

Locals and Personals

Mrs. Anna Harris has gone to some point in Washington where she will teach this year.

E. A. Hall is planning his annual trip to the Alberta country to look after his ranch.

Miss Violet Pfeister, of Portland, is spending the week with Mrs. Maggie Littlefield.

Hobart Littlefield came out from Portland and spent the week end with his mother.

The Misses Beulah Welter and Ruth Huntington, of Portland, spent Sunday at the home of the former, 402 Dayton avenue.

Miss A. V. Black, candidate for the office of County School Superintendent, was over from Yamhill Wednesday getting acquainted with the people.

F. G. Christie and son, Earl, who have returned from a trip to Grants Pass, on a motorcycle, declare they will never take another until the roads are better.

The Methodist Episcopal church, easy to find, easy to like, cordially invites the citizens of Newberg and the traveling public to attend any and all its services. Chas. E. Gibson, pastor.

Mrs. Mary A. Phipps, the mother of Ray Phipps, has sold her Newberg property and is going east for an extended visit with relatives but says she will probably return to Newberg later and build a cottage for a home.

Prof. F. W. Perisho spent last week at Greenleaf, Idaho, in the interest of student attendance at Pacific College, which will open for the new year on September 27th, and he brought back good reports from that section.

Paul L. Neumeir of the Y. M. C. A. will speak in the Methodist Church Sunday evening at 8 p. m. Mr. Neumeir is a most interesting speaker and has an up-to-date message for every one. Such messages as his will give one both an inspiration and an uplift.

An enjoyable time was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Heyland Tuesday evening, the occasion being a "farewell" for F. L. Ames by the members of the adult Bible class of the M. E. Sunday school and a few invited friends. About thirty were in attendance. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the class.

Mrs. George Putman, who spent several days here visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Pettingell, left for her home in Minneapolis Tuesday evening.

Floyd Parker is down from Tuner looking almost as hale and hearty as a broncho buster, as a result of the season's work in the great outdoors of the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cumpston, who were Newberg residents for a number of years, are here from Sellwood visiting her brother, W. W. Hollingsworth and family.

Sneak thieves seem to be unusually diligent in Newberg of late. Jesse Cook's residence on Wynooki street was entered recently while the family was away and Mrs. Cook's watch and other articles were taken.

Rev. Oscar Huddleston, returned missionary from the Philippines mentioned last week, has traded some fruit acreage he owned out north of Newberg to L. Oldenberg for residence property located on the corner of Third and Edwards street.

Hubert Armstrong, who has been chief janitor and all round handy man at Pacific College for the past two years, returned to Newberg the first of the week from Roseburg where he spent the vacation season working with one of his brothers on a ranch, and is at work putting the college buildings and grounds in shape for the opening, September 27.

Claude S. Woodward received a letter a few days ago from his friend, Alva Gulley, of Fowler, Kansas, in which the latter stated that he was shipping a car of personal effects to Newberg and that he and his family and his son and wife would come through in autos. All told there will be about ten people in the party.

At a meeting of the Permanent Board of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends church held in Newberg on Friday night of last week Rev. L. A. Wells, of Greenleaf, Idaho, and Rev. Fred E. Carter, of Newberg, were appointed as delegates to attend a church conference which is to be held at Richmond, Indiana, September 22-24. Accordingly Mr. Carter left here Wednesday morning for Richmond. Rev. L. Clarkson Hinshaw, evangelistic superintendent, will also attend the conference.

Will Christenson was out from Portland Sunday visiting with relatives.

Walter A. Frost, president of the A. Rupert Co. Inc., was out from Portland Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Killen were over from Carlton Wednesday showing their friends the new baby.

Since their arrival home, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gordon have been busy putting things in shape at their new home on Dayton avenue.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Carl Miller, of Springbrook, will speak at the Friends church Sunday morning and Rev. Perry Macy in the evening.

F. B. Lewis who came in from the Alberta country some days ago has joined the army of home seekers with a view of getting his children into the Newberg schools.

E. W. Mueller was down from Rickreall Tuesday wearing a Maine election return smile that was visible a block away, but it was all on account of that first-born son that was recently reported in the Mueller household.

Frank Godfrey came from Seattle on Thursday of last week for a visit with his sister, Mrs. John Blake and Mrs. A. J. Bishop. Mrs. Beale Morphis, of Spokane, a niece of Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Bishop, also came in on Saturday for a visit.

Miss Edith Hall, who has been doing Federal department work in Seattle, and who will return soon to her former position with the Department of Commerce at Washington, D. C. is expected to arrive in Newberg Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. F. R. Rundell, before leaving for Washington.

Rev. and Mrs. Brouillette, former residents of Newberg, were given a surprise on last Sunday at their home in Portland, 822 Capital ave., by the families of their children and grand children, thirty in all. The gathering was occasioned by the proposed departure of Rev. and Mrs. Brouillette for Indianapolis to attend the G. A. R. and W. R. C. National Encampment. Before they return they expect to visit friends and relatives in several different states.

A meeting of the Yamhill county automobile dealers has been called for Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock at the rooms of the Commercial Club in McMinnville. The purpose of the meeting is for the organization of the auto dealers of the county as a unit of the state organization. To date fifteen county organizations have been formed with a membership of more than two hundred.

The fattest calf is in the pot at the Vernon T. Hinshaw home on south Meridian street and "mother's good cooking" will be in evidence during the week. The oldest son, Virgil, who has been in France and England for the past two years, arrived home the first of the week, and the son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Replogle, who have been engaged in government school work with the Kotzebue Eskimos in the far north above the Arctic Circle for the past two years are expected to come in on any train, now.

Miss Irene Hodgkin, who is teaching on an island in the Columbia River at Clatskanie, is rapidly acquainting herself with outdoor life in Oregon, since she has a walk of two and a half miles to and from her boarding place and has a dozen farm gates to open and shut on the way. And it is a safe guess that three fourths of them drag on the ground. Two deer have crossed her path already and since this is the open season for bear and "painters," Miss Hodgkin's friends will not be surprised to see her pictured any Sunday, now, in the Oregonian, on her way to shoot with hunting knife and six-shooter swinging from her belt, knowing as they do her disposition for grit and determination, despite her petite form.

A number of the friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dean out northwest of Newberg, on last Saturday, the occasion being a surprise pre-nuptial shower for their daughter, Miss Minnie, whose approaching marriage will be an event of the near future. The gifts were arranged in a decorated basket placed on a child's wagon, the wagon being drawn by little Joe Hoots Jr. who was dressed in the regulation evening costume of a society gentlemen. He was accompanied by little Dorothy Strait in bridal finery, carrying a bouquet of red roses, which she presented to the bride-to-be. Music was furnished for the occasion by the Misses Elsie and Gladys Sharp at the piano and Mrs. Howard George, violinist. A number of vocal selections were rendered. Refreshments of cake, coffee and sandwiches were served, and the departed extending to Miss Dean their best wishes for her future happiness. The name of the young man in the case has not been furnished the Graphic.

H. S. Britt left Wednesday on a business trip to Susanville, California.

Malcolm Gilbert was here the first of the week visiting at the M. P. Elliott home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurd of Portland, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Maynard.

Dr. H. C. Dixon, who chaperoned a big party of deer hunters out in Southern Oregon says they bagged 16.

Mrs. Houghton entertained a number of her friends at their home on Fifth street Wednesday, in honor of her 91st birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Everest spent last week at Netarts by the seashore and on their return brought in a winter's supply of salmon.

Fred L. Ames got away today on his trip to Nebraska. The Graphic has promised to have the drum corps out to greet him on his return in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Collier who went deer hunting in Southern Oregon say they got the limit and also had a glorious outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Newlin have been down from Corvallis during the week visiting with relatives. He will be one of the instructors in O. A. C. again this year.

Chas. E. Scott, who was the head machinist at the Anderson Motor Co. garage for a long time, has returned from Moro, where he spent two months on the ranch with his brother-in-law, Wiley McDonald. He says he and Wiley have leased two sections of wheat land and he expects to return to Moro next week and get into the harness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson who recently sold their place on the old ferry road to H. W. Weiss, of Portland, left today for their former home at Wichita, Kansas. They said their going was occasioned from the fact that the buyer of their Wichita property failed to make good with his payments. Mr. Weiss is out from Portland and has taken charge of the place.

Adrian Bowman, long-time resident of this section, who had been in declining health for the past two years, died at his farm home north of Newberg on last Saturday night, aged 80 years. Deceased was born at Mayville, Kentucky, but he lived in Maine a number of years before coming to Oregon. He was the father of twelve children, six of whom, with the widow, are living. Being of a rugged constitution, though then well along in years, he was one of the throng who went to Alaska with the Klondyke rush of 1898. Funeral services were conducted at the Hollingsworth Co. chapel on Monday afternoon by Rev. George H. Lee.

BAPTIST CHURCH
