ATTENTION, VOTERS OF YAMHILL COUNTY!

The following article is published by request:

The attention of the voters of Yamhill county is hereby directed to the fact that the measure initiated by the voters of Yamhill county No. 304, entitled: "Shall there be issued bonds of Yamhill county to the amount of One Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($190,000.00) to provide for laying hard surface pavement on the roads in Yamhill county, Oregon, as follows: From west end of bridge near northwest boundary of corporate limits of Newberg westerly about one and three-fourths miles; Beginning at pavement near depot east of Yamhill and running easterly 10,850 feet to junction of road; Commencing at southeasterly boundary of corporate limits of city of Dayton, at northerly end of Dayton-Wheatland River Road, and running thence southerly to Pleasantdale school house; Commencing at present pavement at Lewis corners and running westerly to end of bridge over Yamhill River east of McMinnville on road leading to Dayton," does not state the fact that this measure is based on a fifty-fifty proposition; that these bonds are not to be sold unless they are matched by a like sum donated by subscription of the citizens or by state or federal aid. The original petition calling for this election, clearly stated this fifty-fifty contingency proposition, and voters in favor of the measure as stated on the original petitions are earnestly requested to work and vote for the measure as it now stands on the official ballot.

The roads to be hard surfaced by this appropriation and its accompanying subscription, or state aid, are very important, as they carry heavy traffic and should be put in the very best condition immediately.

Let every voter give this matter his earnest consideration, and the immediate need of this appropriation will be clearly evidenced to him, when he considers the fact that these roads serve, not only the producer, but also the traveling public. For that reason all voters of this county are requested to give this matter their earnest attention as this is a county proposition and not a local matter.

Natural Proceeding.
"They had a hard time in that place with the actors representing the elements of the storm."
"How so?"
"The lightning struck."

How Visitor to London Zoological Gardens Held Converse With Lonely Tibetan Yak.

The shaggy old Tibetan yak at the "zoo" died some while ago and a new yak occupied his shed and enclosure.

Yesterday a visitor stood watching the yak munching at a truss of hay in his manger. He called the yak and it took no notice. Then, having read Hooker's "Himalayan Journals," he remembered the calls of the Tibetan maidens when they bring the yaks home at sunset.

The visitor uttered the call. The yak dropped a mouthful of hay, gave a deep grunt, and came shambling to the bars of its stable. The visitor patted and fondled it, and grunted yak language and it flaked his hand, and when he left the yak house it ran out of its shed and followed him around its large barred enclosure.

He returned later and found the yak still restless. It had deserted its meal; it paced the enclosure and made plaintive noises. The visitor gave the Tibetan girl's call again, and again the yak ran to him. "Good heavens!" cried a stranger, "how do you tame 'zoo' animals like that?" He was told the secret.

"Poor old yak, poor old fellow," said the stranger. "How can we guess what chords you have touched—what memories of snow and ice, and praying wheels and idols, of Tibetan girls with turquoise ornaments in their braided hair? Look how troubled the old yak is—it isn't fair to give home-sickness to prisoners at the zoo!"—London Daily Mail.

Tranquility Overdone.
"So you slept for twenty years!"
"Yes," replied Rip Van Winkle; "and I'm compelled to admit that when a man tries to conquer 'unrest' there is danger of his going too far."

Heat for Alaska.

The Pacific has its own "Gulf stream," which is called the Japan current, and it is formed in the same way.

The trade winds, blowing from the tropics, bank up the warmed ocean waters in the Yellow sea (corresponding to our Gulf of Mexico), and thence they pour out between Japan and Formosa, the stream thus formed passing south of the Aleutian chain, along the southern coast of Alaska, and down the west coast of North America.

Hence it comes about that the whole southern coast of Alaska has a temperate climate. It is warmed by the Japan current.

What Really Keeps Time.

As a measurer of time the pendulum ranks today as the most perfect of our instruments, says the Scientific American. It is the part of a clock that keeps time. All the rest of the mechanism is simply for the purpose of keeping up its vibration or to point on a dial the number of vibrations it has made. It swings back and forth in a complete arc 30 times each minute, but allows the escape-wheel to move a cog at each vibration, thus checking off on the dial, by means of the second hand, 30 seconds of time. In a similar way minutes and hours are recorded, and by a like process a watch is guided.
