LOCALS

Mrs. Franklin Martin and little one are here from Quincy, Washington visiting with relatives.

Prof. and Mrs. Charles E. Lewis who, taught in the college last year were out from Portland last Sunday calling on friends.

Will Finnegan came over from Laurel last Sunday to hear Dr. Gertrude Minthorn speak at Friends church. He was a student in the academy here when she was a little tot.

Dr. Gertrude Minthorn spoke at Friends church last Sunday evening to a large audience, telling a very interesting story of her work as a medical missionary in India. She said that owing to the fact that a sick woman in India would die, rather than call a man physician, owing to the custom of the country, there was an open door for a woman physician as a missionary there.

WEST CHEHALEM

An interest in basket ball has been aroused in the young men of the community. A ball has been purchased and practice begun. All young men of the community are asked to come and practice. A floor will be rented in Newberg for practicing.

Last Friday evening the Christian Endeavorers met at the church for a business meeting. Permanent officers for the society were elected. The young ladies were conspicuous by their absence. Nevertheless a good time was enjoyed by all present after the business meeting. After the game of "I doubt it" had been played for a time, pop corn and apples were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. H. C. Baker spent a day visiting the Ewing Young school where she says good work is being done.

The "Upstreamers," the boys class, are going to have a "get-together" social Friday evening of this week.

Next Sunday evening Rev. Brock will speak on the subject of: "Christian Science versus Real Science and The Word of God."

A Christmas Gift for Your Family

A new Ford Sedan delivered to your home Christmas morning will be the supreme gift for the day and throughout the coming year. You will drive it every day—all winter—in comfort. Just as much fresh air as you want and NO MORE. Just as much warmth as you need, and NO MORE. Wherever you wish to go, the whole family—even the babies—will be as comfortable as if at home by the fireside.

You owe it to yourself—to your wife and to your children—to get out of the city. Mt. Hood, the Columbia Highway, all the streams and woods of Oregon are brought close to your home if you own a Ford Sedan. Friends who live at a distance can be visited quickly and comfortably. It broadens your horizon, increases your happiness and promotes good health every day. No other investment brings so much pleasure and satisfaction and saves so much time at so small a cost as a Ford Sedan.

The amount you are planning to spend for Christmas gifts for the family can be used as your first payment on a Ford Sedan. The balance may be paid in small amounts through the coming year. Take advantage of HENRY FORD'S CHRISTMAS GIFT to you. He has made the PRICE BELOW PRESENT COST OF MANUFACTURE for your benefit at this time.
