Hon. W. K. Newell was out from Portland Tuesday in company with his friend, Mr. Morgan, of Yamhill, boosting for Hoover. They are confident Hoover will carry Oregon at the primary election.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lemon, of Springbrook, say they have a limited amount of sorghum seed sent them by their son in Minnesota, which they will let growers have at a reasonable price.

E. E. Goff, manager for the Newberg Telephone Co., says they have orders for 25 new phones but are delayed in installing them on account of not being able to get either the phones or the wire.

J. C. Cooper, who was down from McMinnville Tuesday attending the meeting of the Yamhill County Forum, carried a pocket full of cards bearing the slogan in big black letters, "Make Hoover President."

Mrs. M. B. Peacock and daughter, Ruth, are here from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, visiting Mrs. R. M. Thurston, a sister, and will remain a month. Mr. Peacock will also be here at the time of the Shriners' big pow wow in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummins, Mrs. Byron Brown and Mrs. Nettie Pinney went to Tigard Wednesday where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Olive Pettijohn and Charles Livingston which took place at the home of Sylvester Wilson. The newly weds expect to go to Los Angeles to make their home.

P. L. Cate and family moved Wednesday to his farm 2 1/2 miles out from Sheridan where they will reside for the future. Mr. and Mrs. Cate have been highly respected residents of Newberg for a long period and were prominent in church and fraternal work. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Fred A. Williams, representing the Public Service Commission, with E. Kephart, engineer for the commission, and E. T. Russell, engineer for the Newberg Telephone Co., held a public meeting here last Monday to take evidence in the matter of the application of the telephone company for the privilege of raising rates. There is little question but that the request will be granted since practically all the companies in Oregon are charging the rate asked for.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, who live on Salt Creek near Dallas in Polk county, gave a birthday dinner at their home on last Sunday in honor of their son, Wm. Elmer Thomas, of Newberg, that being his twenty-first birthday. Elmer served nineteen months in France and was wounded twice. There were friends in attendance at the dinner, those from Newberg being Harvey Condeaux, Dorothy Pike, George Oldenberg, Ruby Wanless, Vernon Groff, Mildred Baker and Elmer Thomas.

County Superintendent S. S. Duncan, who was in Newberg the first of the week, informed the Graphic that he had bought 46 acres of what was formerly the C. E. Hoskins fruit farm at Springbrook on which the old residence stands, the purchase price being $11,000. He recently sold his drug store at Philomath and his son, J. A. Duncan, who was managing the store, will take charge of the farm and will be assisted by his brother, Leland. Mr. Hoskins was the first to demonstrate on that farm prune growing in this section and the orchard is still doing business.

Mrs. Billy Sullivan went to Portland today to try to secure passage for London, she having secured a passport for the voyage a short time ago. She hopes to get off in two weeks and will be away five months. One of the boys would have gone with her but they could not secure a passport for him. Ocean travel will not be new to Mrs. Sullivan as she was born on the other side and has made a number of trips across. She has some business to look after in London and she hopes to visit some of the battle fields in Northern France. Billy and the boys will look after the White Sox orchards while she is away.

Edward J. Ford, who came here a short time ago from Denver, Colorado, has bought the apple orchard of 27 acres set out by the late John Hutzen a short distance north of town, the purchase price being $9,450. Mr. Ford says he will build on the tract at once. He was born in Denver where he has lived all his life, that being a much higher altitude than this, but he says he is greatly pleased with what he finds here.

The Pacific College ball team had a great day last Saturday when they went to Forest Grove and defeated the fast P. U. team in a 2 to 1 score. The boys surprised themselves as well as P. U. for the latter had defeated Mac the week before and here on the home grounds the boys suffered defeat at the hands of Mac on May Day, P. U. the little Korean pitcher, struck out 17 P. U. batters and allowed only two hits, while Woodburn, the catcher, did good work. Prof. Perisho, who went over with the team, is very proud of their work.

Very impressive funeral services were held at the Baptist church on last Sunday afternoon for Miss Lavinia C. Williams, who died at her home, 406 North School street, on last Friday morning following a lingering illness. Rev. F. C. Stannard, who had been her pastor for a period of ten years, spoke very feelingly of the faithful services of the deceased, as a member of the church and as a neighbor and friend in the community. She came here with the family from Pennsylvania more than thirty years ago and this was her home up to her death. One sister, Clara, and two brothers, H. M. and another in Portland, are left.

ADVENTIST CHURCH DEDICATED

A large congregation assembled in the Seventh Day Adventist church of Newberg last Sunday afternoon to listen to the dedicatory sermon by Elder Hibbard, of Portland.

Pastor Cady gave some statistics showing that the church member-

The Newest Brunswick

Beauty of design and finish are Brunswick characteristics. In this model they are more than ever prominent.

A new and more powerful motor, the Ultona, that remarkable device that plays perfectly the records of all artists and makers, and the amplifying chamber, which is wholly made of wood, and unusually resonant, have combined to make this style instantly popular.
