A. Olmsted in the property recently purchased from the Dundee Fruit & Walnut Co., is here looking over his holdings and selecting a building site.

Prof. J. P. Powell celebrated his eighty-eighth birthday Tuesday by teaching eight classes in music, and full chorus of ladies, and by setting out a strawberry bed and spading a large part of his garden.

There may be a prettier sight than the Robison cherry orchard in full bloom but Red Hills residents doubt it. Just at present it is at its best as are the prune orchards on the hills and great is the temptation to slack up on garden work and just enjoy the wonderful beauty and fragrance of blossom time.

SPRINGBROOK

Nearly everybody smelt so the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newhouse motored to Portland Sunday.

Miss Lucille Johnson has accepted a position in the United States National Bank and commenced work there Monday.

Mr. Murdock has purchased the Whitney ranch just north of Wade Williams' place and will move thereon soon.

Lyle Hubbard and wife are expected here soon from North Branch, Kansas, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hubbard.

There will be a reception at the school house Friday evening for the new settlers in the Springbrook district. A royal good time is anticipated.

Harvey Livingston is preparing to build a fine new house on his ranch. Wonder if Harve really is going to add another to his flock of guineas.

The Springbrook school went to Rex Friday afternoon and met defeat on the diamond to the tune of 23 to 17. Some of the boys say they could have played a much better game if so many of them had not fallen off the field into the valley below.

There are two homes in Springbrook that attract the attention and admiration of all passers-by, those of Thomas Lemon and C. E. Newhouse. These two places are made very beautiful by the brilliant display of flowers in the yards. Both Mrs. Lemon and Mrs. Newhouse are great lovers of the beautiful and are never so happy as when caring for their flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Tallman left on Monday for their eastern trip. We are sorry to lose this excellent couple from our community but wish them a pleasant journey and hope they may decide to again locate in Springbrook on their return. A farewell reception was given them last Thursday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell. A large number were in attendance and an enjoyable time was the result.

The big Sandy was running over full of smelt the first of the week. Oh, dear, no, not Sandy Brown, but the Big Sandy River. Quite a number of Springbrook people seized the opportunity to lay in a supply of those dainty fish. Among the number going up were Messrs. and Mesdames J. L. Haworth, Asa Butler, Wade Williams, Dennis Mills, (without the Mesdames) Zimri Mills and others whose names we did not learn. Each brought back several bushels of fish, dividing up liberally with those who stayed at home.

The clouds have broke and rolled away, the sun shines bright the livelong day; the hill sides in their garb of green are beautiful—a perfect dream; the orchards, like vast fields of snow, their perfume on the breezes blow; the old world's full of song and cheer, hope, from the heart drives out all fear. God in His heaven smiles with glee as He looks down on you and me, for it gives joy to Him I know when things are beautiful here below. He likes to make His children glad and sorrows much when we are sad, so in the blossom time of spring let us unto Him our praises sing.

LAST SARCEE CHIEF DIES

After three weeks' illness Big Belly, head chief of the Sarcee Indians, of Alberta, died recently at Calgary. With Big Belly's death, another of Alberta's original Indians passed away making him the last of old time chiefs to rule the Sarcees. Big Belly was 64 years of age, and succeeded Bull's Head as head chief in 1911. He was popular with everybody who had dealings with him, and was a wise ruler among his people. He will be remembered by many for his prominence at the Victory Stampede, heading the Sarcees in the parade and camp.
