BRING GOOD AND BAD LUCK

Belief in Power of Various Flowers is Strongly Held in Eastern and Western Lands.

It is good luck to eat the first may-blower you see in the spring. If it is a crocus, let it alone; in Austria they say it draws away one's strength. Nor must you dig up a cuckoo flower or tempt luck by moving a wild daisy into the garden. In Egypt the anemone is one of the lucky flowers of spring; wrap the first one in red cloth and, if not disturbed, it will cure disease. On the French coast it is useless to try to catch fish unless the waters are first strewn with flowers by the fishermen's wives and daughters. In Devonshire (England) they regard it as unlucky to plant a bed of lilies in the course of twelve months. The Turk sees misfortune in so light a thing as the fall of a rose petal and will sometimes guard against such dropping by carefully picking the flowers before they fully part. In Samoa the head of a corpse is wreathed in flowers to aid the soul to gain admission into paradise.
