

Locals and Personals

Mrs. J. C. McCrea expects to leave here Friday for a visit at Bend.

Charles D. Frick returned a few days ago from a trip to Michigan.

Mrs. Henry Ehret spent a part of last week visiting relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Boothby and two sons left Tuesday for The Dalles where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oriand Vantress are here from Timber visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira K. Vantress.

Mrs. D. J. Matthews is visiting her father at his home at Puyallup, Washington, he being in declining health.

The city council is making a war on the plank walks about town and say they must all be replaced with cement.

Mrs. Frank W. Curtis, Miss Leona and Master Joe spent a few days last week visiting friends at Mountain Top and Hillsboro.

Harvey L. Livingston was taken to a Portland hospital Monday. He has been suffering for some time with a serious case of blood poison.

Mrs. F. K. Jones, of Santa Paula, California, daughter of J. L. Hoskins, came last Saturday for a visit and will probably remain a month or more.

Mrs. S. M. King, former Newberg milliner, who spent the winter with her daughter in Alaska, is now stopping with friends near Puyallup, Washington.

Miss Myrtle McDonald, who was one of the typists at the cannery last season, has secured a position with the John Deere implement firm in Portland.

The funeral of J. C. Wills, the Civil War veteran who had been in failing health for a long time, was held at the Friends church on last Sunday afternoon.

Dr. H. A. Littlefield, who has been confined to his home for the past three weeks, is said to be showing marked improvement.

In a note from W. Y. Arthur, now of Baker, he says the father of Mrs. Arthur died at Astoria, burial being made at Lone Fir Cemetery, Portland, June 29.

John J. Gilbert, with his brother and daughter who are here from New Castle, Indiana, and Mrs. M. P. Elliott, have gone to Newport to get a sight of the Pacific.

Mrs. T. H. Thorne was visited this week by her sisters, Mrs. M. W. Kester, of Portland, and Mrs. C. H. Seely and her daughter, Mrs. Kate Allen, of Pomeroy, Washington.

Frank Baird, a brother of E. C. Baird, his wife and son, Clifford, of Durant, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Verdie Nolan, of Dallas, Texas, who spent two weeks here, left for their homes Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crites are rejoicing over the coming of their first grandchild, a son, born to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Singletary, of Multnomah, last Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Berlin, of Inglewood, California, who has been visiting at Powell, Wyoming, and in Iowa, and who is now on her way home, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. G. H. Behrens.

Mrs. C. E. Culler and daughter, Miss Ethelwyn, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, are here visiting Mrs. J. R. Mitchell. Mrs. Culler and Mrs. Mitchell were girlhood friends during their school days.

Charles Ruthruff, of Seaside, came in the first of the week for a visit with the Miniers and to look for a job at carpentering. He says there is not much doing in the way of building at Seaside at the present time.

Master Joe Curtis is spending a few days with friends on Chehalis Mountain.

Miss Eva L. Ferree, of Salem, was a week end visitor with relatives in Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schick visited Sunday with his brother, Fred, out in the Fernwood neighborhood.

Cleveland Smith came out from Portland and spent the greater part of last week visiting with former friends.

Elder B. J. Cady was over from LaPayette Tuesday where he is doing home missionary work for the Seventh Day Adventists.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bissett have returned from Marysville, California, where he held a position as physical director in the high school the past year.

Miss Ethel Dobbins came out from Portland Tuesday and will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dobbins, and other friends until after the Fourth.

Prof. Floyd Perisho returned from Seabeck, Washington, the first of the week but left at once for Newport to attend the Young Friends Conference.

As may be noted in an announcement in another column, Enos Ellis is planning to operate his motor bus between Newberg and Tillamook for carrying passengers.

C. C. Curry was here from Mountain View, California, last week, visiting his brother, J. W. Curry, who is one of the linemen with the Yamhill Electric Co.

Meritt Timberlake, who visited with his aunt, Mrs. Sam Davis, at Willamina, recently, says he is expecting to return for an extended visit in a short time.

The H. G. Crocker family, of Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Carter were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sliver one evening the first of the week.

Col. M. P. Peacock, brother-in-law of R. M. Thurston, who came from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, to attend the Shriners Convention in Portland last week, is here on a visit.

John Rader, who took the back track for his former home in Ohio some time ago, is located in Columbus. Of course John will be whooping it up for the native son, Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Keeney have a letter from their son-in-law, Lester Wright, telling of his safe arrival at his former home in Indiana where he found his father improved in health.

Mrs. B. L. Duncan left Sunday evening for San Francisco to be at the bedside of her brother who has been confined in a hospital in that city since his return from service in France.

C. H. Christenson was here Wednesday on his way from Corvallis to Eugene where he has engaged to carry mail on the Star route between Eugene and Crow, a distance of thirty miles.

Howard Elliott and Miss Helen Ellis, who failed to inform the Graphic of their marriage, which occurred some ten days ago, are making their home in Portland where he has a job.

Clarence Kienle has been here from Grants Pass during the week where he located a short time ago. He says it looks mighty good to get back to a country where the green is in the trees.

Miss Helen Mendenhall left here a few days ago for a visit with relatives in Idaho and Nebraska. Miss Pearl Greeve, who had been here on a visit, went with her as far as her home at Greentree, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Spaulding and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swart plan to leave here Friday for a trip by auto to the Tillamook beaches, returning by way of Seaside, Astoria and Portland, and arriving home Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. B. Fine, who grew up in Newberg as Hazel Comer, is here from East Tennessee for a visit of a couple of months with her mother, Mrs. Lewis Crozer. Mr. Fine is manager of a clothing store for his father.

I. W. Brown, who lives out on the Portland road, concluded to take a short vacation before berry and cherry picking, and consequently went for a visit with relatives about Aurora and Butteville the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Christenson, of Portland, Andrew Christenson, of Sydney, Montana, and Mr. and Mrs. Sholtz, of Wilsonville, were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Noah Lapp, the latter formerly known as Mrs. Sarah Christenson.

President John D. Mills and family and Miss Helen Hester went to Newport Monday to attend the Young Friends Conference. Pres. Mills being on the program for a lecture each day. They will probably be away over Sunday.

It Will Pay You To Give a Thought to Your EYES

For many people go through life with Headaches, and Nervous, never feeling good, just because of eye strain.

Many of these people believe their eyes are free from strain because their eyes do not hurt. This is the reason that many people go through life miserable, never dreaming all their trouble is caused because their eyes are robbing nerve force from other parts of their body. Negligence is costly.

C. A. MORRIS
JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST
Newberg, Oregon

Mrs. Cox and daughter, from Heppner, are visiting Mrs. Cox's sister, Mrs. Boothby, and her brothers, Harry and Holmes Hayman. It is the first time in thirty years that these brothers and sisters have all been together.

Will Schick, who has been working at the Spaulding mill on the river, had his upper lip badly cut Tuesday by a flying silver, requiring a number of stitches and a liberal pasting of court plaster to put the flesh and skin back into place.

Tom Tyndall, who arrived home from his trip to Yosemite the first of the week, says they don't use any canned heat down that way. It is all turned loose and has much the effect of furnace heat. While there he met Dale Butt and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Horner.

After waiting these many years for the coming of an offspring and heir, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kendrick, of the Kendrick grocery, on June 12, and yet the fond father failed to apprise the Graphic of the fact—too young and timid, probably.

Mrs. Faith E. Vincent, who spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Millard, left Saturday for her home at Newport, Washington. She was accompanied by Mrs. Millard, who will visit friends there for a week. Mr. and Millard were former Newport residents.

Mrs. Cynthia Hatfield, who sold her farm in Idaho a year ago and went to her girlhood home at Mooresville, Indiana, for a visit of eight months, has been here during the week visiting relatives. She and her son, Macy, expect to spend the summer at Dayton.

L. L. Ernst, who owns the largest peach orchard in the country, located on Horse Shoe Lake across the river in Marion county, was in the Graphic office a few days ago and said he would have a crop of peaches this season. Last year he had an enormous crop from which he sold thousands of boxes and many went to waste on the ground toward the last of the season.

Mrs. Alice Garrigus, a daughter of John E. Smith, died in the Adventist Hospital in Portland, last Sunday, leaving a husband and four children. Her age was 45 years. She had been in declining health for a year or more and several physicians who examined her were unable to locate the trouble. Burial was made at Banks, in Washington county, where the family home is.

J. P. SOPER
804 East First St.
Newberg, Oregon

Phone Black 220

- PAINTS
- OILS
- VARNISHES
- ROOFING PAPER
- WALL FELT
- WALL PAPER
- KALSOMINE
- HOUSE PAINT
- BARN PAINT
- AUTO PAINT
- WAGON PAINT
- TRACTOR PAINT
- BRUSHES
- GLASS
- ENAMELS
- FLOOR PAINT
- PORCH PAINT
- WALL BOARD
- PLASTER BOARD
- SHINGLE STAINS
- ROOF PAINT
- INTERIOR WOOD STAINS

Painting, Paper Hanging and Kalsomining

DO YOU Cook With Electricity? Why?

Because it beats all known fuels in cleanliness, comfort, safety, and labor saving. Special rate, 4 cents per kilo watt hour. Ask those who use an Electric Range. They are numerous and all are satisfied. It is real Economy.

Yamhill Electric Company

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

ONCE A MAN, WHO DIDN'T BELIEVE IN BANKS WAS PLOWING AND HE PLOWED UP A TIN CAN CONTAINING $500.00 THAT HAD BEEN BURIED BY SOME OTHER MAN WHO DID NOT BELIEVE IN BANKING HIS MONEY.

THAT $500 IS IN THE BANK NOW ALONG WITH MONEY THAT THE SAID FARMER RECEIVED FOR HIS CROP.

OUR BANK IS A SAFE PLACE FOR YOUR MONEY.

PUT YOUR MONEY IN OUR BANK
YOU WILL RECEIVE INTEREST ON TIME DEPOSITS

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
NEWBERG, OREGON

Harry Miller says he has about a dozen White Leghorn pullets that are laying, one of which laid her first egg at the age of three months and thirteen days.

W. E. Crozer is doubling the capacity of the house on the Charley Baker place out northeast of town, which he bought for a home a short time ago, by putting up an addition to it.

A news note from Pendleton says that the first funeral to be held there for an overseas man who died in France will be that of Corporal Fred W. Kees, who died January 13, 1919. The deceased was a son of Mrs. T. H. Thorne, of Newberg. The Security Benefit Association gave a big feed Wednesday evening when twelve new members were initiated. The staff and officers of Kirkpatrick 2227 lodge of Portland came out to officiate, and were met on their arrival and escorted to the hall, the Newberg band heading the procession.

Frank Evans was down from Salem for a visit with relatives Tuesday and Wednesday, looking a bit lantern jawed from the effects of night work on a linotype machine in the office of the Statesman. Mrs. Evans and the twins have been making a visit with her sister in Eastern Oregon.

Charles E. Burke, who is working with the Oskar Huber Construction Co. again this season in road work at Corvallis, came down the latter part of last week to meet and welcome to Oregon his brother-in-law, W. A. Hudson, and family, who came from St. Paul, Minnesota, expecting to locate.

Russell Dimond and family drove out from Portland Sunday for a visit with Mrs. A. J. Bishop, the latter going to the city in the evening with them for a visit. Mrs. Bishop returned home Tuesday afternoon, bringing with her, Miss Ramona Dimond and her little grandson, George Richard Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haworth are home from Healdsburg, California, where he taught in the high school the past year. He was offered the place for next year at an increased salary but has accepted a position for work in the Pasadena high school and expects to take some summer school work in O. A. C. Ellis Pickett will remain at Healdsburg another year.

Don't You Love Violets?

The Violet Dulce Toilet Preparations give you an opportunity to carry the delightful odor of fresh violets through your entire toilet.

There is—

Violet Dulce

TOILET WATER
COLD CREAM
FACE POWDER
VANISHING
CREAM
TALCUM, SOAP
ROUGE, ETC.

A breath of Spring on your dressing table

LYNN B. FERGUSON
Druggist
The Rexall Store
NEWBERG, ORE.

Ohmart's Grocery

Come and See Our Big List of Bargains

YOU WILL LIKE IT

BECAUSE IT IS THE BEST THAT CAN BE PRODUCED

FOLGER'S GOLDEN GATE COFFEE

1/2 LB. TIN GIVEN WITH EACH 2 1/2 LB. TIN
1 LB. TIN GIVEN WITH EACH 5 LB. TIN

SPECIAL SALE JULY 2D AND 3D

You Must Be Careful

Accidents will occur. When they do, you must be sure to dress the wounds carefully. Not to do so may mean blood poison and death. We carry a full line of first-aid supplies such as

Bandages      Adhesive Plaster
Salves          Liniments
Disinfectants      Medicated Cotton

All of them simple, effective helps which you should keep on hand for emergencies in your home.

Graham's Drug Store

Phone White 113

Eastman Kodaks

Nyals Medicines