

Locals and Personals

The Dr. J. R. Pemberton family was down from Salem last Sunday. Mrs. George H. Lee is attending the State Sunday School Convention in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Altman, of Gresham, were Newberg visitors Monday.

Henry D. Olsen, traveling freight agent for the Southern Pacific, was in Newberg today.

Miss Sybil Woodward is spending the week in Portland with her sister, Mrs. W. A. King.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Miss Laura Hammer came down from Salem last Saturday to attend May Day exercises.

Mrs. Mabel Stout and children were out from Portland as week end visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira K. Vantress.

Mrs. Walter Kenworthy came out from Portland the latter part of last week and visited her son, Byron, who is a student in the college.

Mrs. Omer Gause came over from Washougal, Washington, last Saturday to see her sister, Miss Frances Elliott, crowned May Queen.

P. J. Richmond came in from the farm at Monroe Wednesday and says he will probably remain a month or more. He says every prospect pleases out south in Polk and Benton counties.

Word comes from Tillamook that a son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse went to Dayton Wednesday to spend a few days assisting their son, Clinton, on the farm.

Mrs. Everett George and babe came from Portland to spend the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colcord.

Mrs. Charles Scott, of Salem, spent a part of last week at the girls' hall at the college with her daughter and assisted in arranging for May Day exercises.

The "Dawson Did It" man is in town again doing sign painting. It was Dawson who tacked the house numbers up in Newberg some years ago when he was located here.

Mrs. Guy E. Metcalf, of Wenatchee, Washington, who is taking medical treatment in Portland, spent the latter part of last week with the Ray Newby family, of Springbrook. On Saturday she came in to see the May Day parade.

Hon. W. W. Lunger, former representative from this county in the legislature and who is a candidate for the republican nomination at the coming primary, attended the meeting at West Chehalis on last Friday night and spent a part of Saturday in Newberg.

Dr. E. A. Romig was out from Portland on business last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Fendall and little son were over from Forest Grove last Sunday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Herrick was over from Carlton the latter part of last week visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Mount.

John McCrea and family came from Kalama, Washington, last Saturday for a short visit with Newberg relatives.

At the Sunday morning service of the Presbyterian church Mrs. Georgia Babcock will sing Gounod's "O Devine Redeemer."

N. C. Maris, of Portland, candidate for delegate at large to the republican national convention, spent a little time in Newberg Tuesday.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the public library Wednesday, May 12, at 2:30. This is an important business meeting and all members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Elizabeth Driver returned Monday from Ashland. She has disposed of her property in Newberg and expects to make her future home in Ashland. Her son, Ira S. Patton, will accompany her.

Prof. G. A. Carey, who is the Biblical instructor in Friends University at Wichita, Kansas, is expected to be in attendance at the quarterly meeting at Friends church in Newberg Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom and the mother of J. L. are off by the Ford route for Montague, California, where they will visit the Clyde Hale family, former residents of Newberg. They expect to be gone three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Harris, who came from Stevens county, Kansas, are visiting their brother-in-law, Barclay Dillon, and family and are prospecting for a home in Newberg.

When you hear the whirr of a motor out north or east of town it is not safe to take it for granted that an air plane is sailing overhead, for it may be either Jack Lemon's or Walter Wilson's farm tractor in action.

George Hardwick, who has been quite sick for some time, is able to be out again. His sister, Mrs. C. J. Leavitt, has been here for sometime caring for him, and he will return with her to Eugene and make his home with the Leavitt family.

Miss Anna Kennedy, former operator in the office of the Newberg Telephone Co., came out from Portland and spent last Sunday with Mrs. Ben Evans. Miss Kennedy is soon to become the wife of Clarence Coe, of Tillamook, formerly of Newberg.

John U. Smith, of West Chehalis, who made the race for joint senator two years ago, and who is out again for the same office, says he will make the canvass on an economic basis without spending much money in the race, as the office will not justify it.

John Beals, who says he has been mending the ways of other people at the cobbler's bench for the past thirty-eight years, has sold his shoe shop to his son and has taken to out door work on account of his health, his first job being cutting cord wood. A very promising starter.

Under the auspices of the Music Club, Mr. and Mrs. George Hotchkiss Street will give a concert at Wood-Mar Hall on Tuesday evening, May 18. Mr. Street will sing a number of the songs he used while engaged in entertainment work in France during the war and Mrs. Street will sing a number of children's songs.

On Tuesday of next week the Yamhill County Forum will hold a meeting at the Commercial Club rooms in Newberg, Barnett Y. Roe presiding. A session will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning and another at 1:30 in the afternoon. Delegates from all over the county will be in attendance and a discussion of the road bonds and other important matters will be engaged in.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hobson came out on the train last Sunday and spent a part of the day viewing the blossoming orchards from the top of the hills back of Dundee. Mr. Hobson carried with him an illustrated folder he got out 30 years ago under the name of Reed & Hobson, telling about the possibilities of this section. In the evening they visited at the A. T. Blair home in Newberg.

E. A. Wright, the 76 liniment man, left on a summer canvassing trip for the sale of his liniment in Montana on Tuesday, his son going along as driver of the Ford. They had the back of the front seat arranged on hinges so that at night it can be turned back to form a bed and the Ford will be their home when the shadows fall, as well as by day. They expect to be gone until the snow falls. Mrs. Wright and the younger children will spend the summer near Corvallis.

Dr. Harry E. Hevman, eye sight specialist, formerly with Thompson Optical Institute.

You will find he knows just how to test your eyes and fit glasses to relieve those headaches and your blurred vision.

While I am east finding out new things in Optometry you can absolutely trust your eyes to him.

E. P. Smith, who was here from Gresham a few weeks ago, returned Wednesday and rented a building on Main street where he will open a carpenter shop. He expects to move here next week.

The J. F. Taylor family, who spent the latter part of the winter with relatives at Whittier, California, arrived home the latter part of last week. They came through in the Ford and fifty cents covered the expense of repairs. With the exception of the roads being rough in some places they found them in good condition.

Hon. W. B. Dennis, who represented Yamhill county in the legislature at the last assembly and who is a candidate for joint senator for this district, composed of Yamhill, Washington, Tillamook and Lincoln counties, was in Newberg on Friday of last week meeting the people. It is a big territory he has to cover in order to meet the voters before May 21, the date of the primary election.

Dave Irelan sold his residence on the corner of Hancock and College streets to W. A. Graham, the druggist, and bought the Harvey A. Wright bungalow at 214 Sheridan street. Mr. Wright bought the Peter J. Hilbert bungalow and an acre of ground on East Fulton street out north of the college campus and Mr. Hilbert has bought a small tract of Mr. French directly north of town a quarter of a mile, where he will build a residence, beginning at once.

Orange Elliott, who has been with the canning company ever since the start was made at the plant and who has had charge of the storage and shipping end of the business for a long time, is to be transferred to Portland where the company is establishing a big storage and shipping plant. The product of the different canneries being operated under the name of the A. Rupert Co. Inc. will be sent there to be assembled and shipped out. Mr. Elliott is to be the head there. He went to Portland today to get the "lay of the land" but will probably not take up the work for a little time yet.

The attendance from Newberg at the Founders' Day celebration at old Champeog on last Saturday was not up to the average, owing to the May Day festivities held here and to the further fact that many people were so busy with their work. About twenty-five people came out from Portland on the train and were taken over from here in motor cars. It is stated that 105 automobiles were parked at the grounds, which will give some idea of the attendance, which was much smaller than that of a year ago.

FORMER NEWBERG TEACHER

Miss Ella Crawford, who used to live a few miles north of Dayton, was one of the unfortunate victims of that disastrous hotel fire in Seattle, Washington, when the Lincoln hotel was burned. Miss Crawford's room was on the fifth floor and she barely had time to escape with her life, having found her way out by the fire escape. She lost her clothing and keepsakes and family pictures, and many things that cannot be replaced.—Dayton Tribune.
