ARRESTED AFTER ELUDING OFFICERS FOR 15 YEARS

On Monday morning Deputy Sheriff H. R. Morris, accompanied by George Kelly, started out to locate and arrest one James E. Bressil, who was wanted in California to answer a charge of having at Eureka, in that state, raised a $40 check to $100, fifteen years ago, since which time the California officers had tried in vain to secure his arrest.

With the faintest of clues to guide them, the Newberg men headed their car north and in due time picked up a trail which they followed in its devious ways for many miles through the hills, from Washington County into Tillamook and Columbia Counties it led, and when the shades of night fell they were far from home, and the long sought and much wanted fugitive was not yet in sight, but the officers were not discouraged and with grim determination pursued their quest until about 11 o'clock P. M. they drove into Portland and soon thereafter succeeded in locating and arresting their man. The chase which had led them into six counties, and which covered nearly 200 miles was ended and the Newberg men were justly elated at having effected the capture of a slippery fugitive who had baffled and evaded so many other officers for 15 years past. The prisoner was brought to Newberg, arriving at about one o'clock A. M., and was taken thence to McMinnville and placed in jail in default of $4,000 bail.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

A wedding of interest to Newberg people took place on Wednesday evening at the Methodist church in Forest Grove when Mary Gertrude Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen, became the wife of Ralph A. Butt of this city, Rev. Gould, formerly of Newberg, officiating.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Randall sang "At Dawning" after which the bridal procession approached the altar, which was a bower of greens and flowers, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Aileen Hoffman.

The couple was attended by four bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Alleyn Johnson as maid of honor, Frank Miller as best man, a tiny flower girl and ring bearer.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a veil arranged with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses, while the maid of honor wore blue satin and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids wore pink dresses and large picture hats.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors which were beautifully decorated with greens and large bouquets of roses, and dainty refreshments were served. The Newberg guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Butt, Dale Butt, U. S. G. Miller, Miss Mabel Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Keeney, Chester Zumwalt and V. V. Gould.

After a honeymoon spent at Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Butt will make their home in Newberg, where their friends will be glad to welcome them and wish them an abundance of happiness.

A guest.

W. C. T. U. ENTERTAINMENT

Chehalam Center W. C. T. U. entertained the Yamhill County convention at the school house last Thursday. A goodly number of ladies attended.

Mrs. Elizabeth McCart, of McMinnville, co-president, presided.

It was the pleasure of the convention to have Mrs. Mary Mallett, of Portland, present, a veritable encyclopedia of knowledge.

Beside being called upon several times she gave a most interesting and instructive talk on our most important department of work, "Child Welfare."

If we can only catch the vision as she tried to help us to see, and then do what we find to do, willingly and thoroughly what a move toward giving to every child the right that is his—to be well born—to be educated—to be protected from child labor—to be morally safeguarded—to be spiritually trained. Nothing but organized mother-love will reach these goals, and no organization is as well equipped to do this work as the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The officers elected for the ensuing year. For President, Mrs. Patey of McMinnville. For Recorder and Correspondence Secretary, Mrs. Lillian Welter, Newberg. For Treasurer, Miss Lura Barnum, McMinnville.

FORMER NEWBERG MAN VISITS THE OLD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reese, of California, arrived in Newberg Sunday night and departed for their home on Monday night. All the older citizens will remember Mr. Reese as he came to this vicinity in 1887, and helped put Newberg on the map during the succeeding years of his residence here. Mr. Reese left Newberg about 20 years ago for a position in the Land Department of the Southern Pacific Railroad, a place which he has occupied to the present time. Mr. Reese resides in California, but his office is located just over the line in Mexico, and although he has been located there so many years, and is well known by this time, still he is required to show his passport every time he crosses the line to go to and return from his home.

LETTER FROM PROF. PERISHO.

Rev. Fred. Carter received the following letter from Prof. Perisho, who is occupying Rev. Carter's cottage at Wood, Ore., while on a vacation.

Dear friend:
We are located. We are fed. We are cool. We are happy.

I went after clams Saturday. I carried one hundred fine clams from the clam bed to the cottage with only one stop. Too much clam, not enough stop. Am awfully empty most of the time since. The sun shone on my bathing suit. Then there were other places. It shone there too. I like big soft pillows in the big rocker, and I sleep mostly on my face.

Haven't seen the ocean yet. They say there is one here. Must look it up.

Do not know when we will go out, probably Monday, August 30. Will let you know later.

They arrived home Wednesday evening after having had an exceptionally good time and securing more than 40 trout.

Mrs. Rorabaugh was happily surprised this week to receive a visit from her brother who is engaged in railroad business at Tucson, Arizona. This being his first visit in 21 years. Mr. Rorabaugh is also visiting his sister Mrs. D. E. Fortune of this city, whom he had not seen for 34 years. He expects to return here next year and will probably be induced to become a permanent resident of Newberg.

Wm. Clemmens at Washington and Hancock street, is justly incensed at some evil disposed person or persons, who have recently been destroying and carrying away some of his choicest flowers. Mr. Clemmens is a great lover of flowers and takes pride in the care and cultivation of the many beautiful species to be found at his home. The handsome dahlias, which border his premises on the Hancock street side had attracted unusual attention on account of their size and wonderful colors, and he had been requested to furnish a bouquet of the same for Republican headquarters at Portland. Mr. Clemmens, always generous in giving bouquets, agreed to comply with the request, and intended to take the flowers to Portland today, but alas, some miscreant had seen and marked the largest and finest of the dahlias, and on Tuesday night carried them away, greatly to the regret of their owner, whose chief regret is that a person capable of committing such an act should be found in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Hill will leave Sunday in their machine for southern Oregon, for a two weeks outing. Both are good rifle shots, and expect to hunt deer in the mountains near Crater Lake. Mrs. Hill claims that she will be the one who will bring home the venison.

Prof. John E. Kienle and wife of Los Angeles, Cal., are the guests of Rev. G. E. Kienle and family this week. Prof. Kienle is principal of the high school at Colton, Cal., a position he has filled for some years past, while his wife has been teaching in the Southern California University. Prof. and Mrs. Kienle have visited in Vancouver, Wn. and while here will avail themselves of the opportunity of going over the Columbia River Highway in company with Rev. Kienle, his uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wassam and daughter Georgia, have just returned from Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Wassam having had a very delightful trip in automobile, over the mountains with their son, Roy H. Wassam, of Salem. While there Mrs. Wassam experienced a nice ride in the aeroplane, Webfoot, from Salem, flying around Newport and returning to Nye Beach. She says that it is a very thrilling sensation, especially when they turned around and dropped down. Mr. Wassam claims to be a very good fisherman, having caught three small and one large fish.

Through a misunderstanding in which the Graphic was not wholly to blame, mention of the Hull weddings was omitted last week. On August 11, Miss Ruth Romig and Prof. Alexander Hull were quietly married at the home of the bride.

Rev. Gibson, pastor of the Methodist church officiating. The bride is the daughter of Dr. E. A. Romig. She is a member of the class of 1905, Pacific College and has filled a place on the faculty of the Newberg High school for several years.

Prof. Hull is head of the music department of Pacific College and is the author of a number of songs which he has published. He has also acquired a name as a short story writer, his stories having appeared in several of the leading magazines.

Time's Changes in Bisbee.

Bisbee, Ariz., where is now heard the honk of the modern automobile, the tick of wrist watches and the wall of silk hose of all colors extending over the tops of $15 shoes, was entirely different 16 years ago, reminisces a writer in the Review of Bisbee. Then the hard-working miner had to struggle for hours to get a seat at a poker table or a "look in" at a faro game.

Main street was once one of the liveliest thoroughfares in the western hemisphere, saloons, gilded and otherwise, having been the honored business enterprises which lined both sides of the street. If anybody had predicted that a street railway would at some future time run through the center of Main street, or that it would some day become as dry and arid as the Sahara and Gobi deserts, he would immediately have been taken before a lunacy commission.

The fussy stationmaster found a fellow villager standing with his feet on the edge of the platform, nonchalantly smoking.

"Don't you know," said the ticket master, "that the Chicago express will go by there in a minute at the rate of sixty miles an hour?"

The other slowly turned his head and taking the pipe out of his mouth, replied: "You're darned fer your train."—Chicago Daily News.
