W. Hays family out toward West Chehalis. On their return in the evening, Miss Mary Johnson, of the Pacific College commercial department, a former Illinois friend, went with them for a visit.

Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Van Dyke, who have been away from Newberg for more than a year, arrived home last Sunday afternoon. They went as far east as Pennsylvania and Virginia and covered about 10,000 miles in their Dodge car over all sorts of roads and without accident, the only damage to the machine being a broken axle. They say they witnessed many wonderful things but saw nothing that appealed to them as do the natural beauties of Oregon.

Mrs. Julia Jones, who bought the old Commercial Hotel building, located on North Main street, some months ago and remodeled it for a rooming and apartment house, has sold it to A. A. Anderson, of Oregon City, and is moving to Oregon City, where she has a home. She says she has done well with the house and is highly pleased with Newberg, and her only reason for selling was that the work was too heavy for her. The price she received for the property was $8,000.
