PROFITTEERING STORY ABSOLUTE FALSEHOOD

There is a statement being circulated broadcast that the Newberg store of the Miller Mercantile Company has been brought to justice by a government official for selling a pair of shoes for $14 that cost $6. This statement is absolutely false in every particular. We have never sold a pair of shoes at any such fabulous profit, and have never been interviewed by any official, government or otherwise.

Our enviable record of fair and square dealing in each of our seven stores should convince any of our customers that such a story is a malicious falsehood. If there is any way of finding out who was the instigator of this falsehood, that person will be brought to justice and given the full extent of the law.

Announcement

W. W. (Judge) Nickell, candidate for County Assessor, wishes to announce to the voters of the county that he is very much alive, and feeling fine after his four weeks' tussle with acute appendicitis at the McMinnville Hospital, and on account of being unable to make a personal campaign the same as other candidates are doing, your influence and support are earnestly solicited. To you I am offering the same honest effort that I gave you when County Judge. No. 81 on ballot. 32-33
