S. T. Edminston spent several days in Portland improving his property at Rose City Park.

That hard wind played havoc with trees in this section, blowing several across the road, and also blew a hop house down on the R. R. Lee place.

Mr. and Mrs. Henery Tautfest and the Misses Mabel, Hazel and Hilda, of Fargo, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Tautfest's sister, Mrs. Will Smith.

Miss Josephine Graham, of Willsonville, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Pearl Roberts.

Preparations are being made for a large Christmas program at the hall Friday evening, December 24, consisting of dialogues, tableaux, recitations, pantomimes, drills and songs, with a Christmas tree.

George Smith helped Roy Hacker butcher a beef Monday afternoon.

Reuben Kramler spent Sunday at the St. Clair home. Don't know what the attraction is, but we hear it was a banquet served at 2:15 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hacker and family were Sunday visitors at I. J. Tautfest's home.

I. J. Tautfest was greatly surprised Saturday evening when several of his neighbors walked in. It took him some time to comprehend what it all meant; said he had forgotten it was his birthday. Mrs. Tautfest had prepared a lovely lunch which was another surprise for Isaac. Ross Looney furnished music with his new music box and violin. It was getting along "in the wee hours of the mornin'" when the guest departed for home, wishing Mr. Tautfest many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, Henery Tautfest of Fargo, Will Smith, Ross Looney, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Tautfest, Howard Smith, Melba and Melvin Tautfest.

Don't miss the program Friday evening, December 24, for one of the comic plays is "Yankee Doodle." The actors will be: Geo. Johnson, Leo St. Clair, Reuben Kramler and Geo. St. Clair.

Miss Ola Martin was in Portland Friday and Saturday having some dental work done.

Carl Kramler, who has been working in a logging camp near West Timber, came home Monday.

R. H. Walls is progressing rapidly with his new barn with several of his neighbors helping him.

To black a stove with hard soap—Have stove warm, then rub it thoroughly with soap. Polish with flannel and the result is satisfactory. Instead of using cord for hanging up your brooms and brushes and put pans a wire is better and it will not soil or wear out.
