CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stultz spent several days of last week in Portland.

Mrs. Lee Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, is visiting with them on Chehalem Mountain.

The Sunday school which was organized early in the summer by the mountain people is progressing rapidly. The attendance is good and the people are well pleased with the undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Noble were given a surprise on last Saturday night at the Marsh home near Sholls, when some sixty of their neighbors and friends gathered in for an evening of social enjoyment.

Trissa Mae Manier and Clifford Noble were united in marriage at McMinnville on September 18, Rev. E. M. Smith of the M. E. Church officiating. The bride recently moved here from Seaside and the groom is a son of A. A. Noble of West Chehalem.

"Fine! Best season I ever had. There was seven, all told—three couples in love an' a dyspeptic."—Life.

Hard for Her.

"I understand that in the new play Alice has quite a difficult part."

"Difficult? Why, she doesn't say a word."

"Well, isn't that difficult for Alice?"—Boston Transcript.

Truthful.

Sybil—"Did you tell him the truth when he asked how old you were?"

Sophia—"Oh, yes."
"What did you say?"
"That it was none of his business."—London Answers.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday September 26th. Sunday school at 9:45, Mr. Sanderman, supt. Morning worship at 11:00—"Invisible helpers." Evening Service at 8:00—"You are the goods you have to sell." Y. P. S. C. E. at 7:00, Mr. Lee, leader. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:45; "Jesus' Birth."

Changed His Mind.

He was well up in the sixties and always got a lot of pleasure out of walking. He would always say: "You city people don't get out enough and walk."

In his short stay in the city he stepped into his son's downtown magazine shop and said: "I just walked down from Thirty-fourth street." With pride he added: "That's not bad for a young fellow like me! And, by the way, your wife gave me this note and said for me to stop and get these things. Where is this store?"

"That's the department store just a square up the street—this street," replied his son.

"A department store! Where is that errand boy you have around here? I'm too tired to walk up there," replied the old man.

Bill, the Builder
Hits the Nail on the Head When He Says—

"Tis Cheaper to Build a Weather-proof Barn Than to Lose Good Stock Thru Want of One"

Your horses and cows need protection from bad weather just as much as you do. Because they cannot tell you when they are cold or uncomfortable, you must shelter them exceptionally well in order to prevent sickness and loss.

Material at Right Prices

Nature doesn't wait. Better get busy and build that weatherproof barn now. Then when bad weather comes you'll have it. We have the right quality lumber for such buildings, as well as for poultry houses, sheds, cribs, etc. You'll find our prices fair and square and our free service of great help to you.
