

Benjamin Franklin

This great American statesman, who stood with George Washington in the Revolutionary war, was the son of a poor Boston soapmaker. He started in the printing business for himself in early manhood, worked hard, lived frugally and saved his money. He had plenty to live on when old age came.

Take your cue from Franklin. Join the legion of people whose savings are growing in our bank. Enjoy the satisfaction of watching the pennies become dollars and the dollars hundreds.

See your fortress rise against the possible attacks of sickness or misfortune. Lay the foundation with a part of this week's earnings.

Multiply your money in our care.

DUNDEE.

The prune harvest has started and that means almost no news, for every man, woman, and child in the community will be busy for weeks picking and drying the one hundred per cent crop.

"Far the best entertainment that we have seen for many a year," is the enthusiastic way in which one of the attendants at the entertainment Friday evening expressed herself. It was indeed, a fine program and Mrs. Anna Smith who was the instructor for the pageant is receiving congratulations upon the beautiful staging of the play and the excellent manner in which each young participant brought the message. Every part was given with an impressive and sweet appeal, even to that taken by tiny Marguerite Reynolds, the youngest member of the cast.

Several Newberg friends added to the pleasure of the evening, Mrs. Babcock with her beautiful voice, Miss Mabel Miller at the piano and Mr. Glenn Taylor with his violin. Miss Frances Rocchi, of Dundee, who always touches the hearts of her hearers with the wonderful way in which she makes the piano sing, sad and sweet and gay bits from the masters, also gave her talent for the evening. The program opened and closed with two selections by the Dundee orchestra, our own home talent of which we are justly proud. Those in charge of the entertainment as well as those who enjoyed the beautiful program extend their thanks to the Newberg friends, the Dundee Orchestra, and Miss Rocchi.

Following is the program as rendered:

The spirit of America, Miss Gladys Johnson; The spirit of Christianity, Miss May Groth; Doorkeeper, Myrie Venable; An Indian group, speaker Mrs. Hazel Kay; A "Mountain White" group, speaker, Miss Ruth Bennett; Italian group, speaker, Miss Hermena Fankhouser; Deaconess, Miss Grace Johnson; Chinese group, speaker, Miss Vila Kay; Eskimo Family, speaker, Miss Opal Hess; Hawaiian group, speaker, Miss Hazel Anderson; Tithers, Marguerite, and Evelyn Reynolds, and Charlotte, and Anna Thun; Educational group, Robert, and William Coleman; Prayer group, Elizabeth Bennett.

Keep Your Battery Young

The only tonic any battery needs is a little charging now and then. Square treatment and a drink of water once a week go a long way toward keeping it in tip-top shape.

You can be sure your battery is new when you get it if it has Threaded Rubber Insulation—the kind selected by 136 manufacturers of passenger cars and motor trucks.
