

Locals and Personals

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Atkinson on Monday, a son.

Miss Effie Pinney visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gibson at McMinnville on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Round attended the annual M. E. Conference at Salem last week.

Miss Gladys Wood, of Portland, is spending a few days with the family of her uncle, W. J. Morris.

Rev. Richard Hooking, of Jefferson, visited here with the Gillies and Harvey families the first of the week.

Carl Garrison of Pomeroy, Washington, paid a flying visit to his sister, Mrs. Yergen and Mrs. Campbell of Newberg last week.

Mrs. Anna Trude, of Yuma, California, who was here last spring visiting her daughter Mrs. Enos Ellis, died on the 20th ult., aged 84 years.

F. M. Stewart has sold his farm west of town to W. F. Devore, of Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will leave shortly for Los Angeles, California, for an extended visit with their son, and may locate there permanently.

Chapter L. P. E. O. met on Monday afternoon at Villa Vista, the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Eckerson out west of Newberg on the hill at the end of the bridge that spans Chehalis creek. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and dark red dahlias. Besides the members there were in attendance as visitors Mrs. E. R. Leedy, Mrs. J. E. Bradley, Dr. John S. Rankin, Attorney C. R. Chapin and son, Master Blon.

Miss Gladys Townsend spent Friday in Portland visiting her sister, Mrs. James Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom, spent Sunday with friends at Hood River, returning on Monday, accompanied by Mrs. C. H. Eastman of Newberg, who had been visiting at Hood River.

J. Carl Nelson was out from Portland on business Monday afternoon. While still in the employ of Ballou & Wright in the city he is located with his family on a slightly acre tract out on the Highway at Bertha station.

The many friends of Dr. E. A. Romig are glad to see him back in Newberg and located for practice again. For the present his office will be at the hospital and his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. Alexander Hull.

As stated last week Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson are arranging to go to Newport to spend some time. Mr. Wilson has not been in robust health for several months and it is thought by his physician that the fresh salt sea air may do him good. The sale of the Wilson property was made by W. S. White & Co.

Mrs. A. E. Say, who has been coming from her home at Wilsonville for several years to be a mother to her grandchildren who come to Newberg to attend high school from year to year, is here again this season and has the same pleasant smile she always wears. Harold Say, one of the first grandsons to come, is now holding down a desk with the Portland Telegram as reporter of marine and labor news.

Mrs. A. E. Brown is visiting friends at Salem this week.

Mrs. F. Fay spent a couple of days at Portland this week.

Miss Clara Williams came out from Portland and spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary E. Bankson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rutler, of Sac City, Iowa, are out visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Childs out north of town.

Mrs. Josie Everest, who has been visiting with relatives at Janesville, Wisconsin, is expected to arrive home this week.

Tom Cummings began work the first of the week on the new house he is building on the corner of Center and Hancock streets.

Miss Mildred Willis, has just returned from the Portland wholesale millinery house, where she has been taking notes and buying goods.

Miss Mildred Willis has been spending the past week in Portland visiting with her sister Maude who teaches in the Portland schools.

Alfreda, wife of Henry Zorn, of St. Paul, died, October 1. Funeral services were conducted by the priest at St. Paul church October 4th.

Zimri Ellis Jr. says he is going to give up the jitney business, he having accepted a position in Portland with the Standard Oil Co. at one of their filling stations.

Mrs. Eva Gilmore, of Seattle, is in Newberg in the interest of the W. C. T. U. and is meeting with flattering success. Mrs. Gilmore is the guest of Mrs. Theodore Jeffries.

Mrs. E. C. Stone, who was injured in an auto collision a short time ago, was removed to her home Wednesday from the F. E. Hadley home where she had been since the accident occurred.

Miss Laura M. Williams, who has been located at the corner of First and Meridian streets in the real estate business has moved back to her former location at the corner of First and Blaine streets.

R. A. Spivey, who traded for the J. P. Soper paint store a short time ago, was called to Geneva, Nebraska last week on account of the serious illness of his father, who died soon after his arrival there.

Miss Flora Dean, a niece of W. H. Dean who lives out north of town, is here from Appleton, Wisconsin on a visit. She expects to spend the winter at Newport in order to get the benefit of the salt sea air.

Mrs. Ann A. Lucas, a widow, and the mother of Mrs. C. A. Clemenson, died on last Saturday, aged 79 years. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel by Rev. Chas. E. Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood have moved from the Pinney property on Dayton Avenue to a small farm in the Fernwood district, owned by Mrs. B. L. Hicks of Yamhill. Mr. Livengood will retain his position with the S. P. Co., going back and forth in the Ford.

Marshal J. W. Henry is again on duty after a two weeks' vacation, during which he visited his son Howard, at Penticton, B. C., who is in the employ of the Kitts Valley Railway company as passenger conductor. Marshal Henry says the region which he visited produces some of the finest fruit he has ever seen.

Mrs. Emma O. Pope died on last Saturday at her home on the corner of Second and Center streets, aged 60 years. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. George H. Lee at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel on Monday. Deceased had two sons, Fred and Robert Pope who live at Astoria and two married daughters, Mrs. Pool and Mrs. Anderson.

At a regular meeting of the city council held Monday night the deal was closed with L. S. Otis for the purchase of an additional spring out at his farm, the price being $1,250. An ordinance was ordered drawn for the purpose of regulating the care of cow barns within the city limits, and the marshal was directed to see that all sawdust and other rubbish about the streets is cleaned up.

Mr. and Mrs. John Estes, who bought the J. H. Wilson property on East Hancock street last week, came here from Santa Cruz, California, where they went from McMinnville some eight years ago. Mr. Estes is a brother-in-law of sheriff Watt Henderson and was engaged in the livery business in McMinnville for several years. He says they liked California in many ways but that they tired of the continuous sunshine.

Owen Tierney and wife, of Randall, Montana, arrived in Newberg Sunday and will make an extended visit with Mrs. Tierney's father, A. Millard, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Tierney left Randall in an auto, intending to make the trip to California by that means, but on reaching Tacoma they encountered such bad roads, occasioned by the heavy rains, that they put the auto in a garage and came on by train.

Claud R. Groth of the First National Bank is taking a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood have moved back to the B. L. Hicks place in Fernwood.

Finis Smith, late of Georgetown, Illinois, now of Tacoma, Washington, was the guest of C. E. Akers and family Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Ida Baker, of Seattle, is attending her sister, Mrs. J. A. Hollingsworth, who has been ill for the past fortnight, but is now improving.

W. V. Dolph, a well known orchardist located six miles northwest of Newberg, was in town Wednesday stirring around with a lively step, as he always is.

W. D. Lewis, who has been afflicted with rheumatism, followed by heart trouble, is still confined to his room and his physician does not expect him to be out for three months.

Mrs. A. B. Becker, of Tacoma, and Mrs. F. McGilvren of Seattle, who were called here by the illness of their sister Mrs. J. A. Hollingsworth, returned to their homes last week.

At the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning at the church of God the subject of the sermon will be "Pentecostal Power," and at 7:30 in the evening, "Paving Roads to Hell."

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Pearson of Wall-halla, North Dakota, arrived in Newberg yesterday and will locate here permanently. Some time ago Mr. Pearson bought a corner lot of G. W. James on First street.

E. P. Smith has arrived home from Gresham, where he was called to the bedside of his father, 84 years old, who had sustained a fractured hip, occasioned by a fall. On account of his age, recovery is uncertain.

Dr. H. A. Littlefield has secured a five-room cottage at Tucson, Arizona, where he went recently to recuperate, and reports that he is nicely domiciled and that the climate and surroundings are agreeable and that his health is improving.

Miss Della Parrish, bookkeeper at McCoy Bros. garage, and her sister, Miss Freda, of the U. S. National Bank, expect to leave Saturday on a two weeks' vacation, visiting friends at Milton, and their uncle, M. C. McKern, at Pendleton.

Mrs. Ethel M. Brown, a former Newberg resident, now living near Dallas, will again become a resident of Newberg as soon as the prune season is over. Mrs. Brown is desirous of giving her boys the advantage of the splendid schools of Newberg.

Paul L. Newmeyer, manager of Meadowvale Farm, who took a number of Duroc and Berkshire hogs to the state fair last week, says he came away more than pleased with the awards he received, causing the old time breeders to sit up and take notice.

Harry Perkins, who has been here from Globe, Arizona, on a visit is leaving for home by auto. His father, Wm. Perkins, is going with him to remain for the winter, he having rented his home place to Roy Lambert, who has been on the Dr. Chlbreath farm in West Chehalis.

Capt. Stoker of the state fire marshal's office spoke to the local fire department Tuesday evening at the city hall, giving them an interesting talk on matters pertaining to fire fighting and fire prevention, and strongly recommended better equipment for the Newberg fire department.

Alva Guley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Guley, who drove through in autos from Fowler, Kansas, arrived here on Friday of last week and are located for the present at Sixth and Willamette streets. The elder Mr. Guley will engage in some business in town if he finds something to his liking, while the son will probably invest in farm land. Two daughters and one son enrolled as students in Pacific College the first of the week.

Dr. W. V. Coffin, whose home is at Whittier, California, and who is field man for the educational board of the Five Years Meeting of Friends church, is expected to arrive here in a day or two in company with Rev. Charles O. Whitely, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, former pastor of the local Friends church and now Evangelistic Superintendent of Iowa Yearly Meeting. They are coming for a conference with the Pacific College board, relative to a campaign for funds for increasing the endowment of the college. Dr. Coffin has a good knowledge of Oregon, for back in the early eighties he was located at Forest Grove, first as physician at the Indian school and later as superintendent. He had charge when the school was moved to Chemawa and was there when the grounds were cleared and the first buildings were put up. Those were the days when heads came off with the change of administrations, and he went out when Cleveland entered the White House.

Lamp Specials

From October 1st to October 12th, we will sell in cartons of five the following standard Edison Mazda Lamps at reduced prices.

	Regular Price	Special Price
25 Watt Mazda	40 Cts.	35 Cts
40 " " "	40 " "	35 " "
60 " " "	45 " "	40 " "
50 " Mazda Frosted	65 " "	55 " "

Buy five, save 25 cents, and have lamps on hand when needed. Special price on Flash-Lights complete during the period from Oct. 1 to 12, inclusive

Yamhill Electric Company

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

It is expected that Rev. Charles O. Whitely, former pastor, will be the speaker at Friends church next Sunday morning.

N. F. Byers, J. D. Gordon, S. L. Parrett, George Jones, Dean Calkins, W. L. Robertson and A. C. Seely went to McMinnville last Monday night to attend a gathering of republicans at a banquet that was arranged by the county central committee. The speakers were Senator Gus Mosier and R. N. Stanfield, candidate for United States Senator and the boys say they had a royal good time.

Mr. Spangle of Dayton, was a Sunday visitor at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harvey A. Wright on East Fulton street.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Moore who spent the prune drying season at the home of his brother, A. E. Moore out west of Newberg, and who have been farming for the past two years over near Woodburn, will locate in Portland. They attended the M. E. Conference last week and he was assigned to the Epworth church in Portland, located out in the vicinity of the old Lewis and Clark fair grounds.

JUST SUPPOSE SOMETHING HAPPENED TO YOU. YES, YOU.

PUT YOUR MONEY IN OUR BANK.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
NEWBERG, OREGON

School Books and Supplies

School Begins Monday Oct. 4

Your Rexal Store

Should be Your Stationer

We have everything you need in School Books, Pencils, Pens, Penholders, Tablets, Note Books, Composition Books, Rules, Lunch Kits, Book straps, Water Colors, Crayons, Fountain Pens from $1.00 to $6.00 that will not leak and stain your fingers, with points suited to every hand. We have had years of experience in handling school books, and know your childrens needs, send them to us and we will fit them out right.

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist
The REXALL Store

302 First St
NEWBERG, OREGON

SPECIAL

For a Few Days only on

J & D TIRES

30x3 $15.00

30x3 1-2 $19.00

32x3 1-2 $23.95

31x4 $26.80

32x4 $30.70

33x4 $32.20

34x4 $33.00

6000 Mile Guarantee

DOYLE'S TIRE SHOP

713 First Street

We have a Complete Line

—OF—

School Supplies

(No School Books)

HEADQUARTERS FOR
Magazines and Kodak Supplies

Graham's Drug Store

Phone White 113

Eastman Kodaks

Nyals Medicines