

Jay Cooke

While a poor clerk in a Philadelphia bank he got his start to wealth and honor by investing his own savings and practicing thrift. During the Civil war he raised one billion dollars for the federal government. Cooke was a great financier in his time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan are the proud parents of a son born August 20.

Miss Elsie Tangen returned home Saturday from an outing in the mountains with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mann motored down from Washington last week to visit their brother and family, G. W. Mann.

Mrs. Ruth Cate and Miss Jane Hall of Portland are out to spend some time at "The Elders," the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hess a daughter. The family have come in from near Meadow Lake, and are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hess.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walton, the Misses Myrtle and Edith, motored over to Hood River, last week to make an extended visit with Maurice and Robert Walton, on their timber claim.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Reetz, Miss Vivian and little Arvon Reetz of Junction City, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rodgers and Master Russell, of Newberg, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Marie Christianson Sunday evening.

The county convention of the W. C. T. U. was held here last Thursday at the school house. It was an all day meeting, picnic dinner. There was a good attendance, there being a number of delegates from Newberg and McMinnville, besides the home folks. Mrs. Mallett of Portland gave an address on child welfare in the afternoon.

DUNDEE.

Miss L. May Wetherell of Portland has been a recent guest at Otterbrook.

W. J. Bennett and family enjoyed the Columbia River Highway trip on Tuesday.

Misses Anna L. Christopher and Rose I. Young have returned from an outing at Bay City.

Misses Selly Beck and Frances Rocchi are home from a visit with Miss Beck's sister at Elgin, Washington.

Mrs. Charlotte P. Hodgins of Spokane has returned home after spending the month with her daughter Mrs. E. S. Greer.

The maple tree at Otterbrook gave welcome coolness to a carpetbag bee on one of the recent very warm days. About four p. m. the workers struck and demanded tea. So Angie served it from the little china teaset she had when a child. The little(?) girls present were Corrie Greer, Lottie Hodgins, Lida Goddard, May Wetherell, Lou Sahm, and Angie Greer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Silaby of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Riefenberg of Portland were Sunday callers at Robin Lodge, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roë R. Robinson. Mr. Robinson drove over to Pacific City the last of the week and brought home his mother, who had been spending some time there. All the chains that Mr. Robinson's car would stand for were brought into use, and even then, part of the trip over the mountain was none too easy.

Park Hill Home, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allan was the scene of a family gathering, a week end house party from Friday evening until Sunday evening. Those enjoying the occasion were relatives from Carlton, Yamhill, Portland, and Vancouver, Washington. Those present at the Sunday dinner were, Mrs. Sarah A. Bryan, Hugh Bryan, Mrs. Leslie Bryan, Keneth Bryan, James Bryan, Gale Bryan, Mrs. Minnie Champlin, Bert Champlin, Ardeth Champlin, Velma Champlin, Doras Champlin, Mrs. Elizabeth Brooks, Miss Minnie Brooks, Kenton Brooks, Eugene Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Hornberger, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Allan, Miss Isabella Allan, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allan. Little baby Ray, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Allan, occupied the seat of honor.

REX.

Mrs. Reed Chambers and son, of Salem, are visiting Rex friends.

The community aid society meets Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. D. Frost.

Mrs. L. A. Day, from Portland, has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wherlin, who spent the month of August at Seaside, returned home the first of the week.

Miss Marie Hanson, who spent her vacation here with Mrs. Eves, returned to her home in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Peters has sold her property to C. C. Wiley, of Nebraska and the later has also bought a ten acre prune orchard of Mrs. Hannon, of Newberg.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday, August 25, when Miss Halcyon Wiley was married to Dennis Mills, of Springbrook. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Carl Miller at the home of N. L. Wiley, the father of the bride. The service was read beneath an improvised arch of evergreens and flowers. The bride was charming in a gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Miss Mary Jones played the wedding march. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Mills will make their home at Springbrook.

SPRINGBROOK

Miss Daisy Newhouse will go to La Grande in about a week to take up her school work for the coming year.

Carpenters commenced work on the parsonage this week. They will raise the roof and enlarge the upper rooms and add a bath room.

Mrs. Nettie Carr and Miss Westley, of Alliance, Nebraska, spent several days the past week at the home of their cousin Mr. C. E. Newhouse.

Rev. Perry D. Macy and wife and little son arrived in Springbrook, and are visiting Mr. Macy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Macy. He will teach in Pacific College this year.

Mayor and Mrs. John S. Buttner and little daughter of Rockwell City, Iowa, are guest this week at the C. D. Childs home. They have been traveling through Canada, and the great Northwest, but think the Willamette valley is about the most attractive of any part of the country they have seen.

LEADS IN MINERAL WEALTH

United States Easily First in Metals of Greatest Importance to the World's Industries.

This country of ours possesses more mineral wealth than any other nation, though Great Britain (including what she controls) is a close second.

We lead the world with 37 per cent of all the iron and 35 per cent of all the coal. These, of course, are most important. We own or control 72 per cent of all the petroleum.

Copper is the great American metal. We produce 64 per cent of the entire world's yield of that invaluable substance. Of lead we produce 49 per cent and of zinc 32 per cent.

England is away ahead of us where gold is concerned. We produce only 23 per cent of this precious stuff, whereas Great Britain's output amounts to 63 per cent.

On the other hand, we claim 52 per cent of the silver—the Mexican output being under our commercial control—and it is actually in the power of our government to make the market price of the white metal whatever Uncle Sam chooses.

Of the world's sulphur we produce 65 per cent. But we have no tin worth mentioning (a serious misfortune) and little potash. Now, however, the potash supply is no longer controlled by Germany, territory recently relinquished to France containing a large part of the deposits of that mineral salt.—Philadelphia Ledger

ADOBE AS BUILDING MATERIAL

Experiments Have Shown, It Is Claimed, Durability of This Old and Inexpensive Material.

Adobe, the oldest known building material in southern California, is due for a revival, according to John W. Chard, Santa Barbara architect. He asserts that if properly prepared this native material can be used to very considerably cut the cost of building.

"Experiments," says Mr. Chard, "have shown that adobe is the least affected by changes of temperature among all the building materials. Tests show that adobe bricks register no more than six degrees difference between February cold and extreme September heat. As a building material it is far stronger than is generally supposed, and develops a compressive strength as high as 400 pounds to the square inch.

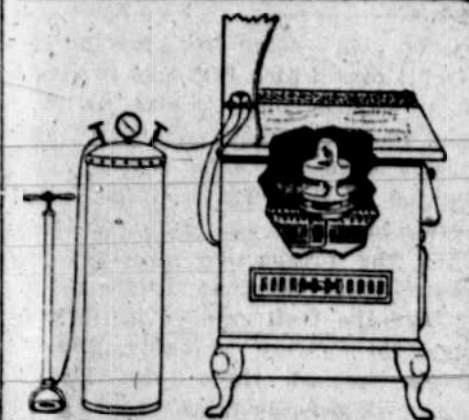

"The proper plaster protection will insure an adobe wall against deterioration. Hard cement plaster thoroughly anchored into the walls and treated with an all-mineral water-proofing compound will give adobe walls great durability.

"Adobe is wet soft mixed with straw, cast into molds of required size and left to dry in the sun. As a building material adobe is everlasting, soundproof, nonconductive and fire-proof, always of normal temperature, and is cool in summer and warm in winter."—Los Angeles Times.

His Girl.

During a visit to a girl friend of mine in another city I was kind to a half witted fellow there, and he immediately conceived a great liking for me. Several months later while visiting there again I attended a dance, when this fellow came up to me during a dance and in a loud voice, easily heard all over the place, said, "O, I know who you are, you're my girl," and proceeded to follow me around the rest of the evening.—Exchange
