Prof. Floyd Perisho drove to Portland to meet Pres. Levi T. Pennington, who came from Central City, Nebraska, where he delivered the commencement address at Nebraska Central College and also attended a part of the Nebraska Yearly Meeting of Friends church where he made a number of addresses.

Howard Armstrong and Ray Stout, aged 23 and 22 years, respectively, returned service men, who stole the W. T. Anderson car in Portland some time ago, plead guilty to a grand jury indictment of "taking and using an automobile without permission." Circuit Judge McCourt, of Portland, sentenced them to six months in jail and then paroled them.

A bait and fly casting tournament will be held at the river, near the boat landing Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock by the Multnomah Anglers' Club and the Newberg Anglers' Club. Fred Kincaid, who has charge of the arrangements, says it is really a get-together meeting between the jolly city fellows and our local boys, whereby the local club members may learn more in the art of angling from the visitors, among whom are some experts.

Mrs. C. M. Collins gave a surprise party Monday afternoon for Lorraine, it being her eighth birthday. Eight little girls were invited, namely, Eva Hart, Madeline Sloppy, Mildred Smith, Harriett Jameson, Marie Fox, Julia Fox and Martha Noble, and eight pink candles burned quite merrily on the birthday cake, as the children ate fruit salad, ice cream and cookies. After the cake was served and several games were played, all enjoyed the Jack Horner pie, which was well filled with pink kewpies.

Zenas Perisho has gone to Idaho to work during vacation.

Miss Ellen Gregory is here from Idaho on a visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Hyde, who were recently married at Homedale, Idaho, are here on a visit with his mother. The bride will be remembered as Miss Grace Benson, formerly a student in acific College.

W. L. C. NOTES

The Woman's Legislative Council met Monday afternoon in the library and after the usual routine business the ladies enjoyed a treat provided by the program committee in the form of an address by Rev. George H. Lee, on the subject of "Respect for Law," a mild subject but a strong talk was given, which was a real inspiration to those who were present and the absent ones surely missed something worth while.

We urge the delegates from the various societies to attend these meetings, co-operation being the need of the day.

There will not be another meeting in June unless called by the president.

OBITUARY

After a protracted illness of several months with Bright's Disease, Horace E. Newlin, son of Milton and Mary Jane Newlin, departed this life sixth month second, at 4 o'clock p. m., 1920, at his home in Springbrook, Oregon.

He was born at Sylvana, Indiana, first month fifth, 1866, and at the time of his death his age was 54 years, 4 months, 27 days.

He was married eleventh month 23rd, 1887, to Mary Emily Rice, of Vermillion county, Illinois. To them were born five children, Mrs. Beulah Morey, of Parma, Idaho, Mrs. Clarice Newby, of Newberg, Jesse, Lloyd and Kenneth Newlin, of Springbrook.

The immediate family, with his aged parents and youngest brother, Luther, were at his bedside at the time of his departure.

They, with a brother, James Duncan Newlin, of Ridge Farm, Illinois, two sisters, Mrs. Miriam L. Mills, of Wilder, Idaho, and Ida Ann Cook, of Georgetown, Illinois, with other relatives and friends, remain to mourn his departure, but they mourn not without the comforting hope that he is gone where sorrow, pain and disappointment never enter.

He left them the testimony that he was fully reconciled to the Lord's will; that he had no feeling of uncertainty concerning his future prospects and that he was anxious and wanted to go.

He is the first one of his father's family of seven to be taken by death, and his testimony is of untold value to those of us remaining. One of his messages to the people is: "Tell the people if I have ever done them any wrong I want to be forgiven."

The following texts were given him or quoted to him from which he received help and especially the last two: Ps. 37:5, "Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass." Job 23:21, "Acquaint now thyself with Him, and be at peace; thereby good shall come to thee." I John 1:9, "If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." John 14:27, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." Isa. 55:6-7, "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near." "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him, and unto our God, for He will abundantly pardon."

His message to Mrs. Butler in answer to the last two texts quoted which she sent him was: "They did me more good than anything said," and asked her parents to convey his thanks to her for them.

"I heard the parting pilgrim say While passing Jordan's stormy waters: 'Adieu to earth for all is well, All is well with me forever.'"

Haw, Haw!

"It says here that if you want to develop anything you should exercise it regularly," said the Old Fogey, as he looked up from the newspaper he was reading. "Huh!" commented the Grouch. "If that was a fact, a woman's jaw would be as big as her chest."—Cincinnati Enquirer.
