

John Jay Knox

Money he earned and saved while a village youth he spent on an education. As a bank clerk, later, he was studious and thrifty. At middle age a great financier, Knox lectured and wrote about banking topics and as Comptroller of the Currency he helped refinance the government after the Civil war.

Are you preparing for future prosperity and comfort by saving regularly a part of your earnings? Will you be able to take advantage of opportunity for profitable investment when it comes? Could you weather a sick spell without going heavily in debt?

Be able to say YES to these questions a few months hence by starting a savings account with us with a part of your pay this week. Watching that account grow will stimulate your energies.

Multiply your money in our care.

DUNDEE

Henry Billich left us Monday for California where he will have one big time, we are sure.

Mrs. Langellier has fixed up the Edwards building, where she will make her home for a while.

Mayor Paul Groth held a very successful aluminum ware sale Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hayward have gone to Massachusetts on a visit.

One of the most successful public entertainments the Dundee Woman's club has ever sponsored was given last Saturday evening in the form of a bazaar, called "Community Fair." As we entered the door the first thing that attracted our attention, was the splendid display of farm produce, pumpkins, squashes, potatoes, apples, and other fruits and vegetables, such as tend to make a person hungry. Mrs. E. G. Shannahan can well be complimented on her splendid arrangements of this display. We have already turned to our left to see what we first saw, so let us proceed in that direction. Candy, peanuts, popcorn, calendars, aprons, fancy work and other things good to eat and beautiful to look at, all for sale by the co-workers. Couldn't help but buy something from such nice girls. Then comes soup, can smell it already. "Clam or oyster?" Both please," Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Marr, Mrs. Dymont and Mrs. A. A. Parrett were kept busy making and serving soup, while Mrs. Nelson took in the money. "What's that Mrs. Olmstead, stamps?" "Oh, yes, for the Oregon Tuberculosis association. You bet, give me—What's that all sold but 50?" "Well let us have them. The people know a good cause when they see it. Thank you."

Well here we are in the quilts and fancy work room. Such a display we never saw before. The awards on quilts were as follows: Miss Frances Edders, for the prettiest design; Mrs. F. D. Hutchinson for the prettiest unfinished; Mrs. G. E. Greer for the oldest. This quilt is over 50 years old, Mrs. R. J. Groth for the largest number of pieces, her quilt containing over 3,000 pieces, and Mrs. E. G. Shannahan for the best quilted. Then for fancy work, Mrs. A. A. Parrett walked off with first prize for the best display, all made by herself. Mrs. John Parrett took second with work done by her seventh and eighth grade pupils at school, and Mrs. H. B. Powell took third. It was all mighty fine work and would rank with the best in the state. Other things of interest found in this room were: A hand-made cane, composed of bone rings, owned by Mrs. John Parrett; a wooden dividing compass, hand-made and over 200 years old; a piece of hand-woven linen 150 years old, both contributed by Mrs. J. E. DeVore, and two pieces of real fine colored embroidery, made by Harry Starr's mother when she was 80 years old. Some folks tell us that these exhibits were fully as good as those seen at the state fair. Although we could spend the whole evening in such a place, let's move on. Now what could be any nicer than some more sweets, nuts, etc., Mrs. Spencer Vedder, Mrs. W. J. Bennett, Mrs. Joe Herring and Mrs. Clark Noble were awarded second prize for the beauty of their booth, and first for the taste of their goodies by all who indulged. Next! Pies by the Dundee Bakery. We believe a person should have a barrel for a stomach at an affair like this. Mrs. W. J. Gordon, Mrs. Bruno Homberger, Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Locke, only received third prize for their booth, but their pies couldn't be beat, that's all. Look! There is old Santa Claus himself handing out toys to all from that pretty Christmas tree. How many folks like Mrs. J. B. Herring, Mrs. R. Olmstead, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Alfred Allan could get old Santa himself to favor them with a visit for a whole evening that way. Johnny Herring sure was lucky to get those two real live chickens. Why we have wandered into a forest of fir trees. "Look, see that moon?" "What's that, moonshine, well let's have some." Mrs. Holzmeyer, Mrs. B. Groth, Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. Dearborn and Mrs. Fred Herring, surely deserve first prize on this as the most original booth. Why! See that home of plenty just across the hall with all kinds of eats. Lo and behold just on the other side of a partition in the same booth is a Japanese tea garden, with two nice Japanese girls to wait on you, and oh such tea. Mrs. Bland Herring, Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. H. B. Powell, Mrs. John Parrett and Mrs. Starr, with the help of Pauline and Isabella managed this booth and the first prize for beauty was well earned. Hats, neckties, books, powderpuffs, games, almost anything to be had at Miss Sally Beck's rummage sale, all contributed, and gotten up by herself. She cleared over $50.00 for the club and if any one should have honorable mention she should. The judges for quilts and fancy work were Mrs. Greenwell, Mrs. Gidding, and Mrs. White, while Rev. Taber, Prof. Allor and Mr. Greenwell served as the committee to judge the booths. A wonderful program was enjoyed by everyone, and taking it all around it was worth going a long ways to see and enjoy.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer was back in school Monday after an illness of three days last week. The W. C. T. U. ladies met at the home of Mrs. Mary Johnson last Wednesday. Those present were: Mesdams Hays, Elliott, Tangen, Staley, Walton, Johnson and Miss Violet Staley. A very good meeting was held. The new farm-home for orphans was talked of, also ways and means to raise money. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Staley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ray went to Tualatin, last Friday to be at the bedside of a very sick uncle, Newton Peters, who passed away Friday. The funeral was held last Sunday, at Middleton. Mrs. Charley Lundstrum, Mrs. Swan Lundstrum, and Miss Mabel Lundstrum, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Marie Tangen Tuesday.
