NEW OCCUPATION FOR GOAT
 Billy and Nanny May Be Profitably Employed in Clearing Away the Impeding Underbrush.

The monkey cotton picker was never an entire success. The monkey could pick the cotton, but it cost more to provide human direction to guide his efforts than the negro cotton pickers asked for the whole job, picking, directing and all. But the Angora goat as a clearer of land requires no direction.
 Just string a few strands of barbed wire around the land to be cleared so that Mr. and Mrs. Goat and the kids shall not clear the land that is not to be cleared and they will do the job without even a casual suggestion from the land owner.

The success which has attended the raising of Angora goats in the rugged Ozark country of southwestern Missouri has suggested to specialists of the department of agriculture that it might be equally profitable to place such herds on many other wild tracts, particularly those which have been cut over, because these goats are proving of great help in clearing away underbrush. Growing mohair and producing kids, the Angoras in the Ozarks are also trimming down the brush, manuring the hills and preparing the way for grass, cattle and sheep.

According to reports secured by a representative of the state college of agriculture in Missouri, the Angoras required to clear an acre of land varies from two to five, depending on the density and size of the brush.

SOUL'S ORDEAL AFTER DEATH

Old Volume, Known as "Judgment of the Dead," is a Fancy of the Ancient Egyptians.

"Book of the Dead" is a very old book, known in ancient Egypt as the "Judgment of the Dead," and it contains the funeral ritual of the Egyptians, describing in mystical language the experiences of the soul after death and the text it must quote to escape the torments and trials of the lower world. In one chapter, the longest in the book, is a picture showing the judgment which the defunct, before entering into the fields of the blessed, will undergo in the lower world. In the presence of Osiris and 42 judges of monstrous form, who are on hand to devour the guilty and drink his blood, Anubis, the god of the dead, and Thoth, the god of wisdom, examine the deceased by weighing his heart in the "sacred" balances of Justice. The famous "negative confession" enumerates 42 capital sins from which the deceased must be free. Should he fail to pass the ordeal, he is either handed over to be devoured by the monster, part hippopotamus, part crocodile and part lion, which represents the Egyptian Cerebus, or is thrown into the fiery lake.

The Springbrook schools closed a very successful year's work last Friday, but owing to the non-arrival of the eighth grade diplomas the special exercises were postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when a class of seven graduated.

Considerable excitement was caused in this neighborhood last Saturday morning when it became known that Miss Imagi Nation had eloped with U. P. Start. The romance of these young people had been neighborhood gossip for some time, as it was well known that the parents of both parties objected seriously to the match and the young lady's fond Mama had kept her a prisoner in a kimona and the youth had been confined in the fourth story of his father's hay barn. No one knows how they effected their escape as the barn is intact and the kimona can not be found. Both families are heart-broken on account of the disgrace that has come to them through each being linked with the other family.

 man. Mrs. Young's sister, Mrs.
 Amy, and son, Melvin, are here in their absence. Mr. Young's neph-

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Post are building a fine new bungalow on their tract of land in the suburbs of New-berg on Illinois street, leading off North Main street. They expect to have all the modern conveniences and to have it completed in June.
 The community will be sorry to lose them as citizens but will keep close tab on them as they move into the city.

The Parent-Teacher Association held a meeting Monday evening with quite a good number in attendance. The gymnasium question, which has been pending for eight years, was again up for discussion.
 Supt. Duncan and Prof. Allen were there to discuss the millage tax and the tax to maintain the three state schools, which will be voted on May 21st.

The neighborhood was saddened by the passing away of Mrs. Margaret Shires May 13th. She had been a resident here twenty-eight years, was of a quiet, unassuming disposition and patiently bore her severe illness to the last. She leaves many friends to mourn her departure.

The funeral was conducted by Rev.
 Chas. I. Whitlock at the church Saturday morning. A large number of friends were present who showed their esteem by a number of beautiful floral gifts. Burial was at the Newberg cemetery. The W. C. T. U. passed the following resolutions:

We of the Chehalis Center W. C.
 T. U. feel very keenly the loss of our dear sister, Mrs. Margaret Shires, who departed this life May 13th. She was a member over 20 years, always upholding the banner and principles, serving as treasurer an extended time. Inasmuch as our all-wise Father has seen fit to remove her from our midst to a better, brighter world, we wish to extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband, sons and families. Therefore we it resolved that three copies be sent, one to the Newberg Graphic, one to the White Ribbon Review, and one to the sorrowing husband and family.
